INTRODUCTORY COVER NOTE

What is this document?

This document (the "Base Prospectus") constitutes a base prospectus for the purposes of Article 8 of the EU Prospectus Regulation in respect of all Products, other than Exempt Products (each as defined below). This Base Prospectus is valid for 12 months after its approval and will expire on 22 June 2024.

This Base Prospectus may be supplemented from time to time to reflect any significant new factor, material mistake or inaccuracy relating to the information included in it. The obligation to supplement a prospectus in the event of any significant new factor, material mistake or material inaccuracy relating to the information included in it does not apply when such prospectus is no longer valid. Each supplement will be available for viewing on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange at www.LuxSE.com.

This Base Prospectus supersedes and replaces in its entirety the Base Prospectus dated 24 June 2022, in respect of the Programme (as defined below). This does not affect any Products issued prior to the date of this Base Prospectus.

When used in this document, "EU Prospectus Regulation" means Regulation (EU) 2017/1129, as amended. References in this Base Prospectus to "Exempt Products" are to Products for which no prospectus is required to be published in the European Economic Area ("EEA") under the EU Prospectus Regulation (or in respect of which a separate prospectus will be published under the EU Prospectus Regulation).

Approval of the Base Prospectus

This Base Prospectus has been approved by the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (the "CSSF"), which is the competent authority for the purpose of the EU Prospectus Regulation, for the purpose of giving information with regard to the issue of Products (excluding Exempt Products) by Leonteq Securities AG which may also be acting through its Guernsey branch (Leonteq Securities AG, Guernsey Branch) or its Amsterdam branch (Leonteq Securities AG, Amsterdam Branch) (the "Issuer") under the Programme during the period of 12 months from the date of this Base Prospectus. The CSSF has only approved this Base Prospectus as meeting the standards of completeness, comprehensibility and consistency imposed by the EU Prospectus Regulation. Pursuant to article 6(4) of the Luxembourg Law dated 16 July 2019 on prospectuses for securities (the "Luxembourg Prospectus Law"), by approving this Base Prospectus, the CSSF gives no undertaking as to, and assumes no responsibility for, the economic and financial characteristics of the Products to be issued hereunder or the quality and solvency of the Issuer. Such approval should not be considered as an endorsement of the quality of the Products that are the subject of this Base Prospectus. Investors should make their own assessment as to the suitability of investing in the Products.

The CSSF has neither approved nor reviewed the Form of Pricing Supplement, which only applies to Exempt Products, or the information contained therein nor reviewed any information in relation to an admission to trading on SIX Swiss Exchange Ltd ("SIX Swiss Exchange") and/or BX Swiss Ltd ("BX Swiss") and offers to the public in Switzerland. In addition, the CSSF has neither approved nor reviewed any information in relation to the Exempt Products.

This Base Prospectus has also been approved by the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for the purpose of giving information with regard to the issue of Exempt Products only by the Issuer under the Programme during the period of 12 months from the date of this Base Prospectus.

What type of products may be issued under this Base Prospectus?

The Issuer may from time to time issue securities in the form of Notes, Certificates or Warrants (all of which are referred to in this Base Prospectus as "Products") as part of the European Issuance and Offering Programme for the issuance of Notes, Certificates and Warrants (the "Programme") under this Base Prospectus. Products may

- (a) have a fixed term with any maturity or maybe without a fixed term,
- (b) be non-interest bearing or bear fixed or floating rate interest or other variable interest,
- (c) provide for conditional or unconditional coupon payments, including fixed coupon amounts, coupon amounts related to reference rates or coupon amounts which are dependent on the performance of one or more underlyings (as described below),
- (d) have redemption amounts which are dependent on the performance of one or more underlying(s) (as described below) or determined redemption amounts,
- (e) be partially redeemed on partial redemption dates prior to the scheduled final redemption date,
- (f) be settled by way of cash payment or delivery of a delivery underlying(s) which may each be any of the underlyings or any other specified asset,
- (g) provide for an option to allow early redemption at the discretion of the Issuer and/or the holders of Products (defined below, as "Investors") prior to scheduled maturity,
- (h) or may not be subject to mandatory early redemption (autocall) dependent on the performance of the underlying(s), and
- (i) provide that the scheduled amount payable could be as low as zero or else provide some level of minimum scheduled amount payable at maturity (subject to the credit risk of the Issuer).

The Products are unsecured and unsubordinated general obligations of the Issuer, provided that the Issuer may issue Products with collateral security in the form of TCM Secured Products. The relevant Issue Terms (as defined below) will indicate whether or not the Product is a TCM Secured Product.

Products may be listed and traded on a regulated (or other) market, or not listed or traded.

Products may also be issued as Exchange Traded Products (ETP). ETPs are Products subject to listing on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange in accordance with the Conditions for Exchange Traded Funds & Exchange Traded Products Segment of Deutsche Börse AG (the "DBAG Conditions") that are issued as Products subject to the Description for ETP Products (see section 'Description of Exchange Traded Products ("ETPs")' below). ETPs provide for the following characteristics:

- (a) have an open ended term, or have a long maturity of 50 years up,
- (b) track an index or a single commodity,
- (c) providing for redemption payout of Tracker Products,
- (d) do not provide for coupon payments,
- (e) issued as TCM Secured Products (see section 'Description of TCM ("Triparty Collateral Management") Secured Products' below) and
- (f) listed at a specific ETP segment on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange.

The Products are issued by the Issuer pursuant to the Base Prospectus and underwritten by and/or offered by an Authorised Participant. The Authorised Participant may apply for or redeem the ETPs, in its sole discretion. All other persons can buy and sell ETPs through trading on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange or other relevant trading venue on which the ETPs are admitted to trading or off-exchange from the Issuer. They can also request a direct redemption from the Issuer in accordance with the Conditions.

What type of underlying(s) may determine the interest and/or redemption amount payable (or underlying(s) deliverable) under the Products?

The coupon and redemption terms of Products issued under this Base Prospectus may be linked to the performance of one or more of the following types of Underlying(s): share, participation certificate, depositary receipt, index (including proprietary index), commodity (for example metals like gold, energy commodities like natural gas or emission allowances), currency exchange rate, futures contract on any of the Underlying(s) named herein, fixed rate instrument, derivative instrument on any of the Underlyings named herein, exchange traded fund share, fund unit, interest rate, reference rate or a basket containing some or all of such types of assets. Investors in Products will have no rights of ownership in the Underlying(s) in respect of such Product.

Who is the Issuer and where do I find information about it?

The Products will be issued by Leonteq Securities AG which may also be acting through its Guernsey branch ("Leonteq Securities AG, Guernsey Branch") or its Amsterdam branch ("Leonteq Securities AG, Amsterdam Branch") ("Leonteq" or the "Issuer"). The payment of any amount or delivery of any underlying(s) under the Products is subject to the financial position of the Issuer and the ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations at the relevant time. The Registration Document for the Issuer (as defined in the section of this Base Prospectus entitled 'Information Incorporated by Reference') which is incorporated by reference into this Base Prospectus, together with other information provided in this Base Prospectus, provides a description of the business activities of the Issuer as well as certain financial information and material risks faced by the Issuer.

The Products (other than the TCM Secured Products) are unsecured and unsubordinated general obligations of the Issuer. The TCM Secured Products are general obligations of the Issuer that are collateralised in accordance with the TCM Security Agreement (as described in more detail below in the section of this Base Prospectus 'Description of TCM ("Triparty Collateral Management") Secured Products').

How do I use this Base Prospectus?

This Base Prospectus (including the Registration Document and any other information which is incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus) contains all information which is necessary to enable investors to make an informed decision regarding the financial position and prospects of the Issuer and the rights attaching to the Products. Some of this information is incorporated by reference from other publicly available documents and some of this information is completed in the Issue Terms (as described below). Investors should read each of these documents, before making any decision to invest in a Product.

What are Issue Terms?

"Issue Terms" means either

- (a) if the Products are not Exempt Products, the applicable Final Terms, or
- (b) if the Products are Exempt Products, the applicable Pricing Supplement.

What are Final Terms?

The "Final Terms" will be prepared in relation to each issuance of Products (other than Exempt Products), and sets out the specific details of the Products. For example, the Final Terms will contain the issue date, the redemption date, the Underlying(s) to which the Products are linked (and the related Underlying Specific Conditions which apply to the Products) and specify the applicable Payout Conditions used to calculate the redemption amount and any interest payments (if applicable) of the Products.

In addition, an issue-specific summary will be annexed to the Final Terms for each issuance of the Products (other than Exempt Products) where required under the EU Prospectus Regulation. Each issue-specific summary will contain a summary of key information relating to the Issuer, the Products, the risks relating to the Issuer and the Products, and the offer of the Products.

What is a Pricing Supplement?

A "Pricing Supplement" will be prepared in relation to each issuance of Exempt Products, and sets out the specific details of the Exempt Products. For example, the Pricing Supplement will contain the issue date, the redemption date, the Underlying(s) to which the Products are linked (and the related Underlying Specific Conditions which apply to the Product) and specify the applicable Payout Conditions used to calculate the redemption amount and any interest payments (if applicable) of the Exempt Product.

What are the risks in relation to the Products?

Investing in the Products is subject to a number of risks, as described in the section of this Base Prospectus entitled 'Risk Factors' below, including the section 'Risk Factors' in the Registration Document incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus. The Products are speculative investments, and returns may at times be volatile and losses may occur quickly and in an anticipated magnitude. Depending on the particular Payout Conditions (as described in this Base Prospectus and as specified in the applicable Issue Terms) of the Products, Investors may bear the risk of losing some or up to all of their investment depending on the performance of the Underlying(s) to which the Products are linked. For all Products other than TCM Secured Products, if the Issuer becomes insolvent or bankrupt or otherwise fails to make payment or meet its delivery obligations in respect of the Products, Investors will lose some or all of their investment. In respect of TCM Secured Products, if the Issuer becomes insolvent or bankrupt or otherwise fails to make payment or meet its delivery obligations in respect of the Products Investors may benefit from a claim over certain collateral; however, Investors may also suffer losses if the value of the collateral declines.

Investors should not acquire a Product unless they (whether on their own or in conjunction with a financial adviser) understand the nature of the Product and the extent of the exposure to potential loss on the Product, and any investment in a Product must be consistent with such Investor's overall investment strategy. Investors (whether on their own or in conjunction with a financial adviser) should consider carefully whether the Product is suitable for them in the light of their investment objectives, financial capabilities and expertise. Investors should consult their own legal, tax, accountancy, regulatory, investment and other professional advisers as may be required to assist them in determining the suitability of the Product for them as an investment.

IMPORTANT LEGAL INFORMATION

THE AMOUNT PAYABLE OR UNDERLYING(S) DELIVERABLE ON REDEMPTION OF THE PRODUCTS MAY BE LESS THAN THE ORIGINAL INVESTED AMOUNT AND IN SOME CASES MAY BE ZERO, IN WHICH CASE INVESTORS WILL LOSE SOME OR ALL OF THEIR INVESTMENT.

WHEN INVESTING IN THE PRODUCTS, INVESTORS ARE SUBJECT TO THE CREDIT RISK OF THE ISSUER. FOR TCM SECURED PRODUCTS ONLY, INVESTORS WILL ALSO HAVE RECOURSE TO THE RELEVANT COLLATERAL. THE PRODUCTS (OTHER THAN THE TCM SECURED PRODUCTS) ARE UNSECURED OBLIGATIONS OF THE ISSUER. THE PRODUCTS ARE NOT BANK DEPOSITS AND ARE NEITHER INSURED NOR GUARANTEED BY ANY GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY OR DEPOSIT PROTECTION SCHEME IN SWITZERLAND OR IN ANY OTHER JURISDICTION. THEREFORE, IF THE ISSUER FAILS OR IS OTHERWISE UNABLE TO MEET ITS PAYMENT OR DELIVERY OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE PRODUCTS (OTHER THAN THE TCM SECURED PRODUCTS), INVESTORS WILL LOSE SOME OR ALL OF THEIR INVESTMENT. IN RESPECT OF THE TCM SECURED PRODUCTS, IF THE COLLATERAL IS LIQUIDATED AND THE VALUE OF THE COLLATERAL IS LESS THAN THE VALUE OF THE TCM SECURED PRODUCT, INVESTORS MAY LOSE SOME OF THEIR INVESTMENT.

INVESTING IN PRODUCTS INVOLVES CERTAIN RISKS, AND INVESTORS SHOULD FULLY UNDERSTAND THESE BEFORE THEY INVEST. SEE THE SECTION HEADED 'RISK FACTORS' BELOW.

EEA Retail Investors

Unless the Issue Terms in respect of the relevant Products specifies 'Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors' as 'Not Applicable', the Products are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area ("EEA"). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, "MiFID II"); (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (the "Insurance Distribution Directive"), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in the EU Prospectus Regulation. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the "EU PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Products or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Products or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the EU PRIIPs Regulation.

Offer in Switzerland

If and to the extent that the Products will be publicly offered, directly or indirectly, in Switzerland within the meaning of the Financial Services Act ("FinSA") or if the Products shall be admitted to trading on a Swiss trading venue pursuant to the Financial Market Infrastructure Act ("FMIA"), e.g. on SIX Swiss Exchange and/or BX Swiss, a prospectus in accordance with FinSA would be required. Such requirement may be met on the basis of (i) an automatic recognition of this Base Prospectus in Switzerland under the rules of the FinSA by way of a notification of, and a registration of this Base Prospectus with, a Swiss reviewing body (a "FinSA Reviewing Body") pursuant to the rules of the FinSA, as implemented by the relevant FinSA Reviewing Body and (ii) depositing the relevant Final Terms with the FinSA Reviewing Body. Such a registration would be possible for a Base Prospectus that is approved by the CSSF, as competent authority under the EU Prospectus Regulation. Any such Swiss offering and/or listing and/or admission to trading described in this paragraph and in respect of which the FinSA prospectus requirement is intended to be satisfied in accordance with (i) and (ii) in this paragraph above, is referred to as a "Swiss Public Offering/FMIA Admission to Trading (via FinSA Prospectus Recognition)".

Except to the extent the Base Prospectus is registered with the FinSA Reviewing Body under the rules of the FinSA, neither this Base Prospectus nor any other offering or marketing material relating to the Products constitutes a prospectus pursuant to the FinSA, and neither this Base Prospectus nor any other offering or marketing material relating to the Products may be publicly distributed or otherwise made publicly available in Switzerland, unless the requirements of FinSA and Financial Services Ordinance ("FinSO") for such public distribution are complied with.

None of the Products constitute a participation in a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Collective Investment Schemes Act ("CISA") and are neither subject to the authorisation nor the supervision by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority ("FINMA") and investors do not benefit from the specific investor protection provided under the CISA.

If and to the extent the Products will be offered, sold or advertised, directly or indirectly to retail clients (Privatkundinnen und -kunden) within the meaning of FinSA ("Retail Clients") a key investor document (Basisinformationsblatt) pursuant to Article 58 et seqq. of FinSA relating to the Products (a "FinSA-KID") would need to be prepared, unless the Retail Clients shall receive a key information document pursuant to the EU PRIIPs Regulation instead of a FinSA-KID.

No investment advice

Neither this Base Prospectus nor any Issue Terms is or purports to be investment advice. Unless expressly agreed otherwise with a particular Investor, none of the Issuer or the Lead Manager is acting as an investment adviser, providing advice of any other nature, or assuming any fiduciary obligation to any Investor in the Products.

Independent evaluation

Nothing in this Base Prospectus is intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation (except in respect of any purchase of the Products described herein) or should be considered as a recommendation by the Issuer or the Lead Manager that any recipient of this Base Prospectus (or any document referred to herein) should purchase any Products.

Investors should not purchase any Products unless they understand the extent of their exposure to potential loss. Investors are urged to read the risk factors described in the section of this Base Prospectus entitled 'Risk Factors' below, together with the other information in this Base Prospectus (including any information incorporated by reference), as supplemented from time to time, and the Issue Terms, before investing in the Products.

Investors should note that (i) the risks described in the section in this Base Prospectus entitled 'Risk Factors' below and (ii) the risks described in the section entitled 'Risk Factors' of the Registration Document (which is incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus) are not the only risks that the Issuer faces or that may arise because of the nature of the Products. The Issuer has described only those risks relating to its operations and to the Products that the Issuer considers to be material. There may be additional risks that the Issuer currently considers not to be material or of which it is not currently aware.

Given the nature, complexity and risks inherent in the Products (and investments relating to the type of Underlying(s)), the Products may not be suitable for investors' investment objectives in light of their financial position. Investors should consider seeking independent advice to assist them in determining whether the Products are a suitable investment for them and to assist them in evaluating the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus or set out in the Issue Terms.

Investors have sole responsibility for the management of their tax and legal affairs including making any applicable filings and payments and complying with any applicable laws and regulations. None of the Issuer, the Lead Manager, any Agent or any of their respective affiliates will provide investors with tax or legal advice and investors should obtain their own independent tax and legal advice tailored to their individual circumstances. The tax treatment of securities, such as the Products, can be complex and the tax treatment applied to an individual depends on their circumstances. The level and basis of taxation may change during the term of any Product.

Amounts due to be paid to Investors are described on a gross basis, i.e., without calculating any tax liability. The Issuer shall make no deduction for any tax, duty, or other charge unless required by law.

Potential for Discretionary Determinations by the Calculation Agent under the Products

Under the terms and conditions of the Products, following the occurrence of certain events outside of the control of the Issuer, the Lead Manager, the Agents and their respective affiliates, the Calculation Agent may exercise discretion to take one or more of the actions available to it in order to deal with the impact of such event on the Products or (if applicable) the Issuer's hedging arrangements. Any such discretionary determinations could have a material adverse impact on the value of and return on the Products.

Distribution

The distribution or delivery of this Base Prospectus or any Issue Terms and any offer or sale of the Products in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. This document does not constitute, and may not be used for the purposes of, an offer or solicitation by anyone in any jurisdiction in which such offer or solicitation is not authorised or to any person to whom it is unlawful to make such offering or solicitation. Other than as expressly described in this Base Prospectus, no action is being taken to permit an offering of the Products or the delivery of this Base Prospectus in any jurisdiction. Persons into whose possession this Base Prospectus or any Issue Terms comes are required by the Issuer to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. Details of selling restrictions for various jurisdictions are set out in the section 'Purchase and Sale' below and may also be set out in the Issue Terms.

Selling restrictions

The Products and in certain cases, the Entitlements are subject to restrictions on offers, sales and transfers of Products and delivery of this Base Prospectus and any Issue Terms, see 'Purchase and Sale' herein.

Guernsey Regulatory

Neither this Base Prospectus nor any Products offered pursuant to this Base Prospectus have been reviewed or approved by the Guernsey Financial Services Commission and neither the Guernsey Financial Services Commission nor does the States of Guernsey take any responsibility for the financial soundness of the Issuer or its securities, or for the correctness of any of the statements made or opinions expressed with regard to it.

If you are in any doubt about the contents of this Base Prospectus you should consult your accountant, legal or professional adviser or financial adviser.

The directors of the Issuer have taken all reasonable care to ensure that the facts stated in this document are true and accurate in all material respects, and that there are no other facts the omission of which would make misleading any statement in the document, whether of facts or of opinion. All of the directors accept responsibility accordingly.

It should be remembered that the price of products and the income from them can go down as well as up.

Change of circumstances

Neither the delivery of this Base Prospectus (including the Registration Document or any other information incorporated by reference in this Base Prospectus) or any Issue Terms, nor any sale of Products, shall create any impression that information in such documents relating to the Issuer is correct at any time subsequent to the date of the Base Prospectus and the Registration Document or that any other information supplied in connection with the Products or the Programme is correct as of any time subsequent to the date of the relevant document containing the same (the foregoing being without prejudice to the obligations of the Issuer under applicable rules and regulations).

Representations

In connection with the issue and sale of the Products, no person has been authorised to give any information or to make any representation not contained in or consistent with the Base Prospectus and Issue Terms and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer. None of the Issuer, the Lead Manager, any Agent or any of their respective affiliates accepts any responsibility for any information not contained in this Base Prospectus and Issue Terms.

Calculations and determinations

All calculations and determinations in respect of the Products shall be made by the Calculation Agent. Unless otherwise specified in the Issue Terms for a particular Product, Leonteq Securities AG will act as the Calculation Agent for all Products (in such capacity, the "Calculation Agent"). All calculations and determinations made by the Calculation Agent in respect of the Products shall be final and binding on the Issuer and Investors in the absence of manifest error. No liability shall attach to the Calculation Agent for errors or omissions in respect of any calculation, determination or other exercise of discretion under the Conditions provided that, it has acted in accordance with General Condition 11.2 (Determinations by the Calculation Agent).

All capitalised terms used will be defined in this Base Prospectus or the Issue Terms and are referenced in the Index to this Base Prospectus.

Such an event could lead to the postponement of a date on which the Calculation Agent is to establish a valuation of the Underlying (in some cases, potentially up to 60 days) and in certain circumstances lead to the Calculation Agent estimate the relevant price or level of such Underlying and/or to a corresponding delay in the settlement of the Products. Upon the occurrence of certain extraordinary events affecting an Underlying, for example substitutions, adjustments or dilutive events, adjustments will be made in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Products. ("Relevant Fees"), b) of up to 3.5% p.a. ("Significant Fees"), c) of more than 3.5% p.a. ("Substantial Fees"), or d) as explicitly specified in the Issue Terms. With respect to an Exempt Product, for which the Issue Price is set out in percent, the amount may be calculated based on the Denomination of that Exempt Product. Alternatively, the amount will be calculated based on the Issue Price.

In addition or alternatively, the Issuer and/or the Lead Manager may pay recurring fees to distribution partners. To the extent such fees are charged to Investors, the individual rates will be specified in the Issue Terms.

The holder may also be subjected to on-going costs.

The Issue Price as well as the bid and ask prices provided by the Issuer during the term of the Products are based on the internal pricing models of the Issuer.

Programme limit:

The Programme has no issuance limit.

Selling Restrictions:

The offer and sale of the Products may be restricted in certain jurisdictions as described in the section of this Base Prospectus 'Purchase and Sale' below and the Issue Terms of the relevant Products.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in Products involves substantial risks and is a riskier investment than an investment in ordinary debt securities. An investment in Products is not equivalent to investing directly in the Underlying(s).

The Issuer believes that the following risk factors are material for the purpose of making an informed investment decision associated with the Products.

Investors should consider the following risk factors and should make any investment decision only on the basis of the Base Prospectus as a whole including the documents incorporated by reference (including the Registration Document), any supplements to the Base Prospectus and the applicable Issue Terms.

Investors should not acquire Products without a thorough understanding of the mechanics of the relevant Products and without being aware of the potential risk of loss. Investors should carefully examine whether an investment in the Products is appropriate given their personal circumstances and financial situation and should consult a financial advisor to discuss any questions in advance of any investment decision.

RISK WARNING

Investors may lose some or all of their investment in the Products where:

- Minimum scheduled repayment amount less than invested amount: The terms of the Product may not provide for scheduled minimum payment of the face value or issue price of the Products at maturity (or, if applicable, across the partial redemption dates and at maturity). Depending on the performance of the Underlying(s), Investors may lose some or all of their investment.
- Credit risk of the Issuer: The payment of any amount or delivery of any underlying(s) due under the Products is dependent upon the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations when they fall due. For TCM Secured Products only, Investors will also have recourse to the relevant collateral. The Products (other than the TCM Secured Products) are unsecured obligations of the issuer. The Products are not deposits and they are not protected under any deposit protection insurance scheme. Therefore, if the Issuer fails or are otherwise unable to meet its payment or delivery obligations under the Products (other than the TCM Secured Products), Investors will lose some or all of their investment. In respect of the TCM Secured Products, if the collateral is liquidated and the value of the collateral is less than the value of the TCM Secured Product, Investors may lose some of their investment.

- Other circumstances:
 - The market price of the Products prior to maturity may be significantly lower than the purchase price Investors paid for them. Consequently, if Investors sell their Products before their scheduled maturity (assuming Investors are able to), they may receive less (and potentially substantially less) than their investment.
 - The Products may be redeemed in certain extraordinary circumstances prior to their scheduled maturity and, in such case, the early redemption amount paid to Investors may be less than their investment.
 - The terms and conditions of the Products may be adjusted by the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent in certain circumstances with the effect that the amount payable or underlying(s) deliverable to Investors is less than their investment.

1. Risk factors associated with the Issuer

Investors bear the credit risk of the Issuer. The Products (other than the TCM Secured Products) are neither secured nor guaranteed by any deposit protection fund, any government or any governmental agency

The Products (other than the TCM Secured Products) (the "Unsecured Products") issued by the Issuer (i) are unsecured and unsubordinated general obligations of the Issuer, and not of any of its affiliates, (ii) are not savings accounts or deposits of the Issuer and (iii) will rank pari passu among themselves and with all other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of the Issuer, except obligations, that are subject to any priorities or preferences by law.

Therefore, if the Issuer fails or is otherwise unable to meet its payment or delivery obligations under the Unsecured Products, Investors will lose some or all of their investment.

In the event of the insolvency of the Issuer, Investors in the Unsecured Products may lose their claim to repayment of the capital invested by them in whole or in part.

In respect of TCM Secured Products, in the event that the collateral is liquidated and the value of the collateral is less than the value of the TCM Secured Product, Investors will be exposed to the credit risk of the Issuer and may lose some of their investment.

None of the Products constitute a participation in a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Swiss Federal Act on Collective Investment Schemes ("CISA") and are neither subject to the authorisation nor the supervision by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority ("FINMA") and Investors do not benefit from the specific investor protection provided under the CISA.

Investors should read the section entitled 'Risk Factors' in the Registration Document (which is incorporated by reference into this Base Prospectus) which are presented in the following categories depending on their nature:

- Risks related to the business activities of the Issuer and the industry in which it operates
- Risks related to resolution and recovery proceedings
- Legal, compliance and regulatory risks and
- Further material risks

A list setting out all information incorporated by reference is provided in the section 'Information incorporated by reference' on page 54.

2. Risk factors associated with the Products
- 2.1 Risks associated with the liquidity and value of the Products, the return on the Products and the possibility of adjustment or early termination
- (a) The Products may not have an active trading market and an Investor must be prepared to hold the Product until its scheduled maturity

Investors must be prepared to hold the Products until their scheduled maturity.

The Products will have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market develops, it may not be very liquid and Investors may not be able to find a buyer. Restrictions in respect of the purchase and/or sale of the Products in some jurisdictions may also have an impact on the liquidity of the Products. As a result, Investors may not be able to sell their Products or, if they can, they may only be able to sell them at a price which is substantially less than the original purchase price.

The Products may be listed on a stock exchange but, in such case, the fact that such Products are listed will not necessarily lead to greater liquidity. If the Products are not listed or traded on any exchange, pricing information for such Products may be more difficult to obtain and they may be more difficult to sell.

The specified size of the offer represents the maximum amount of the Products being offered but does not give any indication as to the volume of the Products being effectively issued. This volume is determined according to the market conditions and may change during the term of the Products, and a significant portion of the issuance of any Products may be held by the Issuer or Lead Manager. Therefore, Investors should note that it is not possible to predict the liquidity of the Products in the secondary market based on the specified size of the offer. For these reasons as well, a secondary market for the Products may not develop.

The Issuer is under no obligation to make a market or to repurchase the Products (subject to the next paragraph). The Issuer and/or the Lead Manager may, but are not obliged to, at any time purchase Products at any price in the open market or by tender or private agreement. Any Products so purchased may be held or resold or surrendered for cancellation. If any Products are redeemed in part, then the number of Products outstanding may decrease. Any of these activities may have an adverse effect on the liquidity and/or price of the outstanding Products in the secondary market.

Any of the Issuer and/or the Lead Manager or other party may, as part of its activities as a broker and dealer in fixed income and equity securities and related products or pursuant to stock exchange listing requirements, make a secondary market in relation to any Products and may provide an indicative bid price on a daily basis. Any indicative prices so provided shall be determined by the relevant party in its sole discretion taking into account prevailing market conditions and shall not be a representation by such party that any Products can be purchased or sold at such prices (or at all).

However, any of these parties may suspend or terminate making a market and providing indicative prices without notice, at any time and for any reason. Consequently, there may be no market for the Products and Investors should not assume that such a market will exist. Investors may therefore not be able to sell their Product during its term and must be prepared to hold the Product until its scheduled maturity.

Additionally, in special market situations, where the Issuer and/or the Lead Manager is/are unable to enter into hedging transactions or where such transactions are very difficult to enter into, the spread between the bid and offer prices may be temporarily expanded in order to limit the economic risks of the Issuer and/or the Lead Manager.

- (b) In certain circumstances, the Issuer has the right to terminate the Products prior to scheduled maturity and other than on an autocall redemption date. In such case, Investors will receive the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount, which amount may be zero

The Issuer has the right to early terminate the Products in certain circumstances set out in the terms and conditions of the Products; for example if an adjustment is not possible or upon occurrence of an Additional Disruption Event. In such case, the Issuer will redeem the Products at the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount, i.e., in the event of an unscheduled early redemption there will be no right to payment of any amount provided for in the terms and conditions of the Products to be calculated on the basis of a redemption formula at the end of the term. Investors should note that, such amount may be zero in the worst case, i.e., the Investor may suffer a total loss of the capital invested.

In the case of an unscheduled early redemption, the Investor may only be able to reinvest the amount to be paid by the Issuer on less favourable market terms compared with those existing when the Product was purchased.

Finally, Investors bear the risk that their expectations with respect to a potential increase in the value of a Product over its scheduled term will not be realised due to the early termination of the Product.

- (c) Market disruptions and adjustment measures may negatively affect the value of and return on the Products and lead to payment delays

Under the terms and conditions of the Products, the Calculation Agent may determine that a Market Disruption Event (as defined in the Underlying Specific Conditions) has occurred or exists at a certain time. Such an event could lead to the postponement of a date on which the Calculation Agent is to establish a valuation of the Underlying (in some cases, potentially up to 60 days) and in certain circumstances lead to the Calculation Agent estimate the relevant price or level of such Underlying and/or to a corresponding delay in the settlement of the Products. No interest shall be payable in respect of any such postponement of the settlement of the Products and any such postponement or estimate of value could have a negative impact on the value of and return on the Products.

Adjustments will be made in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Products. In the event of adjustments relating to the Underlying(s), it is possible that the estimates and/or assumptions on which an adjustment was based turn out to be incorrect and that the adjustment turns out to be unfavourable for the Investor and that the adjustment has a negative impact on the value of or return on the Products.

- (d) Investors in listed Products or in Products linked to one or more listed Underlyings are exposed to the risk that the Product or Underlying(s) could be delisted or suspended from trading, and this might have an adverse effect on the value of the Product

It is possible that during the lifetime of the Product, an Underlying is de-listed or suspended from trading on the relevant exchange (respectively on the multilateral trading facility), reference market or quotation system for reasons not attributable to the Issuer.

It is also possible that the Products could be suspended from trading on or de-listed from the relevant exchange or quotation system during the lifetime of the Product. The Issuer is under no obligation to obtain a listing for any Products and, if a listing is obtained, the Issuer is under no obligation to maintain it.

In either case, there could be an adverse impact on the value of and return on the Product.

- (e) The secondary market prices of the Products will likely be lower than the original issue price of the Products and sale of the Products in a secondary market may result in a loss

Any secondary market prices of the Products will likely be lower than the original issue price of the Products because, among other things, secondary market prices will likely be reduced by selling commissions, profits and hedging and other costs that are accounted for in the original issue price of the Products. As a result, the price, if any, at which the Lead Manager or any other person would be willing to purchase the Products in secondary market transactions, if at all, is likely to be lower than the original issue price. Accordingly, any sale of the Product by an Investor prior to the scheduled redemption date could result in a substantial loss to the Investor.

If listed, the Products can be traded on an exchange during their term. However, the prices of the Products are not determined according to supply and demand, since if there is a secondary market, it will likely be provided by a market maker (e.g. potentially the Lead Manager or a third party, as the case may be, in such role). Any such market maker will quote independently calculated bid and offer prices for the Products on the secondary market. This price calculation is performed on the basis of customary pricing models of the market maker in which the theoretical value of the Product is basically determined on the basis of the value of the Underlying(s) and other adjustable parameters. The other parameters may include derivative components, expected income from the Underlying(s) (e.g., dividends), interest rates, the term or remaining term of the Product, the volatility of the Underlying(s) and the supply and demand situation for hedging instruments. These or other value-determining parameters may lead to a depreciation in value of the Product, even if during the term the Underlying(s) develop favourably for the Investor. Please see also Risk Factor 2.6(a)(vii) "Conflicts of interest related to market making for the Products" below.

(f) Fees and other transaction costs will likely reduce the return that an investor would otherwise realise on a Product

Commission and other transaction costs which are incurred when buying or selling Products may, especially in conjunction with a low contract value, result in cost burdens which may reduce the returns on a Product. Therefore, before purchasing a Product, investors should obtain information regarding all costs arising when purchasing and selling the Product.

(g) Risk Factors associated with inflation

The Products may be affected by the impact of inflation and the measures taken by central banks to keep inflation within certain limits. In particular, inflation may cause central banks to raise reference interest rates which may, inter alia, affect the costs of debt capital, the discount rates applied to value expected future profits and the market value of instruments with fixed coupons, and, thus, may have a negative impact on asset prices and a decline in purchasing power of the relevant currencies. Such price developments may have negative adverse effects on the Products that are using such assets as underlyings. Also, any Product with a capital protection or guarantee do not protect Investors against the impact of inflation on such Products. The impact of inflation is depending to a great extent on the relevant currency in which the Products are denominated.

(h) In the case of a subscription period the Issuer reserves the right to end the subscription period early or to extend it and that the Issuer is not obliged to accept subscription applications or to issue subscribed Products

The Final Terms may provide for the Products to be offered during a particular subscription period. Investors should note in this case that the Issuer reserves the right to end the subscription period early or to extend it. In the case of an early ending or an extension of the subscription period, the initial fixing date or any other relevant valuation date, as the case may be, which determines certain characteristics of the Products, may be adjusted along with the Issue Date. The Issuer is not obliged to accept subscription applications. Partial allocations are possible (in particular in the event of oversubscription). The Issuer is not obliged to issue subscribed Products. For these reasons, Investors in Products subject to a public offering may receive a Product with different valuation dates than expected and may not receive the Product at all.

(i) Investors are exposed to the risks of adverse foreign exchange rate movements where the Underlying(s) is one or more rates of exchange or because the currency of the Underlying(s) needs to be converted to the currency of the Product and/or where the currency of the Product is different from the currency of the Investor's home jurisdiction, and could lose some of their investment or realise a lower return than in the absence of such foreign exchange feature

If the return on the Product is dependent on one or more foreign exchange rate(s) – either because the Underlying(s) is one or more rates of exchange or because the currency of the Underlying(s) needs to be converted to the currency of the Product – an Investor is exposed to the risk of adverse movements in the value of the relevant foreign currency compared to the relevant base currency or currency of the Product.

An Investor will also be exposed to the risk of adverse foreign exchange rate movements where the currency of the Product is different from the currency of the Investor's home jurisdiction.

Exchange rates are determined by supply and demand factors on international foreign exchange markets, which are subject to economic factors, speculation and actions by governments and central banks (such as currency controls or restrictions) and cannot be predicted. Also, significant movements in exchange rates may not correlate with the performance of the Underlying(s) or other variables such as interest rates, and the timing of such changes may have a negative impact on the value of and return on the Products. This may result in a significant loss of the Investor's investment in the Product or the realisation by the Investor of a lower return than it would have obtained in the absence of such foreign exchange feature.

(j) Changes in tax law or in the tax treatment of the Products could have a negative impact on the value of and the return on the Product to an Investor

Investors should note that it is possible that the tax regime applicable to the Products may be changed in a manner not foreseeable at the time the Products are issued. A risk of changes in the tax treatment of the Products exists for all relevant jurisdictions. The level and basis of taxation on the Products and on the Investor depend on the Investor's individual circumstances and could change at any time and may have an adverse impact on the return received by the Investor under the Product.

Any statements made in this Base Prospectus regarding the tax treatment of the Products only relate to the purchase of the Products immediately after the issue (primary purchase). Both in the case of primary purchase and if an Investor purchases the Products later, Investors should therefore seek advice from a tax advisor about the tax effects in connection with the purchase, holding, exercising or the sale of the Products prior to the purchase. Furthermore, it is possible that the tax authorities may come to a different conclusion than the Issuer regarding tax treatment when interpreting and applying the relevant tax rules to the Investor's investment in the Products. Any such tax treatment could have an adverse impact on the return received by the Investor under the Product.

(k) Payments on the Products may be treated as "substitute dividend equivalent" payments and subject to U.S. withholding tax

Under section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") and regulations thereunder, a payment on a financial instrument that references a US equity or an index that includes a U.S. equity may be treated as a "dividend equivalent" payment. Such payments generally will be subject to U.S. withholding tax at a rate of 30 per cent. If withholding applies, the Issuer will not pay any additional amounts with respect to amounts withheld. The relevant Issue Terms will indicate if the Issuer has determined that a Product is subject to withholding under section 871(m) of the Code. Although the Issuer's determination generally is binding on Investors, it is not binding on the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service may successfully argue that payments on a Product are subject to withholding under section 871(m), notwithstanding the Issuer's determination to the contrary. Investors should consult their tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences to them of section 871(m) and regulations thereunder, and whether payments or deemed payments on the Products constitute dividend equivalent payments.

(1) The terms and conditions of the Products may be amended by the Issuer without the consent of the Investors in certain circumstances

The terms and conditions of the Products may be amended by the Issuer without the consent of the Investors in any of the following circumstances:

- to cure a manifest or proven error or omission;
- where such amendment will not materially and adversely affect the interests of Investors;
- to correct or supplement any defective provision;
- where the amendment is of a formal, minor or technical nature;
- to comply with mandatory provisions of law; and
- as a result of certain events in respect of the underlying assets (including, but not limited to, adjustment events, potential adjustment events, extraordinary events and additional disruption events (as specified in the relevant underlying specific conditions)).

For these reasons, in the above circumstances, the terms and conditions of an Investor's Product may be amended without the Investor's consent and/or against the Investor's wishes.

2.2 Risks associated with TCM Products and other types of Products

The following is a description of certain risks associated with TCM Products, Tracker Products and Leverage Products. These descriptions are additional to the other risks that apply to these Products, as described in this section "Risk Factors" (including, without limitation, '2.3 Risks associated with certain features of the Products')

(a) Risks associated with TCM Secured Products

The collateralisation in accordance with the terms of the TCM Security Agreement eliminates the Issuer default risk only to the extent that the proceeds from the liquidation of collateral upon occurrence of a Realization Event (less the costs of the Collateral Agent in respect of the liquidation and payout of the liquidation proceeds) are able to meet the Investors' claims. If the current value of the Product is set too low or the value of collateral is set too high prior to liquidation, the collateralisation of the Product may be insufficient to satisfy the Investors' claims. If the Conditions provide for a termination right of the Issuer in the event that the TCM Security Agreement is terminated, the Investor bears the reinvestment risk if the Issuer exercises its termination right.

In respect of TCM Secured Products, the Investors bear the following risks (among others): (i) the Collateral Provider is unable to supply the additionally required collateral if the value of the TCM Secured Product rises or the value of the collateral decreases; (ii) in a Realization Event, the collateral cannot be liquidated immediately by the Collateral Agent because of factual hindrances or because the collateral must be handed over to the executory authorities for liquidation; (iii) the market risk associated with the collateral results in insufficient liquidation proceeds or, in extreme circumstances, the collateral might lose its value entirely until the liquidation can take place; (iv) the payment of the pro-rata share of net liquidation proceeds may be made in a currency that is not the settlement currency of the TCM Secured Product; (v) the collateralisation is challenged according to the laws governing debt enforcement and bankruptcy, such that the collateral cannot be liquidated according to the terms of the TCM Security Agreement.

The collateralisation of the TCM Secured Products does not eliminate the risk that there might not be a buyer for the TCM Secured Product during its lifetime and the Investor may need hold the TCM Secured Product until maturity.

Any costs of the liquidation of the collateral shall be covered out of the proceeds of the liquidation of the collateral.

The payment of the net liquidation proceeds to the Investors may be delayed for factual or legal reasons.

The Collateral Agent is not required to undertake investigations with regard to the occurrence of a Realization Event. In determining the occurrence of a Realization Event, it bases its decision on reliable sources of information only. The Collateral Agent determines with binding effect for the Investors whether an incident qualifies as a Realization Event and at what point in time the Realization Event occurred and such a determination may or may not be in the favour of Investors.

The Conditions of the TCM Secured Products may provide for a termination right of the Issuer in the event that (a) the TCM Security Agreement is terminated and (b) due to such termination it is not possible to collateralise the TCM Secured Products in accordance with the provisions of the TCM Security Agreement. If the Issuer exercises its termination right, the Products will be redeemed early and the Investors bear the risk that their expectations with respect to an increase in the value of the TCM Secured Products may no longer be satisfied due to the early redemption. In the case of a termination, it must also be considered that the Investors bear the reinvestment risk. This means that he or she may possibly only be able to reinvest the early redemption amount paid by the Issuer on more unfavourable market conditions than those existing when the Product was purchased.

(b) Risks in connection with specific client's objective, needs or investment criteria, such as a sustainability objectives (Products with ESG objectives)

The Issuer, as the product manufacturer, defines the target market for a Product, i.e. it identifies the client needs, characteristics and objectives with which it considers the Product to be compatible (positive target market) and those with which it is incompatible (negative target market). The target market thus describes the requirements that a Product places on the target client. The target market is defined individually and may include specific objectives such as "sustainable", "ecological", "ESG" (Environmental, Social and Governance) related objectives. The target market may change during the term of the Product.

The risk exists that the specific objective of a Product does not meet the individual objectives, needs, or relevant investment criteria and preferences of an Investor. Potential Investors should therefore independently and continuously assess the information related to specific objectives, such as the sustainability of the Product, and determine for themselves whether an investment in the Product meets its individual objectives, needs, or relevant investment criteria and preferences.

(c) Risks associated with Tracker Products

(i) The Management Fee Deduction will reduce the return that an Investor would otherwise realise

If 'Management Fee Deduction' is specified to be 'Applicable' in the Issue Terms the value of and return on the Product will be reduced by a management fee. The management fee will be a percentage specified in the Issue Terms and will accrue from the Initial Fixing Date until the Final Fixing Date, therefore the longer the term of the product, the greater the reduction in the value of and return on the Product by the management fee. Before purchasing a Product Investors should understand the effect of the management fee on the value of and return on the Product.

(ii) The Accrued Management Fee will reduce the return that an Investor would otherwise realise

If 'Tracker Product Style' is specified to be 'Single Underlying with Composite FX (Notional Units)' or 'Single Underlying with no FX (Notional Units)' in the Issue Terms, the value of and return on the Product will be reduced by an accrued management fee. The accrued management fee is (A) deducted directly from the redemption amount an Investor would otherwise receive and (B) reduces the number of "units" of the underlying used in the calculation of the redemption amount. Before purchasing a Product Investors should understand the effect of the management fee on the value of and return on the Product.

- (iii) The Accrued Performance Fee will reduce the return that an Investor would otherwise realise

If 'Performance Fee Deduction' is specified to be 'Applicable' in the Issue Terms and if 'Tracker Product Style' is specified to be 'Single Underlying with Composite FX (Notional Units)' or 'Single Underlying with no FX (Notional Units)' in the Issue Terms, the value of and return on the Product may be reduced by an accrued Performance fee. The accrued Performance fee is (A) deducted directly from the redemption amount an Investor would otherwise receive and (B) reduces the number of "units" of the underlying used in the calculation of the redemption amount. Before purchasing a Product Investors should understand the effect of the performance fee on the value of and return on the Product.

(d) Risks associated with Leverage Products

- (i) There are risks associated with the leverage feature of all Leverage Products

Each type of Leverage Product has a 'leverage' feature'. 'Leverage' refers to the use of financial techniques to gain additional exposure to the Underlying. A leverage feature will magnify the impact of the performance of the Underlying to cause a greater or lower return on the Product than would otherwise be the case in the absence of leverage. As such, a leverage feature magnifies losses in adverse market conditions. The inclusion of such a leverage feature means that the Products will be more speculative and riskier than in the absence of such feature, since smaller changes in the performance of the Underlying can reduce (or increase) the return on the Products by more than if the Products did not contain a leverage feature. Investors should be aware that a small movement in the value of the Underlying can have a significant effect on the value of the Products. Products with a leverage feature are more likely to fall for automatic cancellation in accordance with their terms below. In such event, an Investor may lose some or all of their investment.

- (ii) The strike level of the Underlying may take into account the cost of financing exposure to the Underlying

There are costs associated with financing the 'leveraged' exposure to the Underlying (the "financing costs"). The Issuer may factor in these additional financing costs in the setting of the strike level, and as a result the strike level may be set at a less advantageous level for Investors than if such financing costs were not factored in. A less advantageous strike level will reduce the value of and return on the Products.

- (iii) Investors may lose all of their investment

Each type of Leverage Product may be redeemed for a redemption amount equal to zero, and as a result of such a redemption Investors would lose all of their investment.

In respect of all Leverage Products, Investors will lose all of their investment if the level of the Underlying on the final fixing date is either (a) in the case of Call Warrant Products, Call Knock-Out Warrant Products and Bullish Mini Future Products and Leverage Certificate Products, at or below the strike level of the Underlying or (b) in the case of Put Warrant Products, Put Knock-Out Warrant Products and Bearish Mini Future Products, at or above the strike level of the Underlying.

Investors should note that in respect of Call Warrant Products, Put Warrant Products, Call Knock-Out Warrant Products and Put Knock-Out Warrant Products, if the strike event is specified to be either 'at or above' or 'at or below' (as applicable) then if the final fixing level is equal to the strike level, a strike event will be deemed to have occurred. However, in such a scenario, the redemption amount determined in accordance with the redemption formula shall be zero and Investors will lose all of their investment.

(iv) There are risks associated with the knock-out feature of Knock-Out Warrant Products

Investors in Knock-Out Warrant Products will also lose all of their investment if a "knock-out" event has occurred and the Issue Terms does not specify 'Rebate' to be 'Applicable'. A "knock-out event" occurs if the level of the Underlying on a specified date (or in a specified period) is (a) in the case of Call Knock-Out Warrant Products, above or at or above (as specified in the Issue Terms) a predefined "knock-out level", or (b) in the case of Put Knock-Out Warrants, is below or at or below (as specified in the Issue Terms) a predefined "knock-out level".

Investors should note in this context that the price of Knock-Out Warrant Products is reduced disproportionately compared to Warrant Products if the level of the Underlying approaches the relevant "knock-out level".

(v) There are risks associated with the stop loss feature of Mini Future Products

Investors in Mini Future Products bear the risk that the Products automatically redeem early if a "stop loss event" occurs, and in such case, Investors may lose all of their investment. A "stop loss event" occurs if the level of the Underlying in a specified period is (a) in the case of Bullish Mini Future Products, below or at or below (as specified in the Issue Terms) a predefined "stop loss level" or (b) in the case of Bearish Mini Future Products, above or at or above (as specified in the Issue Terms) a predefined "stop loss level". If a "stop loss event" occurs Investors may lose all of their investment if the Issuer (or any of its affiliates) is not able to unwind its hedge positions in relation to the Product at a level that is either (a) in the case of Bullish Mini Future Products, above the strike level or (b) in the case of Bearish Mini Future Products, below the strike level.

Investors should note in this context that the price of the Mini Future Products is reduced disproportionately compared to Warrant Products, if the price of the Underlying approaches the predefined "stop loss level".

No continuous bid and ask prices for Mini Future Products are quoted by the Issuer on the secondary market outside of the trading hours of the Underlying if the Issuer expects a "stop loss event" to occur due to different price indicators than the official price of the Underlying. Investors should note in this context that the Issuer does not commit nor is under any obligation (legal or otherwise) to quote bid and ask prices for the Products and Investors should therefore not rely on being able to purchase or sell the Products at any time.

(e) Risks associated with Long/Short Products

(i) The Management Fee Deduction will reduce the return that an Investor would otherwise realise

If 'Long/Short Product Style' is specified to be 'Long/Short Product with Management Fee Deduction' in the Issue Terms the value of and return on the Product will be reduced by a management fee. The management fee will be a percentage specified in the Issue Terms and will accrue from the Initial Fixing Date until the Final Fixing Date, therefore the longer the term of the product, the greater the reduction in the value of and return on the Product by the management fee. Before purchasing the Product, Investors should understand the effect of the management fee on the value of and return on the Product.

(ii) There are risks associated with the stop loss feature of Long/Short Products

If 'Stop Loss Early Redemption' is specified to be 'Applicable' in the Issue Terms, Investors in Long/Short Products bear the risk that the Products automatically redeem early if a "stop loss event" occurs, and in such case, Investors will lose some or all of their investment. A "stop loss event" will occur when the market value of the Product (as determined by the Calculation Agent) falls below a certain pre-determined percentage of the initial value of the Product.

2.3 Risks associated with certain features of the Products

(a) There are risks where the Products have a 'leverage' feature

'Leverage' refers to the use of financial techniques to gain additional exposure to the Underlying(s). A leverage feature will magnify the impact of the performance of the Underlying(s) to cause a greater or lower return on the Product than would otherwise be the case in the absence of leverage. As such, a leverage feature magnifies losses in adverse market conditions. In the terms of the Products, the leverage feature may be referred to variously as 'Participation', or other term and the Products will have 'leverage' where any of these factors is equal to more than 100 per cent. (or 1.00). The inclusion of such a leverage feature in the Products means that the Products will be more speculative and riskier than in the absence of such feature, since smaller changes in the performance of the Underlying(s) can reduce (or increase) the return on the Products by more than if the Products did not contain a leverage feature. Investors should be aware that a small movement in the value of the Underlying(s) can have a significant effect on the value of the Products. Products with a leverage feature are more likely to be affected by automatic cancellation in accordance with their terms below. In such event, an Investor may lose their investment.

(b) There are risks in relation to Products linked to the 'worst performing' Underlying in a basket

Where the Conditions of the Products include a 'worst-of' feature, Investors will be exposed to the performance of the Underlying which has the worst performance, rather than any of the other Underlying(s). This means that, regardless of how the other Underlying(s) perform, if the worst performing Underlying fails to meet a relevant threshold or barrier for the payment of interest or the calculation of any redemption amount, Investors might receive no interest payments or return on their initial investment and they could lose some or all of their investment.

(c) There are risks where the Products include a cap

Where the terms and conditions of the Products provide that the amount payable or underlying(s) deliverable is subject to a pre-defined cap, the Investor's ability to participate in any positive change in the value of the Underlying(s) will be limited, no matter how much the level, price or other value of the Underlying(s) rises above the cap level over the life of the Products. Accordingly, the value of or return on the Products may be significantly less than if the Investor had purchased the Underlying(s) directly.

(d) There are risks where the Products have a 'conditional' coupon

If the Products include a 'conditional' coupon, then the coupon will only be paid if the level, price or other applicable value of the Underlying(s) on the relevant valuation date(s) either reaches or crosses one or more specific barrier(s). It is possible that such level, price or other applicable value of the Underlying(s) on the relevant valuation date(s) will not either reach or cross the barrier(s) (as applicable), and therefore, no coupon will be payable on the relevant coupon payment date. This means that the amount of coupon payable to an Investor over the term of the Products will vary and may be zero.

(e) There are risks where the Products have a 'memory coupon' feature

If the Products include a 'memory coupon' feature, the payment of coupon will be conditional on the value or performance of the Underlying(s). The coupon amount payable will be zero on a coupon payment date if the Underlying(s) does not perform in accordance with the terms of the Products although such payment will be deferred to the next coupon payment date. If the Underlying(s) meets the performance criteria, the coupon payable will be an amount for the current coupon payment date plus any amounts deferred from previous coupon payment dates where coupon was not paid. Investors will not be paid any coupon or other allowance for the deferred payments of coupon and it is possible that the Underlying(s) never meets the performance criteria, meaning that Investors will not receive any coupon at all for the lifetime of the Products.

(f) There are risks where the Products are Open Ended

If the Products are Open Ended – meaning that they do not provide for an expiration date or maturity date but may continue indefinitely until either the Investor exercises the Investor's put option with regard to the Products or the Issuer exercises the Issuer's right to call the Products – the Investor is subject to certain risks, including:

- (i) exercise of an Issuer Call Option (Open Ended) or Investor Put Option (Open Ended): the yields received upon cancellation following a call by the Issuer or the Investor's exercise of the Investor put may be lower than expected, and the amount received by the Investor may be lower than the initial price the Investor paid for the Products and may be zero; and
- (ii) extraordinary early redemption of Open Ended Products: the terms and conditions of the Products may provide that the Products will be redeemed early in certain extraordinary circumstances. In such event, the Issuer will redeem the Products at the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount which may be substantially less than the value of the Products. In such circumstances an Investor is likely to receive less than the amount it invested and could receive zero.

(g) There are risks where the Product has an Issuer Call Option (Fixed Term) or Investor Put Option (Fixed Term)

Where the terms and conditions of the relevant Product provides either Issuer Call Option (Fixed Term) or Investor Put Option (Fixed Term) to be applicable, the yields received upon cancellation following a call by the Issuer or the Investor's exercise of the Investor put may be lower than expected, and – in case the redemption amount is not specified as a fixed Issuer Call Option (Fixed Term) Redemption Amount or Investor Put Option (Fixed Term) Redemption Amount – the amount received by the Investor may be lower than the initial price the Investor paid for the Products and may be zero.

(h) There are risks where the Products have a 'barrier' feature

If the calculation of coupon or the calculation of any redemption amount depends on the level, value or price of the Underlying(s) reaching or crossing a 'barrier' during a specified period or specified dates during the term of the Products, such coupon or redemption amount may alter dramatically depending on whether the barrier is reached or crossed (as applicable). This means that the Investor may receive less (or, in certain cases, more) if the level, value or price of the Underlying(s) crosses or reaches (as applicable) a barrier, than if it comes close to the barrier but does not reach or cross it (as applicable), and in certain cases the Investor might receive no interest payments and/or could lose some or all of its investment.

(i) There are risks where the redemption of the Products depends only on the final performance

If the Products determine the redemption amount based on the performance of the Underlying(s) as at the final valuation date only (rather than in respect of multiple periods throughout the term of the Products) then the Investor may not benefit from any movement in level, value or price of the Underlying(s) during the term of the Products that is not reflected in the final performance.

(j) There are risks in relation to Products where the 'strike level' is predetermined

In respect of Products for which 'Predetermined Strike Level' is specified to be 'Applicable' in the Issue Terms, notwithstanding that the strike level is specified as a percentage of the Initial Fixing Level in the Issue Terms, the strike level was determined on a date prior to the date on which the Initial Fixing Level is determined. As a result the strike level will not reflect current market prices of the Underlying. The probability of the occurrence of any events, along with any amounts due to Investors, that are determined by reference to the strike level(s) of the Underlyings will be different than if such amount or events were determined by reference to current market prices of the Underlying(s).

(k) There are risks in relation to Products linked to a basket of Underlyings

Where Products are linked to a basket of Underlying(s), Investors will be exposed to the performance of each Underlying in the basket and Investors should refer to the relevant risk factors in the section relating to each of the asset classes represented. Investors should also consider the level of interdependence or 'correlation' between each of the basket constituents with respect to the performance of the basket. If the Underlying(s) are correlated, the performance of the Underlying(s) in the basket can be expected to move in the same direction (and vice versa) and investors should consider the impact of this 'correlation' on the performance of the Products.

Investors should be aware that the performance of a basket with fewer constituents will be more affected by changes in the values of any particular basket constituent than a basket with a greater number of basket constituents.

The performance of basket constituents may be moderated or offset by one another. This means that, even in the case of a positive performance of one or more constituents, the performance of the basket as a whole may be negative if the performance of the other constituents is negative to a greater extent.

If the Underlyings in the basket have different weights, Investors should consider that the lower the weighting of the Underlying, the lower the impact of the performance of such Underlying on the performance of the entire basket.

(l) There are risks in relation to Products that may be settled by way of delivery of the relevant Underlying(s) at maturity

If the relevant Product is to be settled by way of delivery of the relevant Underlying(s), upon maturity of the Products the delivery of the relevant Underlying(s) may be made instead of the payment of a monetary amount. In such case, since Investors will be exposed to the specific issuer and securities risks associated with the relevant Underlying(s) to be delivered, when purchasing the Products investors should consider all Underlyings which could potentially be delivered. Investors should not assume that the Underlying(s) to be delivered after redemption of the Products can be sold at a specific price, in particular not at a price equivalent to the capital used to purchase the Products. In certain circumstances the delivered Underlying(s) may only have a very low value or may in fact be worthless. In this case, investors run the risk of losing all of their capital used to purchase the Products.

Investors should consider that any fluctuations in the price of the Underlying(s) after the final fixing date of the price of the Underlying(s) in accordance with the terms of the Products will be borne by them until the respective actual delivery. Losses in the value of the Underlying(s) to be delivered may occur after the final fixing date and are to be borne by Investors. This means that the actual gain or loss can only be determined after delivery of the Underlying(s).

If an Underlying to be delivered is a registered share, Investors should consider that the rights associated with the shares (e.g., participation in the general meeting, exercise of voting rights, etc.) can generally only be exercised by shareholders who are registered in the share register or a comparable official list of shareholders of the company. The obligation of the Issuer to deliver shares is limited to provision of the shares effected with the characteristics and in the form that allow delivery via an exchange and does not cover registration in the share register or list of shareholders. Any claims due to non-fulfilment, in particular rescission or damage claims, are excluded in such cases.

Further, if delivery of the Underlying, for whatever reason, is economically or actually impeded or not possible, the Issuer shall have the right to pay a compensation amount in lieu of delivery of the Underlying.

(m) There are risks where the Products have an 'autocall' feature

Where the terms and conditions of the Products include an 'autocall' feature it should be noted that the level of the Redemption Amount and the time for redemption of the Products depend on whether an Autocall Event specified in the terms and conditions has occurred on an Autocall

Observation Date. If such event occurs, the term of the Products ends early and the Products are redeemed early in accordance with the terms and conditions. In the case of such early redemption, the future price performance of the Underlying(s) is irrelevant to the Investor.

(n) There are risks where the Products have a 'capital protection at maturity' feature

For Products which offer a capital protection at maturity date, the Investor may, however, lose part or all of the initially invested amount if the Products are sold by the Investor before the maturity date (since the value of the Products during their lifetime may be lower than the amount of the capital protection due to market fluctuations).

2.4 Risks associated with Products linked to one or more Underlyings

(a) Risks associated with Products linked to Underlying(s) which are shares

(i) Variable unpredictable factors may affect the performance of shares

The performance of the relevant share cannot be predicted and is determined by macroeconomic factors, for example interest and price levels on the capital markets, currency developments, political factors as well as company-specific factors such as earnings position, market position, risk situation, shareholder structure and distribution policy. Any one or a combination of such factors could adversely affect the performance of the Underlying(s) which, in turn, would have an adverse effect on the value of and return on the Products.

(ii) Investors will not be able to participate in dividends or other distribution on the shares

Investors in Products linked to shares will not have any voting rights or rights to dividends or interest payments or other distributions or other rights relating to the share. Therefore, the return on the Products may be lower than holding such Underlying(s) directly.

(iii) Actions by the issuer of a share may negatively affect the Products

The issuer of common shares of a company will not have participated in the offering and issuance of the Products and none of the Issuer or the Lead Manager will have made any investigation or enquiry in relation to the share issuer for the purposes of the Products. Therefore, there can be no assurance that all events occurring prior to the Issue Date of the Products that would affect the trading price of the relevant share(s) will have been publicly disclosed. Subsequent disclosure of any such events or the disclosure of or failure to disclose material future events concerning the share issuer could affect the trading price of the share and therefore the price of the Products. Also, investors should be aware that the issuer of any common shares may or may not take actions in respect of common shares without regard to the interests of investors in Products and any of these actions could have a negative effect on the value of and return on the Products.

(b) Risks associated with Products linked to Underlying(s) which are participation certificates

(i) Variable unpredictable factors may affect the performance of participation certificates

The performance of the relevant participation certificate cannot be predicted and is determined by macroeconomic factors, for example interest and price levels on the capital markets, currency developments, political factors as well as company-specific factors such as earnings position, market position, risk situation and distribution policy. Any one or a combination of such factors could adversely affect the performance of the Underlying(s) which, in turn, would have an adverse effect on the value of and return on the Products.

(ii) Investors will not be able to participate in distributions on the participation certificates

Investors in Products linked to participation certificates will not have any rights to distributions or other rights relating to the participation certificate. Therefore, the return on the Products may be lower than holding such Underlying(s) directly.

(iii) Actions by the issuer of the participation certificate may negatively affect the Products

The issuer of participation certificate will not have participated in the offering and issuance of the Products and none of the Issuer or the Lead Manager will have made any investigation or enquiry in relation to the participation certificate issuer for the purposes of the Products. Therefore, there can be no assurance that all events occurring prior to the issue date of the Products that would affect the trading price of the relevant participation certificate(s) will have been publicly disclosed. Subsequent disclosure of any such events or the disclosure of or failure to disclose material future events concerning the participation certificate issuer could affect the trading price of the participation certificate and therefore the trading price of the Products. Also, investors should be aware that the issuer of any participation certificate may or may not take actions in respect of participation certificate without regard to the interests of investors in Products and any of these actions could have a negative effect on the value of and return on the Products.

(c) Risks associated with Products linked to Underlying(s) which are depositary receipts

Products linked to securities representing shares or depositary receipts ("Depositary Receipts") may carry additional risks compared to Products linked to shares.

Each Depositary Receipt represents one or more underlying shares or a fraction of the security of a non-domestic stock corporation. The legal owner of the underlying shares is, for both types of Depositary Receipts, the depositary, which is also the issuing agent of the Depositary Receipts. Depending on the jurisdiction under which the Depositary Receipts have been issued and under which the depositary agreement is governed, it cannot be ruled out that the jurisdiction will not accept the holder of the Depositary Receipts as the actual beneficial owner of the underlying shares. In particular in the event that the depositary becomes insolvent or is subject to foreclosure, it is possible that a restraint on disposal of the underlying shares of the Depositary Receipts will be imposed or that such shares will be disposed of in the context of a foreclosure against the depositary. In this case, the holder of the Depositary Receipts will lose the rights over the underlying shares which are certified in the Depositary Receipt. The Depositary Receipt as the underlying of the Products and therefore the Products relating to such Depositary Receipt will become worthless.

In such a scenario the Investor is exposed to the risk of the value of the redemption of such Products being less than the capital invested for the Product (including related transaction costs) or zero.

Any fees and costs that the custodian bank – generally having its registered office in the home country of the issuer of the underlying shares – or the depositary incur can have a negative impact on the value of the Depositary Receipts and thus on the value of the Products.

(d) Risks associated with Products linked to Underlying(s) which are indices

In the case of Products linked to indices, the redemption amount depends on the performance of the index and thus of the components contained in the index. During the term, the market value of the Products can, however, also deviate from the performance of the index or components contained in the index since other factors such as the correlation, volatilities, interest level and (if applicable) the reinvestment of any dividend payments relating to the components contained in the index, may have an impact on the performance of the Products.

In the case of a 'price index' as an underlying, investors should note that dividend payments are in principle not taken into account (whereas in the case of a 'performance index' the calculation of such index takes into account all dividend payments). Therefore, investors should note that they will not participate in any dividend payments with regard to the components contained in the underlying.

Investors should note that the index sponsor or the person responsible for the composition of the Index as well as the Issuer may be subject to new regulatory requirements with regard to the publication and the use of an index during the term of the Products which may require an admission or a registration of the respective index and an index modification in order to comply with the statutory provisions. Therefore, it cannot be excluded that an index will be modified, cancelled or may no longer be used. In each of these cases the Issuer and/or the Calculation Agent is entitled to make adjustments pursuant to the Conditions and to make determinations with respect to the price of the index in its discretion in order to calculate the amount owed at the end of the term of the Product and/or after an exercise or in the case of a termination of the Products.

The index sponsor may, in its reasonable discretion, either (i) on a regular basis and, as the case may be, on non-predetermined dates or (ii) upon the occurrence of extraordinary events, remove or replace or add new components to such an Index or make other changes to the methodology. A new component may perform significantly better or worse than the replaced component, which in turn may affect the payments to be made by the Issuer to the Investor. The index sponsor or the person responsible for the composition of the Index may also change, discontinue or suspend the calculation or distribution of the Index and there can be no assurance that such decisions will be beneficial to the performance of the Index. The index sponsor of an Index may take any action in relation to the Index without regard to the interests of the Investor and any such action may adversely affect the market value of the Products.

The rules of the Index may provide, where applicable, that an Index fee shall be charged by the index sponsor or by the Index calculation agent or by the person responsible for the composition of the Index which reduces the level of the Index. This will particularly be the case if there is a discretion of the index sponsor or the index calculation agent or the person responsible for the composition of the index regarding the selection of the index components. Accordingly, there is a risk that the Index does not reflect the performance of the Index components or does so only partially. In the case of indices whose start date is close to or shortly before the Initial Fixing Date or the Fixing Period of the Products, historical information on the performance of the Index is missing or is only available to a limited extent.

(e) Risks associated with Products linked to Underlying(s) which are futures contracts

There is generally a close correlation between the price movement of an underlying for the relevant futures contract on a spot market and on the corresponding futures market. However, futures contracts are generally traded at a premium or discount compared with the spot price of the underlying of the futures contract. This difference between the spot and futures prices, called the 'basis' in futures exchange terminology, on the one hand is the result of taking into account the costs customarily arising in connection with spot transactions (warehousing, delivery, insurance, etc.) and/or the income customarily arising in connection with spot transactions (interest, dividends, etc.), and on the other hand the different methods used to evaluate general market factors affecting the spot and the futures market. Furthermore, depending on the relevant underlying, there can be significant differences in the liquidity of the spot and respective futures market.

As the Products are linked to the market price of the futures contracts specified in the Issue Terms, investors should understand how futures transactions work and are valued in addition to knowing about the market in the underlying of the relevant futures contract to be able to properly assess the risks inherent in purchasing the Products.

Since futures contracts as an Underlying of the Products may have a fixed expiry date, where the relevant futures contract expires prior to the maturity of the Product, the futures contract will be replaced upon expiration (at the time specified in the Issue Terms), with a futures contract that has the same contract specifications as that futures contract except for the expiry date which is more distant than that of the current futures contract (referred to as "roll-over"). Roll-over can affect the investment value of the Underlying in a number of ways, including:

- (i) The investment in futures contracts may be increased or decreased through roll-over: Where the price of a near-dated futures contract is greater than the price of the longer-dated futures contract (in such case the futures contract is said to be in "backwardation"), then the roll-over from the former to the latter will result in exposure to a greater number of the longer-dated futures contract being taken. Therefore, any loss or gain on the new positions for a given movement in the prices of the futures contract will be greater than if one had synthetically held the same number of futures contracts as before the "roll". Conversely, where the price of the near-dated futures contract is lower than the price of the longer-dated futures contract (in such case the futures contract is said to be in "contango"), then the roll-over will result in exposure to a smaller number of the longer-dated futures contract being taken. Therefore, any gain or loss on the new positions for a given movement in the prices of the futures contract will be less than if one had synthetically held the same number of futures contracts as before the "roll".
- (ii) Where a futures contract is in contango (or, alternatively, backwardation) such may be expected to (though it may not) have a negative (or, alternatively, positive) effect over time: Where a futures contract is in "contango", then the price of the longer-dated futures contract will generally be expected to (but may not) decrease over time as it nears expiry. In such event, the roll-over is generally expected to have a negative effect on an investment in the futures contract. Where a futures contract is in "backwardation", then the price of the longer-dated futures contract will generally be expected to (but may not) increase over time as it nears expiry. In such event, the investment in the relevant futures contract can generally be expected to be positively affected.
- (iii) In the case of Products which are linked to an Underlying which is a futures contract, the futures contract will be changed without liquidating or entering into any positions in the commodity contracts. Accordingly, the effects of the roll-over described above do not apply directly to the Underlying and the Products. As a result, an Investor in such Products will not participate directly in possible effects of the roll-over. However, other market participants may act in accordance with the mechanism of the roll-over and such behaviour may have an indirect adverse impact on the value of the Reference Asset for the Products.

(f) Risk associated with whole-day trading of currencies and commodities

If any amounts due under the Products are determined on the basis of currencies or commodities, investors should consider that those are traded 24 hours a day as a result of the time zones of Australia, Asia, Europe and United States of America. For this reason it is possible that an event that is material in accordance with the Conditions or a factor relevant for the determination of any right granted by the Product may occur or be determined outside the business hours of the place where the Products are offered and/or traded.

(g) Risks associated with Products linked to Underlying(s) which are currency exchange rates

Currency exchange rates indicate the relationship between one particular currency and another currency. For example the exchange rate 'EUR/USD 1.11823' indicates that USD 1.11823 has to be paid to purchase one euro. An increase in this currency exchange rate therefore means an increase in the value of the euro against the US dollar. The currency exchange rate 'USD/EUR 0.89416', on the other hand, indicates that EUR 0.89416 has to be paid to purchase one US dollar. An increase in this currency exchange rate therefore means an increase in the value of the US dollar against the euro.

A country's currency may appreciate, for example, as a result of an increase in a country's key interest rate, demand for such country's government bonds normally rises. Conversely, a country's currency may depreciate if the key interest rate falls. Generally, exchange rates are determined by supply and demand for currencies on the international money markets which are, among other things, subject to economic factors, speculation and actions taken by governments and central banks (e.g., exchange controls or restrictions).

Currency exchange rates are influenced by a wide variety of factors, including inflation rates in the countries concerned, interest rate differences between the respective countries, economic forecasts, international political factors, currency convertibility and the safety of making financial investments in the currency concerned. Apart from these assessable factors there may be factors that are almost impossible to predict, for instance factors of a psychological nature such as a loss of faith in the political leadership of a country, which can also have a major impact on the value of the currency concerned.

(h) Risks associated with Products linked to Underlying(s) which are commodities

The price risks involved in commodities are often complex. Commodity prices are more volatile than other investment categories and, in particular, commodity markets are less liquid than bond, currency or stock markets. This means that changes in the supply and demand have a larger impact on prices and volatility, making commodities investments riskier and more complex than other investments.

The factors that influence commodity prices are both numerous and complex. The following are examples of some typical factors affecting commodities prices.

- (i) The planning and management of commodities supplies are very time-consuming. This means that the scope for action on the supply side is limited and it is not always possible to adjust production swiftly to take account of demand. Demand can also vary on a regional basis. Transport costs for commodities in regions where these are needed also affect their prices. The fact that some commodities take a cyclical pattern, such as agricultural products which are only produced at certain times of the year, can also result in major price fluctuations.
- (ii) Direct investments in commodities involve costs related to storage, insurance and tax. Moreover, no interest or dividends are paid on commodities. The total returns from commodities investments are therefore influenced by these factors.
- (iii) Not all commodities markets are liquid and able to quickly and adequately react to changes in supply and demand. The fact that there are only a few market participants on the commodities markets means that speculative investments can have negative consequences and may distort prices.
- (iv) Unfavourable weather conditions can influence the supply of certain commodities for the entire year. This kind of supply crisis can lead to severe and unpredictable price fluctuations. Diseases and epidemics can also influence the prices for agricultural commodities.
- (v) Commodities are often produced in emerging market countries, with demand coming principally from industrialised nations. However, the political and economic situation of emerging markets is often far less stable than in industrialised nations. They are generally much more susceptible to the risks of rapid political change and economic setbacks. Political crises can affect investor confidence, which can as a consequence influence commodity prices. Armed conflicts can also have impact on the supply and demand for certain commodities. It is also possible for industrialised nations to impose embargos on imports and exports of goods and services. This can directly and indirectly impact commodity prices. Furthermore, numerous commodity producers have joined forces to establish organisations or cartels in order to regulate supply and influence prices.
- (vi) Changes in tax rates and customs duties may have a positive or a negative impact on the profitability margins for commodities producers. If these costs are passed on to buyers, these changes will affect the prices of the relevant commodities.

Additionally, the legal and regulatory regime in relation to commodities is subject to change in ways that could affect the Issuer's obligations in respect of any underlying or hedging transactions in relation to the Products.

Changes to these legal and regulatory regimes may negatively affect the value of the Products.

Such changes to the legal and regulatory regime in relation to commodities may also adversely impact the Issuer's obligations in respect of any underlying or hedging transactions in relation to the Products, or may make it unlawful or unfeasible in whole or in part for any reason for the Issuer to access commodity markets for the purpose of managing commodity market risk. This, in turn, may lead to adjustment to or early redemption of the Products.

In the event that there is an early redemption of the Products, any early redemption amount may be less than the initial investment, and could even be zero. Additionally, the Investor may not be able to reinvest the early redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate or yield on its Products.

(i) Risks associated with Products linked to Underlying(s) which are funds

Factors affecting the performance of the Fund (being either (i) an exchange traded fund ("ETF"), which is an open ended or other fund traded on an exchange, or (ii) a fund, in each case that tracks or is linked to the performance of a portfolio of assets) may adversely affect the market value of, and the return (if any) on, the Products linked to such Fund.

The performance of a Fund is dependent upon the macroeconomic factors affecting the performance of such assets which may include, among other things, interest and price levels on the capital markets, commodity prices, currency developments, political factors and, in the case of shares, company specific factors, such as earnings position, market position, risk situation, shareholder structure and distribution policy. These factors affecting the performance of the Fund(s) may adversely affect the market value of, and the return (if any) on, the Products linked to such Funds.

(i) Exposure to the risk that the return on the Product does not reflect the return on a direct investment in the fund units or ETF shares or the assets included in the portfolio of the Fund(s)

An Investor's return on Products linked to one or more Funds may not reflect the return such Investor would realise if he or she actually owned the relevant fund units, ETF shares or assets included in the portfolio(s) of the Fund(s). For example, if the portfolio of the Fund(s) includes shares or a share index, Investors in the Products linked to such Fund will not receive any dividends paid on such shares or the shares included in such share index and will not benefit from those dividends unless such Fund takes such dividends into account for purposes of calculating the value of such Fund. Similarly, Investors in Products linked to Fund(s) will not have any voting rights in the shares or other assets that are included in the portfolio(s) of the Fund(s). Accordingly, an Investor in Products linked to Fund(s) may receive a lower payment (if any) upon redemption of such Products than such Investor would have received, if he or she had directly invested in the fund units, ETF shares or assets included in the portfolio of such Fund(s).

(ii) A change in the composition or discontinuance of the Fund(s) could adversely affect the market value of, and return (if any) on, Products linked thereto

In principle, the Issuer and the Calculation Agent have no influence on the composition or performance of any Fund or any index that such Fund is intended to replicate. The Management Company or the licensor/sponsor, as applicable, of an underlying index can add, delete or substitute the assets included in such index, respectively, or make methodological changes that could affect the value of such Fund or of such underlying index, respectively. The substitution of assets included in the portfolio of a Fund or in an underlying index, respectively, may affect the value of such Fund, as a newly added asset may perform significantly worse or better than the asset it replaces, which in turn may affect the market value of, or payments (or other benefits to be received) under, the Products. The Management Company or licensor/sponsor of any underlying index may also alter, discontinue or suspend calculation or dissemination of information on such Fund or such underlying index, respectively. The Management Company and licensor/sponsor of such underlying index are not involved in the offer and sale of the Products and have no obligation to invest therein. The Management Company and licensor/sponsor of such underlying index may take any actions in respect of such Fund or such underlying index, respectively, without regard to the interests of the Investors in Products, and any of these actions could adversely affect the market value of (or amount payable under) such Products. In particular, no assurance can be given that the performance of a Fund will be identical to the performance of the assets included in the portfolio of the Fund(s) or which the Fund intends to replicate, respectively, due to many factors.

(iii) Risks in relation to market price

The market price of interests in the Fund that are traded on an exchange may, due to the forces of supply and demand, as well as liquidity and scale of trading spread in the secondary market, diverge from their net asset value, i.e., the market price per interest in the Fund could be higher or lower than its net asset value, and will fluctuate during the trading day.

The performance of Fund(s) with a portfolio of assets that are concentrated in the assets of a particular industry or group of industries could be more volatile than the performance of Funds with portfolios of more diverse assets.

(iv) Risks in relation to costs of Funds

A Fund's performance will be affected by the fees and expenses which it incurs, as described in its offering documents. Such fees and expenses may include the investment management fees, performance fees and operating expenses typically incurred in connection with any direct investment in a Fund. A Fund will assess fees and incur costs and expenses regardless of its performance. High levels of trading could cause a Fund to incur increased trading costs. Investors of Products linked to Fund(s) will be exposed to a pro rata share of the fees and expenses of the relevant Fund(s).

(v) Valuation risk in relation to a Fund

The Calculation Agent will rely on the calculation and publication of the net asset value per Fund Unit by the relevant Fund itself (or another entity on its behalf). Any delay, suspension or inaccuracy in the calculation and publication of the net asset value per Fund Unit will impact on the calculation of the return on the Products. The value of and return on the Products may also be reduced if a Fund delays payments in respect of fund share redemptions.

The Fund Units and/or the investments made by a Fund may be valued only by administrators, custodians or other service provider of the Fund and may not be verified by an independent third party on a regular or timely basis. There is a risk that (i) the determinations of the Calculation Agent may not reflect the true value of the Fund Units at a specific time which could result in losses or inaccurate pricing and/or (ii) relevant values may not be available on a relevant date which could result in the Fund Units of the Fund being determined by the Calculation Agent in its discretion.

(vi) Risk that strategies of a Fund may not be successful in achieving its investment objective

No assurance can be given that the investment strategy of a Fund will be successful or that the investment objective of such Fund will be achieved, or that any analytical model used by the relevant management company will prove to be correct or that any assessments of the short-term or long-term prospects, volatility and correlation of the types of investments in which such Fund has invested or will invest will prove accurate. The analytical models utilised by a management company of a Fund and upon which investment decisions are based may be developed from historical analysis of the performance or correlation of historical analysis of the performance or correlations of certain companies, securities, industries, countries or markets. There can be no assurance that the historical performance that is used to determine such analytical models will be a good indicator of future performance, and if the future performance of a Fund varies significantly, the management company of such Fund may not achieve its intended investment performance.

No assurance can be given that the strategies to be used by a Fund will be successful under all or any market conditions. A Fund may utilise financial instruments such as derivatives for investment purposes and/or seek to hedge against fluctuations in the relative values of the Fund's portfolio positions as a result of changes in exchange rates, interest rates, equity prices and levels of yields and prices of other securities. Such hedging transactions may not always achieve the intended outcome and can also limit potential gains.

The management of a Fund may have broad discretion over its investment strategy, within specified parameters. A Fund could, for example, alter its investment focus within a prescribed market. Any shift in strategy could bear adverse consequences to a Fund's investment performance. Further, a Fund may have difficulty realising on any strategy initiatives that it undertakes. It may not sometimes be clear whether the Fund fulfils the investment criteria set out in its investment guidelines.

(j) Risks associated with Products linked to Underlying(s) which are Reference Rates and/or Products with a Coupon based on a Reference Rate (including interest rates)

Reference rates are mainly dependent upon the supply and demand for credit in the money market, i.e., the rates of interest paid on investments, determined by the interaction of supply of and demand for funds in the money market. The supply and demand in the money market on the other hand is dependent upon macroeconomic factors, such as interest and price levels on the capital markets, currency developments and political factors, or upon other factors, depending on the specific type of reference rate. Such factors affecting the performance of a reference rate may adversely affect the market value of, and return (if any) on, Products linked thereto.

In principle, the Issuer and/or the Calculation Agent (as the case may be) have no influence on the determination of the reference rate(s). Reference rates are generally calculated by an independent organization or a governmental authority, often based on information provided by market participants. The entity publishing an interest rate or reference rate can modify the calculation method for determining such reference rate or make other methodological changes that could affect the value of the interest rate or reference rate. The calculation or dissemination of such reference rate may also be altered, discontinued or suspended. The entity publishing a reference rate is not involved in the offer and sale of the Products and has no obligation to invest therein. The entity publishing a reference rate may take any actions in respect of such reference rate without regard to the interests of the Investors in Products and any of these actions could adversely affect the market value of such Products.

(k) Risks associated with Products linked to Derivative Instruments or Fixed Rate Instruments (each an "Instrument")

(i) There are risks in relation to each type of Instrument

Instruments may be linked to different types of underlying assets, including, but not limited to, indices and shares. Risks in relation to each type of underlying asset are described in the section entitled "Risks associated with certain types of Underlying".

(ii) Following the occurrence of certain events in relation to the Instruments, the Instruments may be substituted or the Products may be redeemed early at the non-scheduled early repayment amount

In the event that an Instrument is terminated or redeemed early or in the event of changes to the terms and conditions of the Instrument, the Instruments may be replaced with another instrument or the Products may be redeemed early at the unscheduled early redemption amount, which may be zero in the worst case, i.e. the Investor may suffer a total loss of the capital invested.

(l) Risks associated with Products linked to Underlying(s) which are emerging markets Underlyings

Investments in so-called emerging markets contain further risk factors in addition to the risks normally associated with the investment in the respective underlying. These include the unstable economic situation, high inflation, increased currency risks as well as political and legal risks. The political and economic structures in emerging markets are sometimes subject to considerable transitions and rapid developments and these countries often lack social, political and economic stability if compared with more industrialised nations. Of particular importance is the increased risk of currency fluctuations. Instability in these countries can also be caused by authoritarian governments or military interference in political and economic decision making. This also includes anti-constitutional (attempted) regime change, civil unrest relating to demands for improved political, economic and social conditions, hostile relations with neighbouring countries or conflicts based on ethnic, religious or racial reasons.

There is also the possibility of restrictions being imposed on foreign investors, expropriation of assets, confiscatory taxation, confiscation or nationalisation of foreign bank deposits or other assets, the introduction of currency controls or other detrimental developments which may adversely affect the success of investments in such countries. Such adverse effects can, under certain circumstances, last for long periods of time, i.e., months or years. Each of these adverse effects may cause what is known as a market disruption in relation to the Products and one of the results of this may be that during this period no prices will be quoted for the Products affected by the market disruption.

The small size and lack of experience on the securities markets in certain countries as well as the limited trading volume of securities can cause an underlying to be less liquid and/or considerably more volatile than underlyings in more established markets. It is possible that very little financial information is available on local issuers, which can make it difficult to assess the value of and/or prospects of the underlying.

In addition, if the underlyings of the Products are quoted in local currency, i.e., not hedged against the currency of the Products, there is an increased foreign exchange risk. Experience shows that the currency exchange rates in emerging markets are subject to particularly high fluctuations. This may result in a considerable negative performance of the Product, even though the performance of the underlying during the term of the Product has essentially remained unchanged or even risen. This may mean that some or all of the total performance of the underlying may be eroded by currency losses and that the performance of the underlying even may become negative.

(m) The regulation and reform of certain published rates, indices, and other values or "benchmarks" may adversely affect the value of and return on the Products linked to such values or benchmarks

A number of major interest rates, other rates, indices and other published values or benchmarks are the subject of national and international regulatory reforms. These reforms may cause such benchmarks to perform differently than in the past, to disappear entirely, or have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on Products linked to any such value or benchmark.

The Benchmarks Regulation

The EU Regulation on indices used as benchmarks in financial instruments and financial contracts or to measure the performance of investment funds (the "Benchmarks Regulation") is a key element of the regulatory reform on such benchmarks in the EU and is in force, subject to certain transitional provisions, since 1 January 2018. In addition to so-called "critical benchmarks" such as EURIBOR, other interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and indices, including equity, commodity and "proprietary" indices or strategies, are in most cases within scope of the Benchmarks Regulation as "benchmarks" where they are used to determine the amount payable under, or the value of, certain financial instruments (including Products listed on an EU regulated market or EU multilateral trading facility (MTF)), and in a number of other circumstances.

The Benchmarks Regulation applies to the contribution of input data to a benchmark, the administration of a benchmark, and the use of a benchmark in the EU. Amongst other things, the Benchmarks Regulation requires EU benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered as such and to comply with extensive requirements relating to benchmark administration. It also prohibits certain uses by EU supervised entities of (a) benchmarks provided by EU administrators which are not authorised or registered in accordance with the Benchmarks Regulation and (b) benchmarks provided by non-EU administrators where (i) the administrator's regulatory regime has not been determined to be "equivalent" to that of the EU, (ii) the administrator has not been recognised in accordance with the Benchmarks Regulation, and (iii) the benchmark has not been endorsed in accordance with the Benchmarks Regulation.

ESMA maintains a public register of EU-approved benchmark administrators and non-EU benchmarks pursuant to the Benchmarks Regulation (the "ESMA Register").

The Benchmarks Regulation may have a material impact on Products linked to a 'benchmark'. For example:

- a rate or index which is a 'benchmark' may not be used or may in the future no longer be used in certain ways by an EU supervised entity if (subject to applicable transitional provisions) its administrator does not obtain or maintain authorisation or registration (or, if a non-EU entity, does not satisfy the 'equivalence' conditions and is not 'recognised' pending an equivalence decision);
- the methodology or other terms of the benchmark could be changed in order to comply with the terms of the Benchmark Regulation, for example in cases of future changes to it or a change in administrative interpretation of its terms, and such changes could reduce or increase the rate or level or affect the volatility of the published rate or level, and (depending on the terms of the particular Products) could lead to adjustments to the terms of the Products, including potentially determination by the Calculation Agent of the rate or level in its discretion; and
- the ongoing and increasing regulation of benchmarks could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements. Such factors may have the effect of discouraging market participants from continuing to administer certain benchmarks or to participate in the determination of certain benchmarks, triggering changes in the rules or methodologies used in certain benchmarks or leading to the disappearance of the benchmark;

In this regard, there is a risk that a benchmark may be changed in substance and thereafter performs differently than it has done in the past, and may not be continued or may not be used in connection with the Products. Moreover, a competent authority may order the cessation of a certain benchmark which is not or no longer compliant with legal requirements or may declare a benchmark as no longer being representative for the underlying market it measures. In such cases, it should be noted that it is in the discretion of the Issuer to make adjustments to the terms of the Products, to delist or to early redeem the Products (as applicable).

Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on the value of and yield on any Products linked to such a benchmark.

Reform and replacement of Interbank Offered Rates

Amongst other developments, relevant authorities have strongly encouraged the market the transition away from Interbank Offered Rates ("IBORs"), such as LIBOR, and on March 2021 the Financial Conduct Authority in the United Kingdom announced that most LIBOR settings will cease to be published by the end of 2021 and some U.S. Dollar settings by July 2023. In the meantime, so called "risk free rates" ("RFR") have been identified to eventually take the place of such IBORs as primary benchmarks. This includes (i) for sterling LIBOR, a reformed Sterling Overnight Index Average ("SONIA"), (ii) for EONIA, a new Euro Short-Term Rate (€STR) as the new euro risk-free rate, and (iii) for USD LIBOR, the Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR") to be eventually established as the primary US dollar interest rate benchmark. It is not known whether still existing IBORs will continue long-term in their current form.

While IBORs represented interbank funding over different maturities, RFRs are overnight rates and have a different methodology and other important differences from the IBORs they will eventually replace. RFR have little, if any, historical track records. As a result, RFR can perform materially different than IBORs in the past, including, without limitation, as a result of changes in interest and yield rates in the market, market volatility or global or regional economic, financial, political, regulatory, judicial or other events. For example, since publication of SOFR began in April 2018, daily changes in SOFR have, on occasion, been more volatile than daily changes in comparable benchmarks or other market rates.

RFR are published based on data received from other sources, the Issuer has no control over. It can not be excluded that an RFR will be discontinued or fundamentally altered in a material manner. An established trading market for RFR based Products may never develop or may not be very liquid. Market terms for debt securities that are linked to RFR, such as the spread over the base rate reflected in the interest rate provisions, may evolve over time, and as a result, trading prices of RFR based Products may be lower than those of later-issued debt securities that are linked to €RFR. Similarly, if an RFR does not prove to be widely used in debt securities that are similar or comparable to the RFR based Products, the trading price of RFR based Products may be lower than those of debt securities that are linked to rates that are more widely used. Furthermore, interest on RFR based Products is only capable of being determined immediately or shortly prior to the relevant Coupon Payment Date. It might be difficult for Investors to estimate reliably the amount of interest that will be payable on such Products, and investors might be unable or unwilling to trade such Products.

All these factors may materially impact the return on the Products, its market value as well as liquidity. Investors in the RFR based Products may not be able to sell the Products at all or may not be able to sell the Products at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market, and may consequently suffer losses from increased pricing volatility and market risk.

(n) Risks associated with Products linked to an Underlying(s) denominated in renminbi

(i) Renminbi is subject to the People's Republic of China exchange control policies

Renminbi is not freely convertible and is subject to exchange control policies and restrictions of the People's Republic of China government. As a result of restrictions imposed by the People's Republic of China government on cross-border renminbi fund flows, the availability of renminbi outside the People's Republic of China is limited, which may adversely affect the liquidity of renminbi outside the People's Republic of China, which in turn may adversely affect the market value, and the potential return, of Products linked to or denominated in renminbi.

(ii) Risks relating to renminbi exchange rate and interest rate

If specified in the Issue Terms, the Product will be denominated and settled in renminbi outside the People's Republic of China. The exchange rate of, and interest rate for, renminbi outside the People's Republic of China may be different from the same in the People's Republic of China. The value of renminbi against Hong Kong dollar and other foreign currencies fluctuates and is affected by changes in the People's Republic of China and international political, economic and market conditions and by many other factors. There is no guarantee that renminbi will not depreciate and any devaluation of renminbi could adversely affect the market value of the Product. In addition, interest rates for renminbi in the People's Republic of China government are controlled. The People's Republic of China government may further liberalise the regulation of interest rates for renminbi in the People's Republic of China which may increase interest rate volatility for renminbi outside the People's Republic of China. Any fluctuation in interest rates for renminbi outside the People's Republic of China may adversely affect the market value, and the potential return, of the Product.

(iii) Risks relating to renminbi payment risk

If the Settlement Currency or Investment Currency of the Product is renminbi, and FX Disruption Event is 'Applicable' in the Issue Terms and has occurred and is continuing on, a scheduled date of payment, payment may be made in the Specified Currency on the postponed payment date if a Specified Currency is chosen in the Issue Terms. In such case, there may be a delay in payments under the Product and no interest will be payable for any such delay. Investors may also suffer a loss in Specified Currency terms if renminbi depreciates against the Specified Currency following the occurrence of an FX Disruption Event.

(o) General

(i) The value of and return on the Products will depend on the performance of the Underlying(s), but such performance is not possible to predict and the economic relationship between the value of and return on the Products will depend on the performance of the Underlying(s) may not be clear and may change over time and be affected by other matters

The calculation of the redemption amount payable or, in the case of Products with redemption by delivery of the relevant Underlying(s), the number of the Underlyings to be delivered at maturity and, if and to the extent that the Products have a variable interest rate, the coupon amounts, may depend on the performance of one or more Underlying(s) during the term. This means that there is a connection between the economic value of the Products and the economic value of the Underlying(s) to which the Product is linked.

However, investors should be aware that there may not be a direct relationship between the market value of the Products and the current price of the relevant Underlying(s) since the market value of the Products may also be affected by factors other than the current price of the relevant Underlying(s), such as volatility of such Underlying(s), dividend payments or movements in the general interest rates etc. Therefore, positive changes in the price of the relevant Underlying(s) do not necessarily lead to a change in the market value of the Product which is positive for the Investor. A depreciation of the Product moreover may even occur if the relevant price of the relevant Underlying(s) remains constant. Investors should note that changes in the price of the relevant Underlying(s) (or even a situation where an expected price change does not occur) can reduce the value of the Products to a disproportionately high extent and even render them worthless, unless the Products provide for payment of a scheduled minimum redemption amount (or for partial redemption amounts). In particular, Investors should not assume that the price of the Products will recover in time in view of the limited life of the Products.

Depending on the performance of the Underlying(s) and the Product, Investors may lose some or all of their investment.

(ii) Investors have no claim against or interest in any Underlying(s)

The Issuer has no obligation to hold the Underlying(s). Investors will not have any legal or beneficial rights of ownership in the Underlying(s). For example, where the Underlying(s) is a share, Investors will have no voting rights, no rights to receive dividends or other distributions or any other rights with respect to the Underlying(s). In addition, Investors will have no claim against any share issuer, index sponsor, fund issuer, fund sponsor or any other third party in relation to an Underlying(s); such parties have no obligation to act in Investors' interests. Accordingly, Investors in the Products may receive a lower return on the Products than they would have received had they invested directly in the Underlying(s).

2.5 Risks associated with Proprietary Indices as Underlying(s)

Unless the context otherwise requires, all capitalised terms which are not defined in this Base Prospectus will have the meanings given to them in the rules of the Relevant Index (as defined below).

(a) Risks relating to Proprietary Indices generally

- (i) The Issuer is the sponsor of each Proprietary Index and each Underlying Strategy (if any)

The Issuer (or an affiliate) is the sponsor of each Proprietary Index and each Underlying Strategy (if any) (each a "Relevant Index"). Each Relevant Index has been developed, owned, calculated and maintained by the Issuer (or an affiliate), and it has the responsibility for the composition, calculation and maintenance of such Relevant Index. As index sponsor, the Issuer (or an affiliate) may also amend the rules of the Relevant Index from time to time, or discontinue it, in its discretion. In its capacity as index sponsor, the Issuer (and any applicable affiliate) is under no obligation to take into account the interests of an Investor of the Products that references a Proprietary Index. Any such determinations made by the Issuer as index sponsor in relation to each Relevant Index may have a negative impact on the value of and return on your Products.

- (ii) Investors in the Relevant Index could lose their entire investment

The value of the Relevant Index depends on the performance of the components, each of which may increase or decrease in value. Neither the Relevant Index nor any of the components includes any element of capital protection or guaranteed return. The value of any component, or the Relevant Index itself, may fall below its initial value.

- (iii) The value of the Relevant Index may be zero

The value of the Relevant Index is floored at zero. If the methodology for calculating the value of the Relevant Index would otherwise result in the value of the Relevant Index on any business day of less than zero, the value of the Relevant Index shall be deemed to be zero on such business day and all subsequent business days. Any transaction or product linked solely to the Relevant Index may lose all of its value, with no chance of recovery thereafter.

- (iv) The methodology underlying the Relevant Index may not produce positive returns and the Relevant Index may underperform other alternative investment strategies

No assurance can be given that the methodology underlying the Relevant Index will be successful in producing positive returns or that the Relevant Index will outperform any other alternative investment strategy. Furthermore, the results that may be obtained from investing in any transaction or product linked to the Relevant Index may well be significantly different from the results that could theoretically be obtained from a direct investment in the relevant components or any related derivatives thereto.

- (v) Gains from an investment in transactions or products linked to the Relevant Index may be reduced by the deduction of embedded costs

Nominal embedded costs may be included within the Relevant Index and if so, will reduce the level of the Relevant Index. Notional costs may be deducted from the performance of the Relevant Index to synthetically reflect the transaction costs that a hypothetical investor would incur if such hypothetical investor were to enter into and maintain direct investment positions to provide the same exposure as the Relevant Index. These embedded costs will reduce the value of the Relevant Index.

(vi) The Relevant Index is not actively managed

The exposure of the Relevant Index to its components is determined in accordance with the index methodology set out in the relevant Index Rules. Therefore, there will be no active management of the Relevant Index so as to enhance returns beyond those embedded in the Relevant Index. Market participants often adjust their investments promptly in view of market, political, financial or other factors. An actively managed investment may potentially respond more directly and appropriately to immediate market, political, financial or other factors than a non-actively managed strategy such as the Relevant Index. No assurance can be given that the Relevant Index will replicate or outperform a comparable strategy which is actively managed and the return on the Relevant Index may be lower than the return on an actively managed strategy.

(vii) The Relevant Index may not be a fully diversified portfolio

Diversification is generally considered to reduce the amount of risk associated with generating returns. The exposure of the Relevant Index may be concentrated in certain industrial sectors and a single geographical market. There can be no assurance that the Relevant Index will be sufficiently diversified at any time to reduce or minimize risks of volatility. The more concentrated the Relevant Index is in certain industrial sectors and/or geographical markets, the greater degree of volatility the Relevant Index may exhibit, and this could in turn result in an adverse effect on the returns of the Proprietary Index.

In addition, components in certain industrial sectors and/or geographical markets may suffer the same adverse performance following a general downturn or other economic or political event, and this could in turn have an adverse effect on the returns of the Relevant Index.

(viii) The actual weights or quantities of component(s) may vary following each rebalancing

The actual weight or quantity of each of the components of the Relevant Index may be different than the assigned weights or quantities, and therefore the relative contribution of each component of the Relevant Index to the level of the Relevant Index may vary from time to time, depending on the performance of each of the components relative to the other components since such immediately preceding rebalancing. The longer the period between each rebalancing, the greater the likelihood that there will be a significant variance between the absolute values of the weights or quantities of the components and the Relevant Index may therefore have an exposure to a component further below or in greater excess of its assigned weight than it would if the period were shorter, which may result in a greater skewing of the absolute nature of the investment positions with respect to the components and increase the overall risk profile of the Relevant Index.

(ix) Historical levels of a Relevant Index may not be indicative of future performance

Past performance of a Relevant Index is no guide to future performance. It is impossible to predict whether the value of a Relevant Index will rise or fall. The actual performance of a Relevant Index in the future may bear little relation to the historical performance of a Relevant Index.

(x) Historical analysis or other statistical analysis in respect of the Relevant Index is no guarantee of the performance of the Relevant Index

Certain presentations and historical analysis or other statistical analysis materials in respect of the operation and/or potential returns of the Relevant Index which may be provided are based on simulated analyses and hypothetical circumstances to estimate how the Relevant Index may have performed prior to its Launch Date. Neither the index sponsor nor the issuer of any product linked to the Relevant Index provides any assurance or guarantee that the Relevant Index will operate or would have operated in the past in a manner consistent with those materials. As such, any historical returns projected in such materials or any hypothetical simulations based on these analyses or hypothetical values, which are provided in relation to the Relevant Index, may not reflect the performance of, and are no guarantee or assurance in respect of the performance or returns of, the Relevant Index over any time period.

(xi) There are certain risks in relation to back-testing

The index calculation agent will designate the "Start Date", on which the value of the Relevant Index is equal to the "Initial Value" as specified in the relevant Index Rules. The values of the Relevant Index in the period from such Start Date, to a date (the "Launch Date") no later than the date on which investment products linked to the Relevant Index are first implemented (which may be materially later than the Start Date) will be calculated on the basis of back-tested data ("back-testing").

Index values for such period are hypothetical, and are calculated at or around the Launch Date in accordance with the Index methodology but using historical data available to the index calculation agent at the time of calculation. If such historical data is not available or is incomplete for any particular day, the index calculation agent may use alternate sources of data in place of such historical data, and/or may substitute alternative values (which may be determined by the index calculation agent), as it deems necessary to calculate such hypothetical value of the Relevant Index.

If such historical data was available or complete, or if different sources or values were used in such back-testing, the Index values for such period would be different, potentially materially so. Accordingly, the Index values may not reflect the performance of, and are no guarantee or assurance in respect of the performance or returns of, the Relevant Index over any time period from the Launch Date. Furthermore, any back-testing is based on information and data provided to the index calculation agent by third parties. The index calculation agent will not have independently verified or guaranteed the accuracy and/or the completeness of such information or data provided and is not responsible for any inaccuracy, omission, mistake or error in such information, data and/or back-testing.

(xii) An Investor in Products linked to a Proprietary Index will have no rights in respect of any component(s)

The investment exposure provided by a Relevant Index is synthetic, and a notional investment in a Relevant Index does not constitute a purchase or other acquisition or assignment of any interest in any component of a Relevant Index (or any sub-components thereof). Investment in Products linked to a Proprietary Index will therefore not make an investor a holder of, or give an investor a direct investment position in, any component (or any sub-components thereof). The return on your Products may be less than if you held a direct position in a Relevant Index or any component (or any sub-components thereof), or a different product linked thereto.

(xiii) A Relevant Index may have a limited operating history and may perform in unanticipated ways

Each Relevant Index is a relatively new strategy. As limited historical performance data may exist with respect to a Relevant Index and/or the components referenced by such Relevant Index, any investment in respect of which returns are linked to the performance of a Relevant Index or its components may involve greater risk than an investment linked to returns generated by an investment strategy with a proven track record. While a longer history of actual performance could provide more reliable information on which to base an investment decision, the fact that a Relevant Index and the relevant components are relatively new would not allow this. There can be no guarantee or assurance that a Relevant Index or its components will operate in a manner consistent with the data available.

(xiv) The index sponsor's hedging activity may affect the level of a Relevant Index

By executing products linked to a Relevant Index ("Linked Products"), the Issuer will have an exposure to such Relevant Index and its components. The Issuer (or an affiliate) may take risk positions to hedge this exposure in its sole discretion and in a principal capacity. Investors in any Linked Product will not have any rights in respect of any of the Issuer's hedge positions, including any shares, futures, options, commodities or currencies. The Issuer (or an affiliate) may execute its hedging activity by trading in the components of a Relevant Index on or before the related rebalancing day. Such trading may have an adverse impact on the level at which a component is rebalanced which will result in an adverse impact on the performance of such Relevant Index. The Issuer's hedging activity, and hence the size of such impact, will be linked to the amount of new and outstanding Linked Products at the relevant time and then-prevailing market conditions and may affect the market price of or liquidity in the relevant market of a Relevant Index. Additionally, the Issuer may generate revenues if it executes its hedging activity at different levels from those used to determine the value of a Relevant Index or on a rebalancing of such Relevant Index. Such hedging activity could generate significant returns to the Issuer that will not be passed on to investors in Linked Products.

(xv) As index sponsor and/or calculation agent of a Relevant Index, the Issuer has the authority to make determinations that could materially affect such Relevant Index and create conflicts of interest

As the index sponsor and/or calculation agent of a Relevant Index (or an affiliate thereof), the Issuer does not generally exercise any discretion in relation to the operation of such Relevant Index. The Issuer owes no fiduciary duties in respect of each Relevant Index. The Issuer may, however, exercise discretion in certain limited situations including, but not limited to, those situations described in the relevant Index Rules.

Determinations made by the Issuer as the index sponsor and/or calculation agent of a Relevant Index could adversely affect the level of such Relevant Index and the exercise by the Issuer of its discretion could present it with a conflict of interest. In making those determinations, the index sponsor and/or calculation agent will not be required to, and will not, take the interests of any investor in Products linked to the relevant Proprietary Index into account or consider the effect its determinations will have on the value of such Products. All determinations made by index sponsor and/or calculation agent shall be at its sole discretion and shall be conclusive for all purposes and will bind all holders of any Products linked to the Proprietary Index. The index sponsor and/or calculation agent shall not have any liability for such determinations.

(xvi) A Relevant Index may be changed or become unavailable

The index sponsor may alter the methodology used to calculate a Relevant Index or to discontinue publication of the value of a Relevant Index and such event may result in a decrease in the value of or return on any Products linked to a Proprietary Index. Any changes may be made without regard to the interests of an investor of Products linked to a Proprietary Index.

A permanent cancellation of a Relevant Index or a failure by the index sponsor to calculate or announce the value of a Relevant Index may constitute a disruption event in respect of, and, therefore, may result in a decrease in the value of or return on any, Products linked to a Proprietary Index or result in the termination or early redemption of such Products.

Furthermore, the decisions and policies of the index sponsor concerning the calculation of the value of a Relevant Index could affect its value and, therefore, the amount payable over the term of Products linked to a Proprietary Index and the market value of such Products. The amount payable on Products linked to a Proprietary Index and their market value could also be affected if the index sponsor changes these policies.

- (xvii) Data sourcing and calculation risks associated with the Relevant Index and its components may adversely affect the value of the Relevant Index

The value of the Relevant Index is calculated based on price data that may be subject to potential errors in data sources or other errors that may affect the closing levels and/or prices published by the relevant sponsor.

Any errors in the third party information or data that the Relevant Index relies on to generate the signal may impact the other calculations underlying the Index methodology, such as whether the Relevant Index takes a long or short position in an immediate component included in the Index. Such errors could adversely affect the value of the Index. Neither the index sponsor, nor any of its affiliates is under any obligation or currently intends to independently verify such third party information or data from any third party data source or to advise any investor in any transaction or product linked to the Relevant Index of any inaccuracy, omission, mistake or error of which it or any such affiliate becomes aware. Consequently, neither the index sponsor nor any of its affiliates shall be liable (whether in contract, tort or otherwise) to any person for any inaccuracy, omission, mistake or error in the calculation or dissemination of the value of the Index.

There can be no assurance that any error or discrepancy on the part of any data source or sponsor will be corrected or revised. Even if any error or discrepancy on the part of any third party data source or sponsor is corrected or revised, neither the index sponsor nor any of its affiliates is under any obligation or currently intends to incorporate any such correction or revision into the calculation of the value of the Relevant Index or the level of any terminal component. Neither the index sponsor, or any of its affiliates makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the correctness or completeness of that information and takes no responsibility for the accuracy of such data or the impact of any inaccuracy of such data on the value of the Relevant Index or on the performance of any components referenced therein. Any of the foregoing errors or discrepancies could also adversely affect the value of the Index.

- (xviii) Information about the Relevant Index may only be available through the index sponsor

The rules for the Relevant Index are only available through the index sponsor. The index sponsor may not provide investors of any transaction or product linked to the Relevant Index with further information in relation to the Relevant Index beyond what is provided in the relevant Index Rules and further information may not be generally available. The index sponsor has entered into non-exclusive licensing agreements with certain of its third party data suppliers in order to source the necessary data to calculate the Index. The formalities necessary to obtain access to such figures may deter potential investors from investing in a transaction or product linked to the Relevant Index on the secondary market.

- (xix) The Relevant Index relies on the use of third-party information

The Index methodology relies on the use of third-party information. The inability of the index calculation agent to source necessary data to calculate the relevant formulae of the Relevant Index may affect the value of the Relevant Index. Investors considering acquiring or making an investment in a transaction or product linked to the Relevant Index should carefully read and understand the information about the Relevant Index and its components (and any constituents thereof). Information about the components (and any constituents thereof) can be found on the Bloomberg and/or the stock exchanges on which the constituent equity stocks are listed. However, the Issuer makes no warranty as to the correctness of that information and takes no responsibility for the accuracy of such data or the impact of any inaccuracy of such data on the Index.

Transactions or products linked to the Relevant Index may be exposed to more or less risk, or perform better or worse, based upon the inputs received from the above suppliers or sources, than an actual investment in or linked to one or more of the components (and any constituents thereof).

(b) Risks relating to specific Proprietary Indices

Risks that apply to a specific Relevant Index that the Issuer intends to use as Underlying for new Products may be included in this section by way of a supplement pursuant to Article 23 of the EU Prospectus Regulation.

2.6 Risks associated with conflicts of interest of Leonteq AG as Issuer, Lead Manager and Calculation Agent and its subsidiaries and of the discretionary powers of the Issuer and Calculation Agent

(a) Conflicts of interest

(i) Conflicts of interest related to the Underlying(s)

Each of the Issuer, Lead Manager and Calculation Agent and other companies in the Leonteq Group deal in the Underlying(s) or in components of the Underlying(s) or in options or futures contracts relating to the Underlying(s) or components thereof in their normal course of business and from time to time may participate in transactions connected to the Products for their own account or on behalf of others. Companies in the Leonteq Group can also hold interests in individual Underlyings or in the companies contained in these Underlyings, meaning that conflicts of interest can arise in connection with the Products which conflicts could have an impact (including a material adverse impact) on the value of, and return on, the Products.

(ii) Conflicts of interest related to the performance of another function

Leonteq Securities AG (or another company in the Leonteq Group) may, in addition to its capacity as Issuer, exercise another function in relation to the relevant Products or Underlying(s) or components thereof, such as issuing agent, calculation agent, paying agent and/or administrative agent. Therefore, there can be conflicts of interest regarding the duties when determining the prices of the Products and other determinations related thereto among Leonteq Group and the Investors. Furthermore, the Issuer, Lead Manager and Calculation Agent and other companies in the Leonteq Group may act as members of a consortium, financial advisor or sponsor in connection with future offers of the relevant Underlying(s) or components thereof; activities of this kind can also entail conflicts of interest and could have an impact (including a material adverse impact) on the value of, and return on, the Products.

(iii) Conflicts of interest related to the performance of hedging transactions

The Issuer can use parts or all of the proceeds from the sale of the Products for hedging transactions. These hedging transactions can influence the price of the underlyings or the components of the underlying that is determined on the market. Fluctuations in the price of the Underlying(s) and consequently the Products may among other things be attributed to the fact that the Lead Manager (or any of its affiliate(s) or any entity (or entities) acting on behalf of the Lead Manager) conduct significant volumes of hedging or other types of large transactions in or relating to the Underlying(s). Investors should also note in this respect that, especially in unfavourable conditions (e.g., low liquidity of the Underlying(s)), such transactions can have a significant impact on the value of the Underlying(s) and/or of the components contained therein and thus on the price of the Products, the level of any redemption amount as well as – in the case of Products which may stipulate a redemption by way of delivery – on the type of redemption and possibly lead to certain barrier levels stipulated in the terms and conditions being exceeded or fallen short of.

The hedging entity is entitled to suspend or to stop entirely its trading activities in or related to an Underlying. This market conduct of the hedging entity as well as the limitation of its trading or hedging activities in or related to the Underlying(s) could have an impact (including a material adverse impact) on the value of, and return on, the Products.

(iv) Conflicts of interest related to the issuance of additional products

The Issuer and its subsidiaries, the Lead Manager and the Calculation Agent can issue additional products in relation to the Underlying(s) or components of the Underlying(s), including those that have the same or similar features as the Products. The introduction of products that are in competition with the Products can have an impact on the price of the Underlying(s) or components of the Underlying(s) and therefore have an impact on the value of, and return on, the Products.

(v) Conflicts of interest related to information specific to the Underlying(s)

The Issuer and its subsidiaries, the Lead Manager and the Calculation Agent can receive non-public information regarding the underlying or components of the Underlying(s), but are not obliged to pass such information on to the Investors in the Products. Furthermore, the Issuer and its subsidiaries, the Lead Manager and the Calculation Agent can publish research reports on the underlying or components of the underlying. These activities can give rise to specific conflicts of interest and therefore could have an impact (including a material adverse impact) on the value of, and return on, the Products.

(vi) Conflicts of interest related to the determination of the selling price of the Products and commission payments

The selling price of the Products, where appropriate in addition to fixed issue surcharges, management fees, performance fees or other fees, may contain surcharges on the initial mathematical 'fair' value of the Products (the "margin"). This margin will be determined by the Issuer in its reasonable discretion and can differ from surcharges that other issuers impose on comparable Products. This margin covers, among other things, the costs of structuring, market making and settlement of the Products and also includes the expected profit for the Issuer.

The selling price of the Products may contain commission which is charged by the Lead Manager for the issue or which is passed on to distribution partners as payment for distribution services. This may give rise to a difference between the fair value of the Product and the bid and offer prices quoted by any market maker (as described below). Any commission contained in the Products affects the Investor's potential rate of return. Furthermore, conflicts of interest detrimental to the Investor may arise due to payment of such commission to distribution partners, since it could create an incentive for the partner to sell its customers products with higher commission. Therefore, Investors should consult with their principal bank or financial advisor about such conflicts of interest.

(vii) Conflicts of interest related to market making for the Products

Under normal market conditions the Lead Manager or, if applicable, a third party (the "Market Maker") may quote bid and offer prices for each issue of Products. However, no legal obligations are assumed with respect to the amount or the realisation of such quotations. Investors should note that it may not be possible to sell the Products during their term at a particular point in time or at a particular price.

Furthermore, bid and offer prices for the Products quoted by the Market Maker (if any) will be calculated on the basis of customary pricing models for the sector that are used by the Market Maker and other traders and which determine the theoretical value of the Products by taking into account various factors influencing prices.

Such circumstances on which the Market Maker bases its determination of the bid and offer prices on the secondary market include, in particular, the theoretical value of the Products, which among other things depends on the value of the underlying and the spread between bid and offer prices desired by the Market Maker. In addition, an issue surcharge that is originally imposed on the Products and any fees or costs that are deducted from the redemption amount at maturity, such as commission, administrative fees, transaction costs or comparable costs, will generally be considered. Furthermore, the margin contained in the selling price of the Products, for example, has an impact on pricing in the secondary market or other returns, such as paid or expected dividends or any other returns on the Underlying or its components if the Issuer is entitled to these due to the features of the Products.

Certain costs such as any administrative fees charged are often during pricing not spread equally over the term of the Products (pro rata temporis), thereby reducing the price, but instead are deducted in full from the theoretical value of the Products at an earlier point in time determined at the discretion of the Market Maker. The same applies for the margin, if any, contained in the selling price of the Products as well as for dividends and other returns on the underlying if the Issuer is entitled to these due to the features of the Products. These are often not only deducted from the price when the underlying or its components are traded 'ex dividend', but are deducted at an earlier point during the term on the basis of the expected dividends for the whole term or a particular period. The speed of the deduction depends among other things on the amount of any net return flow from the Products to the Market Maker. The prices quoted by the Market Maker can therefore deviate considerably from the theoretical value or value of the Products to be expected based on the above mentioned factors at the relevant point in time. Furthermore, the Market Maker can change the methodology by which the prices are determined at any time, e.g., by increasing or decreasing the spread. The result of such deviation from the theoretical value of the Products can be that bid and offer prices quoted by other traders for the Products deviate significantly (both upwards and downwards) from the prices quoted by the Market Maker.

Potential conflicts of interest may arise in relation to the Issuer's multiple roles in connection with a Proprietary Index. Although the Issuer will perform its obligations in a manner that it considers commercially reasonable, it may face conflicts between the roles it performs in respect of a Proprietary Index and its own interests. In particular, the Issuer (or an affiliate) may have, or enter into transactions to create, a physical, economic or other interest (including an adverse and/or short interest, as the case may be) in a Relevant Index, products linked thereto, any component of a Relevant Index, any input data and/or investments referenced by or linked to any component or input data, and may exercise remedies or take other action with respect to its interests as it deems appropriate. These actions could adversely affect the level of the Relevant Index and may include the following:

- (A) The Issuer (or an affiliate) actively trades (or may actually trade) products linked to each Relevant Index, any component or input data thereof, investments referenced by or linked to a component or input data and numerous related investments. These activities could adversely affect the level of the Relevant Index, which could in turn affect the return on, and the value of, Products linked to a Proprietary Index.
- (B) The Issuer (or an affiliate) may have access to information relating to a Relevant Index, products linked thereto, a component or input data of a Relevant Index or investments referenced by or linked to a component or input data. The Issuer is not obliged to use that information for the benefit of any person acquiring or entering into Products linked to a Proprietary Index.
- (C) Certain activities conducted by the Issuer (or an affiliate) may conflict with the interests of those acquiring Products linked to a Proprietary Index. It is possible that the Issuer could receive substantial returns in respect of these activities while the value of any investment referenced to such Proprietary Index may decline. For example:
 - (1) The Issuer and other parties may issue or underwrite additional securities or trade other financial or derivative instruments or investments referenced to a Relevant Index or other similar strategies or any component. An increased level of investment and trading in these securities, instruments or investments may negatively affect the performance of a Relevant Index and could affect the level of a Relevant Index and, therefore, the amount payable at maturity (or on any other payment date) on Products linked to a Proprietary Index and the value before maturity of such Products. Such securities, instruments or investments may also compete with Products linked to a Proprietary Index. By introducing competing products into the marketplace in this manner, the Issuer could adversely affect the market value of Products linked to a Proprietary Index and the amount paid by it on such Securities at maturity (or on any other payment date). To the extent that the Issuer serves as issuer, agent, underwriter or counterparty in respect of those securities or other similar instruments or investments, its interests in respect of those securities, instruments or investments may be adverse to the interests of investors of Products linked to a Proprietary Index.

- (2) Although the Issuer is not obliged to do so, it may elect to hedge its exposure to the Relevant Index, any transactions or products linked thereto, a component or any investment referenced by or linked to a component with an affiliate or a third party. That affiliate or third party, in turn, is likely to directly or indirectly hedge some or all of its exposure, including through transactions taking place on the futures and options markets. Where the Issuer chooses to hedge its exposure, it may adjust or unwind such hedges by entering into, purchasing or selling transactions or products linked to the Relevant Index, a component, any investments referenced by or linked to a component or any other transaction or product on or before the date the Relevant Index is valued for purposes of any investments referenced to the Relevant Index. The Issuer may also enter into, adjust or unwind hedging transactions relating to other instruments linked to the Relevant Index or a component including at times and/or levels which are different from those used to determine the value of the Relevant Index. Any of this hedging activity may adversely affect the value of the Relevant Index and the value of any transactions or products linked to the Relevant Index. In addition, and without limitation:
- (a) The Issuer could receive substantial returns with respect to these hedging activities while the value of the Relevant Index and/or the value of any transaction or product linked to the Relevant Index may decline.
 - (b) If the Issuer has hedged its exposure to a component and incurs an effective rate of withholding tax that is less than the synthetic transaction costs applied in respect of the Relevant Index, the Issuer could receive substantial returns.
 - (c) The Issuer could receive substantial returns if it trades in a component on or before the rebalancing of the Relevant Index and/or at levels which are different from the levels specified in the methodology for determining the value of the Relevant Index. Such trading may have an adverse impact on the level at which a rebalancing occurs, which may result in an adverse impact on the performance of the Relevant Index. In addition, such trading could generate significant returns to the Issuer that will not be passed on to the investors in transactions or products linked to the Relevant Index.

- (3) Certain activities conducted by the Issuer may conflict with the interests of those investing in transactions or acquiring products linked to the Relevant Index. For example, as described above, the Issuer may elect to hedge its obligations, if any, with an affiliate or a third party. It is possible that the Issuer could receive substantial returns with respect to these activities irrespective of the performance of the Relevant Index and including while the value of any investment referenced to the Relevant Index may decline.
- (4) The Issuer may also engage in trading for its own accounts, for other accounts under its management or to facilitate transactions, including block transactions, on behalf of customers relating to one or more transactions or products linked to the Relevant Index, a component or any constituent thereof and/or any investment referenced by or linked to a component or any constituent thereof. In the course of these transactions, the Issuer's customers may receive information about the Relevant Index before it is made available to other investors. Any of these activities could also adversely affect the value of the Relevant Index directly or indirectly by affecting the level of a component or any constituent thereof or the investments referenced by or linked to a component or any constituent thereof and, therefore, the market value of any transactions or products linked to the Relevant Index and the amount paid on any such transaction or product at maturity.
- (D) As operator or sponsor of the Relevant Index, under certain circumstances the Issuer will have discretion in making various determinations that affect the Relevant Index and transactions or products linked to it including, but not limited to, those situations described in the relevant Index Rules. The Issuer may use these determinations to calculate how much cash it must pay at maturity, or, as the case may be, upon any early redemption or on any other payment date, of any transaction or product linked to the Relevant Index, including products issued by the Issuer or its affiliates and subsidiaries. The exercise by the Issuer of this discretion could adversely affect the value of the Relevant Index and the value of any such transaction or product linked to it. It is possible that the exercise by the index sponsor of its discretion to change the relevant Index methodology may result in substantial returns in respect of the Issuer's trading activities for its proprietary accounts, for other accounts under its management or to facilitate transactions on behalf of customers relating to one or more transactions or products linked to the Relevant Index, and/or the components thereof or any investment referenced by or linked to such components.
- (E) As operator or sponsor of one or more components, the Issuer or its affiliates and subsidiaries may be entitled to exercise discretion over decisions that would have an adverse impact on the value of the Index, including, without limitation, discontinuing publication of the level of one or more components. The Issuer or its affiliates and subsidiaries will exercise any such discretion without regard to the Relevant Index or investors in any transactions or products linked thereto.
- (F) The Issuer may in the future create and publish other indices or strategies, the concepts of which are similar, or identical, to that of the Relevant Index or one or more of the components. The components as specified in the relevant Index Rules, however, are the only components that will be used for the calculation of the Relevant Index. Accordingly, no other published indices should be treated by any investor as the level of any component (except as the index sponsor or the index calculation agent may so determine, as described above).
- (G) The Issuer may express opinions or provide recommendations (for example, with respect to a component) that are inconsistent with investing in transactions or products linked to the Index, and which may be revised at any time. Any such opinions or recommendations may or may not recommend that investors buy or hold the relevant component and could affect the value and or performance of the Relevant Index or of transactions or products linked to the Relevant Index.

- (H) The Issuer may have ownership interests in sponsors of components and as such may be able to influence the methodology and other features of such components. In addition, the Issuer or its affiliates and subsidiaries may provide pricing or other data that is directly used in the calculation of the level of components (or the components thereof). The activities of the Issuer or its affiliates and subsidiaries as contributor to any components may be adverse to the interests of investors and/or counterparties to transactions or products linked to any such components and may have an impact on the performance of such components.
- (I) The Issuer is the index calculation agent and may have ownership interests in any other calculation agent with respect to the Relevant Index or any component and any third party data providers with respect to the Relevant Index or any component and as such may be able to influence the determinations of the index calculation agent or other calculation agent. In addition, the Issuer and its affiliates and subsidiaries may provide pricing or other data that is directly used in the calculation of the level and/or components of the Relevant Index. The activities of the Issuer and its affiliates and subsidiaries as contributor to the Relevant Index may be adverse to the interests of investors and/or counterparties to transactions or products linked to the Relevant Index and may have an impact on the performance of the Relevant Index.

(b) Discretionary powers of the Issuer and the Calculation Agent, including in relation to the Issuer's hedging arrangements

There are certain events – relating to the Issuer, the Issuer's hedging arrangements, the Underlying(s), taxation, the relevant currency or other matters – the occurrence of which may give rise to discretionary powers of the Issuer or the Calculation Agent under the terms and conditions of the Products.

In relation to the Underlying(s), a key investment objective of the Products is to allow investors to gain an economic exposure to the Underlying(s). If an Underlying is materially impacted by an unexpected event (for example, a company merges and the original stock that formed an Underlying is restructured or changed, or the rules of an index that is an Underlying are materially modified) or the relevant price, level or value can no longer be calculated, then it may not be possible to achieve the investment objective of the Products based on their original terms. In that case, the Calculation Agent may have discretionary powers under the terms and conditions of the Products to (i) adjust the terms and conditions of the Products, (ii) in certain cases, substitute the Underlying(s) for another, (iii) calculate the relevant price, level or value itself, (iv) postpone payment, (v) redeem the Products early, or (vi) apply some combination thereof.

In relation to the Issuer or the Calculation Agent's hedging arrangements, Investors should be aware that (i) in exercising its discretionary powers under the terms and conditions of the Products, each of the Issuer and the Calculation Agent may take into account such factors as it determines appropriate in each case, which may include, in particular, any circumstances or events which have or may have a material impact on the Issuer or the Calculation Agent's hedging arrangements in respect of the Products, and (ii) unless the terms and conditions of the Products provide that certain hedge disruption events do not apply, certain events which affect the Issuer's hedging arrangements can give rise to discretionary powers on the part of the Issuer and the Calculation Agent.

Hedging arrangements are the transactions (if any) entered into by the Issuer or Calculation Agent to seek to cover the Issuer's exposure to the relevant cash amounts to be paid or assets to be delivered under the Products as these fall due. This may involve investing directly in the Underlying(s) or entering into derivative contracts referencing the Underlying(s) or other techniques. The particular hedging arrangements (if any) undertaken by the Issuer or the Calculation Agent, and their cost, will likely be a significant determinant of the issue price and/or economic terms of the Products. Accordingly, if an event occurs which negatively impacts the Issuer or Calculation Agent's hedging arrangements, the Issuer or the Calculation Agent may have options available to it under the terms and conditions of the Products which it may select in its discretion in order to deal with the impact of the event on such hedging arrangements. These options may include adjustment of the terms and conditions of the Products or early redemption of the Products. In the event of early redemption, the early redemption amount may be less than an Investor's investment and, therefore, Investors could lose some or all of their money.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. Introduction

The following text comprises the general terms and conditions of the Products (the "General Conditions") that, together with the applicable Payout Conditions, the relevant Underlying Specific Conditions and subject to election and completion (and, in the case of Exempt Products, if applicable, amendment) in the Issue Terms (as defined below) (together, the "Conditions"), shall be applicable to each Series.

The "Issue Terms" mean either (a) where the Products relate to a tranche that are not Exempt Products, the issue specific details will be set out in a final terms document (the "Final Terms") or (b) where the Products relate to a tranche of Products that are neither admitted to trading on a regulated market in the European Economic Area nor offered in the European Economic Area in circumstances where a prospectus is required under the EU Prospectus Regulation (or will be of (or in respect of which a separate prospectus other than the base prospectus under the Programme will be published under the EU Prospectus Regulation)) ("Exempt Products"), the issue specific details will be set out in a pricing supplement document (the "Pricing Supplement") which may specify other terms and conditions which shall, to the extent so specified or to the extent inconsistent with these General Conditions and/or the applicable Payout Conditions and/or the relevant Underlying Specific Conditions, replace or modify such conditions for the purposes of such Exempt Products, and references to Issue Terms should be construed accordingly.

All capitalised terms that are not defined in these General Conditions have the meanings given to them in the applicable Payout Conditions, the relevant Underlying Specific Conditions or the Issue Terms.

References in these General Conditions to 'Products' are to the Products of one Series only, not to all Products that may be issued pursuant to the European issuance and offering programme established by the Issuer (the "Programme").

The Products are issued as a Series of notes ("Notes") or certificates ("Certificates") by the Issuer and references to 'Products' shall be construed as a reference to each Series accordingly. Certain Products which are in the form of Certificates may be entitled "Warrants" pursuant to the Payout Conditions.

Unless specified otherwise in the relevant Issue Terms, in respect of SIX SIS Securities, the Issuer, acting through its head office, will act as the paying agent (the "Paying Agent"), subject as provided in General Condition 11.1 (Appointment of Agents).

In respect of TCM Secured Products, the collateral agent (the "Collateral Agent") will be SIX Repo AG and the custodian (the "Custodian") shall be SIX SIS AG.

In respect of Euroclear/Clearstream Securities, the Notes, Warrants and the Certificates are issued pursuant to an agency agreement, dated 11 May 2021 as amended or replaced from time to time as amended or replaced from time to time (the "Agency Agreement", which expression shall include any amendments or supplements thereto or replacements thereof under the Programme from time to time) between the Issuer, Citibank Europe plc, as principal programme agent and paying agent in respect of the Products (the "Principal Programme Agent" and the "Paying Agent", which expression shall include any successor or additional agents appointed in accordance with the Agency Agreement) and Leonteq Securities AG or such other calculation agent as may be specified in the relevant Issue Terms as calculation agent (the "Calculation Agent", which expression shall include any successor calculation agent appointed in accordance with the Agency Agreement).

Deed of Covenant: The Products other than Swiss Securities, Euroclear Sweden Securities, Monte Titoli Registered Instruments and any other Products under the Programme which may be issued without the benefit of the Agency Agreement are constituted by and have the benefit of a deed of covenant dated 11 May 2021 as amended or replaced from time to time (the "Deed of Covenant", which expression shall include any amendments or supplements thereto or replacements thereof under the Programme from time to time) made by the Issuer.

The Calculation Agent (the "Calculation Agent") in respect of the Products shall be Leonteq Securities AG, Europaallee 39, 8004 Zurich, Switzerland, unless otherwise specified in the relevant Issue Terms.

Each Series may be issued in tranches (each a "Tranche") on the same or different Issue Dates. The specific terms of each Tranche will be identical to the terms of other Tranches of the same Series (save in respect of specific terms outlined in the Issue Terms, such as the Issue Date, Issue Price, first payment of interest, if applicable, and Issue Size of the Tranche) and will be set out in the Issue Terms.

Unless otherwise expressly indicated, capitalised terms used in these Conditions which are defined in General Condition 22 (Definitions and Interpretation) have the meanings given in General Condition 22 (Definitions and Interpretation).

2. Form, Title and Transfer

2.1 Form of Products

(a) Form of SIX SIS Securities

SIX SIS Securities ("SIX SIS Securities") are Products specified as such in the Issue Terms and which are issued in uncertificated form in accordance with article 973c of the Swiss Code of Obligations (Obligationenrecht) ("CO") or in the form of a permanent global certificate in accordance with article 973b of the CO.

The Investors of SIX SIS Securities issued in uncertificated form shall at no time have the right to demand the conversion of uncertificated securities into, or the delivery of, a permanent global certificate or physical securities. By contrast, the Paying Agent shall have the right to effect the conversion of the uncertificated securities into a permanent global certificate in accordance with article 973b of the CO or physical securities (Wertpapiere) and vice versa. Neither the Issuer nor the Investors of SIX SIS Securities issued in the form of a permanent global certificate shall at any time have the right to effect or demand the conversion of the permanent global certificate into, or the delivery of, uncertificated securities or physical securities. By contrast, the Paying Agent shall have the right to effect the conversion of the permanent global certificate into physical securities if it determines this to be necessary or useful. Physical securities may be printed in whole but not in part.

By (i) registering uncertificated securities in the main register (Hauptregister) of SIX SIS Ltd, Olten, Switzerland or any other Swiss central depository ("SIS") or by depositing a permanent global certificate with SIS and (ii) crediting the respective SIX SIS Securities to a securities account (Effektenkonto) of an account holder with SIS, intermediated securities (Bucheffekten) ("Intermediated Securities") pursuant to the Swiss Federal Intermediated Securities Act (Bucheffektengesetz) of 3 October 2008 ("FISA") are created. Intermediated Securities may only be transferred by way of crediting the respective SIX SIS Securities to, and debiting the respective SIX SIS Securities from, a securities account (Effektenkonto) held with a custodian pursuant to the rules of the FISA.

(b) Form of Euroclear/Clearstream Securities

Euroclear/Clearstream Securities ("Euroclear/Clearstream Securities") are Products specified as such in the Issue Terms and will be issued in bearer form. Euroclear/Clearstream Securities will initially be issued in global form (the "Global Euroclear/Clearstream Securities"), and may only be exchanged for securities in definitive form (the "Definitive Euroclear/Clearstream Securities") upon an Exchange Event occurring, and in each case in accordance with the terms of the relevant Global Euroclear/Clearstream Security. For the avoidance of doubt, no Investor will be entitled to request its Euroclear/Clearstream Securities to be exchanged for securities in definitive form for any reason other than on the occurrence of an Exchange Event.

In the event that the applicable Issue Terms specify Monte Titoli as the Relevant Clearing System, the Products are issued in bearer dematerialized book-entry form and no physical document of title will be issued to represent the Product, such as definitive securities.

The Global Euroclear/Clearstream Security may be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Series or Tranche to a Common Depository for the Relevant Clearing System. The Relevant Clearing System will then credit each subscriber with an aggregate nominal amount or aggregate number, as applicable, of the Global Euroclear/Clearstream Security equal to the nominal amount or number thereof for which it has subscribed and paid.

Upon the occurrence of an Exchange Event on or after its Exchange Date each Global Euroclear/Clearstream Security will be exchangeable, in whole but not in part, free of charge, for Definitive Euroclear/Clearstream Securities.

An exchange of Global Euroclear/Clearstream Securities for Definitive Euroclear/Clearstream Securities shall only be made upon receipt by the Issuer of a certificate or certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

On or after any due date for exchange, the holder of a Global Euroclear/Clearstream Security may surrender it or, in the case of a partial exchange, present it for endorsement to or to the order of the Paying Agent and in exchange the Issuer will deliver, or procure the delivery of, an equal aggregate nominal amount or aggregate number, as applicable, of duly executed and authenticated Definitive Euroclear/Clearstream Securities.

(c) Form of Euroclear Sweden Securities

Euroclear Sweden Securities ("Euroclear Sweden Securities") are Products specified as such in the Issue Terms and will be issued in registered, uncertificated and dematerialised book-entry form in accordance with the SCSDFIA Act and Regulation (EU) 909/2014. Euroclear Sweden Securities of one Specified Denomination may not be exchanged for Euroclear Sweden Securities of another Specified Denomination.

The Euroclear Sweden Securities shall be regarded as Registered Securities for the purposes of these General Conditions save to the extent these General Conditions are inconsistent with the Relevant Rules. No physical notes or certificates will be issued in respect of the Euroclear Sweden Securities and the provisions in these General Conditions relating to presentation, surrendering or replacement of such physical notes or certificates shall not apply to the Euroclear Sweden Securities.

Euroclear Sweden Securities shall be in the form of Notes only.

2.2 Denomination and Number

(a) Notes

The Issue Terms in respect of Products that are Notes will specify the Specified Denomination in which such Products are issued, the Issue Size, the Issue Price, the Settlement Currency and the Calculation Amount.

(b) Certificates

The Issue Terms in respect of Products that are Certificates will specify the Settlement Currency of such Products, the Issue Price per Product, the Calculation Amount and either (a) the number of Products being issued (in which case the Certificates are "Unit Certificates") or (b) the Notional Amount per Product and the Issue Size (in which case the Certificates are "Notional Certificates"). All Certificates of a Series shall have the same Calculation Amount.

2.3 Title

(a) Title to SIX SIS Securities

In respect of SIX SIS Securities which constitute Intermediated Securities, the holder and legal owner of such SIX SIS Securities will be the person holding them in a securities account in their own name and for their own account with their depositary (Verwahrungsstelle) in accordance with the terms of the FISA (and, in respect of SIX SIS Securities, the expression "Investor" as used herein shall be construed accordingly). The records of such depositary determine the number of SIX SIS Securities held by such Investor and the FISA grants each Investor the right to ask the depositary for information about Intermediated Securities that are credited to their account.

In respect of SIX SIS Securities which are issued in the form of uncertificated securities, but do not constitute Intermediated Securities, the first holder and legal owner of such SIX SIS Securities will be the person registered as holder in the register of uncertificated securities and "Investor" shall be construed accordingly. In respect of SIX SIS Securities in the form of uncertificated securities converted to certificated securities by the Issuer issuing physical securities which are not Intermediated Securities, the holder and legal owner of such SIX SIS Securities will be the person(s) holding the physical securities (and the expression "Investor" as used herein shall be construed accordingly).

In respect of SIX SIS Securities which are issued in the form of a permanent global certificate, but do not constitute Intermediated Securities, each Investor shall have a proportionate co-ownership interest (Miteigentumsanteil) in the permanent global certificate to the extent of such Investor's claim against the Issuer, provided that for so long as the permanent global certificate remains deposited with SIS the co-ownership interest shall be suspended and the respective SIX SIS Securities may solely be transferred and otherwise disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the FISA.

(b) Title to Euroclear/Clearstream Securities

Title to Euroclear/Clearstream Securities passes by delivery.

The Issuer and the Paying Agent shall (except as otherwise required by law or ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction) deem and treat the Investor (as defined below) of any Euroclear/Clearstream Security as its absolute owner for all purposes (whether or not such Product is overdue and regardless of any notice of ownership, trust or any interest in it, any writing on it (or on the Global Euroclear/Clearstream Security representing it) or its theft or loss) and no person shall be liable for so treating the Investor.

In respect of Euroclear/Clearstream Securities, "Investor" means the bearer of any Euroclear/Clearstream Security, except that, in respect of any Global Euroclear/Clearstream Securities, the person appearing as the accountholder for the Relevant Clearing System (the "Accountholder") shall be treated as the Investor for all purposes other than with respect to the payment or delivery of any amount due under the Products (for which purpose the Common Depository shall be treated by the Issuer and the Paying Agent as the relevant Investor).

(c) Title to Euroclear Sweden Securities

The Relevant Clearing System in respect of Euroclear Sweden Securities shall be Euroclear Sweden, and the person for the time being shown in the Euroclear Sweden Register shall be treated for all purposes by the Issuer, the Paying Agent(s), Euroclear Sweden and all other persons dealing with such person as the holder thereof (and, in respect of Euroclear Sweden Securities, the expression "Investor" as used herein shall be construed accordingly) and as the person entitled to exercise the rights represented thereby notwithstanding any notice to the contrary.

Title to the Euroclear Sweden Securities shall pass by registration in the register (the "Euroclear Sweden Register") maintained by Euroclear Sweden on behalf of the Issuer in accordance with the Relevant Rules. The Issuer shall be entitled to obtain information from Euroclear Sweden in accordance with the Relevant Rules, and the Investors of Euroclear Sweden Securities accept and consent to the Issuer being entitled to obtain from Euroclear Sweden, extracts from the book-entry registers of Euroclear Sweden relating to the Euroclear Sweden Securities. Except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as required by law, the Euroclear Sweden Investor of any Products shall be deemed to be and may be treated as its absolute owner for all purposes, whether or not it is overdue and regardless of any notice of ownership, trust or an interest in it and no person shall be liable for so treating the Investor.

One or more Euroclear Sweden Securities may be transferred in accordance with the Relevant Rules. In the case of an exercise of option resulting in Euroclear Sweden Securities of the same holding having different terms, separate notes registered with the Euroclear Sweden Register shall be issued in respect of those Euroclear Sweden Securities of that holding having the same terms. Such Euroclear Sweden Securities shall only be issued against surrender of the existing Euroclear Sweden Securities in accordance with the Relevant Rules. Each new Product to be issued pursuant to the above, shall be available for delivery within three business days of receipt of the request and the surrender of the Euroclear Sweden Securities for exchange. Delivery of the new Euroclear Sweden Securities shall be made to the same Euroclear Sweden account on which the original Euroclear Sweden Securities were registered. In this General Condition 2.3, "business day" means a Clearing System Business Day in respect of Euroclear Sweden.

Exchange and transfer of Euroclear Sweden Securities on registration, transfer, partial redemption or exercise of an option shall be effected without charge by or on behalf of the Issuer or the relevant Paying Agent, but upon payment of any tax or other governmental charges that may be imposed in relation to it (or the giving of such indemnity as the relevant Paying Agent may require). No Investor may require the transfer of a Euroclear Sweden Security to be registered during any closed period pursuant to the then applicable Relevant Rules.

Exchange and transfer of Euroclear Sweden Securities on partial redemption shall be processed in Euroclear Sweden's clearing system, so that the aggregate nominal amount is reduced by the Partial Redemption Amount(s).

(d) Title to Products in respect of which the Relevant Clearing system is Monte Titoli

In the event that the applicable Issue Terms specify Monte Titoli as the Relevant Clearing System, the Products may be held only through an authorised intermediary entitled to hold securities deposit accounts with the Monte Titoli on behalf of their customers.

2.4 Transfers

(a) Transfers of Cleared Products

(i) Cleared Products (other than SIX SIS Securities)

Subject to General Condition 2.4(c) (Minimum Tradable Lot) below, transfers of Products which are held in a Relevant Clearing System may be effected only through the Relevant Clearing System in which the Products to be transferred are held and only in accordance with the Relevant Rules.

Title will pass upon registration of the transfer in the books of Euroclear, Clearstream, Euroclear Sweden or Registeror Monte Titoli, as applicable.

(ii) Transfers of SIX SIS Securities

SIX SIS Securities constituting Intermediated Securities may solely be transferred and otherwise disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the FISA, being transferred and disposed of by instruction of the Investor to their depositary to transfer the Intermediated Securities, as the case may be, and crediting the Intermediated Securities, as the case may be, to the account of the transferee's depositary.

(b) Transfers of non-Cleared Products

Euroclear/Clearstream Securities which are not Cleared Products will be transferred by delivery.

(c) Minimum Tradable Lot

Transactions in the Products may, if specified in the Issue Terms, be subject to a Minimum Tradable Lot, in which case such Products will be transferable only in a nominal amount, in the case of Notes and Notional Certificates, or in a number, in the case of Unit Certificates, of not less than such Minimum Tradable Lot and, in the case of Cleared Products, in accordance with the Relevant Rules.

3. Status

3.1 Status of the Products

The Products (other than the TCM Secured Products) constitute direct, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer and rank equally among themselves. The payment obligations of the Issuer under the Products will rank equally with all other present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer (except for such obligations as may be preferred by provisions of law that are both mandatory and of general application and except for TCM Secured, which constitute secured obligations). The TCM Secured Products shall rank equally among themselves and, save for such exceptions as may be provided by applicable law, shall rank pari passu with all other collateralised and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer. The Products do not evidence deposits of the Issuer. The Products are not insured or guaranteed by any government or government agency.

For these purposes, "Sub-Unit" means a fraction of the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency. If the date on which any amount is payable is not (i) a Business Day and (ii) in the case of Definitive Euroclear/Clearstream Securities only, a day other than a Saturday or Sunday on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the relevant place of presentation, then payment will not be made until the next succeeding day which is (A) a Business Day and (B) in the case of Definitive Euroclear/Clearstream Securities only, also a day other than a Saturday or Sunday on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealing in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the relevant place of presentation, and the Investor thereof shall not be entitled to any further payment in respect of such delay.

6. Redemption and Settlement

6.1 Redemption

(a) Partial Redemption

Unless previously redeemed, purchased and/or cancelled, each Product in respect of which 'Partial Redemption' is specified to be 'Applicable' in the Issue Terms (each such Product, a "Partial Redemption Product") shall be partially redeemed on each Partial Redemption Date upon payment by or on behalf of the Issuer of an amount equal to the Partial Redemption Amount corresponding to such Partial Redemption Date. The Calculation Amount of each such Product shall be reduced by the Partial Redemption Amount(s) for all purposes with effect from the relevant Partial Redemption Date, unless payment of the relevant Partial Redemption Amount is improperly withheld or refused, in which case, such amount shall remain outstanding until the date determined in accordance with General Condition 13 (Prescription). In the case of Notes, the Issue Size of the relevant Series shall reduce accordingly and in the case of Certificates (if applicable) the Notional Amount per Product shall reduce accordingly.

(b) Redemption on the Redemption Date

Unless previously redeemed, purchased and/or cancelled, each Product shall be redeemed in full by the Issuer on the Redemption Date at its Redemption Amount, or, if applicable, by delivery of the Entitlement on the Delivery Date (in accordance with General Condition 6.2) and the payment of any Residual Cash Amount.

Each Unit Certificate shall be automatically exercised on the day prior to final redemption on the Redemption Date.

6.2 Settlement by Delivery of the Entitlement

(a) Delivery of Entitlement

The following provisions apply to the delivery of all Entitlements in respect of Products:

- (i) The Issuer shall, subject to this General Condition 6 (Redemption and Settlement), General Condition 4 (Calculations and Publication) and General Condition 5 (Payments and Deliveries), on any relevant Delivery Date, deliver (or procure delivery on its behalf) the relevant Entitlement in respect of each Product to such account in respect of Cleared Products in the Relevant Clearing System in accordance with the Relevant Rules and, in respect of all other Products, such account as may be notified by the relevant Investor to the Issuer in the relevant Delivery Entitlement Instruction at the risk and expense of the relevant Investor. If an Investor does not provide the Issuer with sufficient instructions in a timely manner to enable the Issuer (directly or acting through such person (including any of its Affiliates or the Paying Agent) as it may procure) and/or the Relevant Clearing System, if applicable, to effect any required delivery of the Entitlement, the due date for such delivery shall be postponed accordingly. The Issuer and the Relevant Clearing System, if applicable, shall determine whether any instructions received by it are sufficient and whether they have been received in time to enable delivery on any given date. As used in this General Condition 6.2, "delivery" means, in relation to any Entitlement, the carrying out of the steps required of the Issuer (or such person (including any of its Affiliates or the Paying Agent) as it may procure to make the relevant delivery on its behalf) in order to effect the transfer of the relevant Entitlement and "deliver", "delivered" and "deliverable" shall be construed accordingly. The Issuer (or such person (including any of its Affiliates or the Paying Agent) as it may procure to make the relevant delivery on its behalf) shall not be responsible for any delay or failure in the delivery of any Entitlement once such steps have been carried out, whether resulting from settlement periods of clearing systems, acts or omissions of registrars or otherwise and neither the Issuer (or such person (including any of its Affiliates or the Paying Agent) as it may procure to make the relevant delivery on its behalf).

- (ii) No Investor will be entitled to receive dividends declared or paid in respect of any Underlying or to any other rights relating to or arising out of any such component of the Entitlement if the record date for the relevant dividend or relevant right in respect of such components and Entitlement falls before the relevant Delivery Date.
 - (iii) Delivery of any Entitlement shall be subject to the condition to settlement in General Condition 5.6 (Taxes, Settlement Expenses and conditions to settlement).
 - (iv) The Issuer will endeavour to deliver (or procure delivery on its behalf) the relevant Entitlement to the Investor on the relevant Delivery Date. In the event that an Investor requests that delivery of the Entitlement be made at a location or in a method that is different from that specified in the Conditions, the Issuer may (but is not obliged to) seek to deliver the Entitlement to such location and/or by such method, provided that no additional unreimbursed costs are incurred. The Issuer shall, subject as provided below, on the relevant Delivery Date, deliver (or procure delivery on its behalf) the Transfer Documentation relating to the Entitlement (or, in the case of an Underlying that is an equity unit, the Transfer Documentation in respect of such equity unit) to or to the order of the Investor or to such bank or broker as the Investor has specified in the relevant Delivery Entitlement Instruction.
 - (v) All Entitlements will be delivered at the risk of the relevant Investor.
- (b) Settlement Disruption Event

If, in the opinion of the Calculation Agent, delivery of an Entitlement or any portion thereof is (or is likely to become) impossible or impracticable by reason of a Settlement Disruption Event having occurred and continuing on the relevant Delivery Date (the assets constituting such Entitlement or portions thereof (the "Affected Assets")), then such Delivery Date shall be postponed to the first following Relevant Settlement Day in respect of which there is no such Settlement Disruption Event, provided that:

- (i) the Issuer shall attempt to deliver (or procure delivery on its behalf) any portion of the Entitlement which does not comprise Affected Assets on the originally designated Delivery Date;
- (ii) the Issuer may elect to satisfy its obligations in respect of the relevant Product by delivering (or procuring delivery on its behalf) some or all of the Affected Assets in such manner as it may determine and in such event the relevant Delivery Date shall be such day as the Issuer deems appropriate in connection with delivery of the Entitlement in such other commercially reasonable manner; and
- (iii) in respect of any Affected Assets, in lieu of settlement by delivery of the Entitlement and notwithstanding any other provision hereof, the Issuer may elect to satisfy its obligations in respect of the relevant Product by payment by the Issuer (or any person (including any of its Affiliates or the Paying Agent) as it may procure to make the relevant payment on its behalf) to the relevant Investor of the Settlement Disruption Amount on the Settlement Disruption Date.

The Calculation Agent shall give notice as soon as practicable to the Investors that a Settlement Disruption Event has occurred and payment of the Settlement Disruption Amount will be made, subject to this General Condition 6 (Redemption and Settlement), General Condition 4 (Calculations and Publication) and General Condition 5 (Payments and Deliveries), in such manner as shall be notified. No Investor shall be entitled to any additional amount in the event of any delay in the delivery of the Entitlement or payment of the Settlement Disruption Amount due to the occurrence of a Settlement Disruption Event. No liability in respect thereof shall attach to the Issuer, any person (including any of its Affiliates or the Paying Agent) as it may procure to make the relevant delivery on its behalf, and/or the Calculation Agent.

(c) Liability

Redemption of the Products, payments by the Issuer (or such person (including any of its Affiliates) as it may procure to make the relevant payments on its behalf) and the Paying Agent and any delivery of an Entitlement, in whole or in part, by or on behalf of the Issuer and/or the Paying Agent will be subject in all cases to all applicable fiscal and other laws, regulations and practices in force at such time (including, without limitation, any relevant exchange control laws or regulations and the Relevant Rules) and none of the Issuer, any of its Affiliates, the Relevant Clearing System or the Paying Agent shall incur any liability whatsoever if it is unable to effect any payments or deliveries contemplated, after using all reasonable efforts, as a result of any such laws, regulations and practices. None of the Issuer, any of its Affiliates or the Paying Agent shall under any circumstances be liable for any acts or defaults of the Relevant Clearing System in the performance of their respective duties in relation to the Products or, in relation to the delivery of the Entitlement, the acts or defaults of any relevant Exchange (as defined in the relevant Underlying Specific Conditions).

6.3 Postponement of payments and settlement

If the determination of a price or level used to calculate any amount payable or Entitlement deliverable on any Payment Date or Delivery Date is delayed or postponed pursuant to the Conditions, payment or settlement will occur on the later of (a) the scheduled Payment Date or Delivery Date as applicable, or (b) the Specified Number of Business Days following the latest Underlying Valuation Date (or such other date on which the determination of a price or level used to calculate the amount payable or Entitlement deliverable on the relevant Payment Date or Delivery Date is required) to occur, as the case may be. No additional amounts shall be payable or Entitlement deliverable by the Issuer because of such postponement.

7. FX Disruption Event or a CNY FX Disruption Event

7.1 FX Disruption Event

If the Issue Terms specifies 'FX Disruption Event' to be 'Applicable', upon the occurrence of an FX Disruption Event, the Issuer may take any one or more of the following actions:

- (a) deduct from any payments to be made in respect of the Products an amount calculated by the Calculation Agent as representing a cost, expense, charge and/or deduction arising in connection with such FX Disruption Event or under any other adjustment with respect thereto; and/or
- (b) make payment of any amount payable by the Issuer pursuant to the Conditions in the Specified Currency instead of the Settlement Currency, the amount payable in the Specified Currency being determined by the Calculation Agent; and/or
- (c) postpone or adjust any Underlying Valuation Date or the relevant Payment Date for any amount payable by the Issuer pursuant to the Conditions until, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, an FX Disruption Event is no longer subsisting; and/or
- (d) (in the case of a Price Source Disruption) specify and adopt:
 - (i) an appropriate alternative fallback or alternative price or rate source or method of determination selected by the Calculation Agent (which may (or may not) be by reference to a Dealer Poll or such other publication page or service as may replace the relevant page or service for the purpose of displaying a foreign exchange rate comparable or equivalent); or
 - (ii) a replacement of any one or more relevant currencies, as the case may be; and/or
- (e) determine whether any other appropriate adjustment can be made to the Conditions and/or any other provisions relating to the Products to account for the economic effect of such FX Disruption Event on the Products which would produce a commercially reasonable result and preserve substantially the economic effect to the Investors of a holding of the relevant Product. If the Calculation Agent determines that an appropriate adjustment or adjustments can be made, the Issuer shall determine the effective date of such adjustment(s), notify the Investors of such adjustment(s) and take the necessary steps to effect such adjustment(s). An Investor will not be charged any costs by or on behalf of the Issuer to make such adjustment(s),

PROVIDED THAT if the Calculation Agent determines that no action that could be made pursuant to paragraphs (a) to (e) above would produce a commercially reasonable result and preserve substantially the economic effect to the Investors of a holding of the relevant Product, the Calculation Agent will notify the Issuer of such determination. In such event, the Issuer may, on giving irrevocable notice to the Investors in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), redeem all of the Products of the relevant Series on the Unscheduled Early Redemption Date and pay to each Investor, in respect of each Product held by it, an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount on such date (provided that the Issuer may also, prior to such redemption of the Products, make any adjustment(s) to the Conditions or any other provisions relating to the Products as appropriate in order to (when considered together with the redemption of the Products) account for the effect of such FX Disruption Event on the Products).

Upon the occurrence of an FX Disruption Event, the Issuer shall give notice as soon as practicable to the Investors, stating the occurrence of the FX Disruption Event, giving details thereof and the action proposed to be taken in relation thereto.

7.2 CNY FX Disruption Event

If the relevant Issue Terms specifies that 'CNY FX Disruption Event' to be 'Applicable', then the Issuer may, on giving not less than five days' and not more than 30 days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices) to Investors prior to the relevant affected Payment Date, make payment of any amount payable by the Issuer pursuant to the Conditions in the Specified Currency instead of the Settlement Currency, the amount payable in the Specified Currency being determined by the Calculation Agent, on the relevant affected Payment Date in full and final settlement of its obligations to pay such amounts.

8. Indicative Amounts

If the Final Terms provides that the Products are being offered by way of a Public Offer, the Final Terms may specify an indicative amount, subject to a minimum amount and/or a maximum amount, or any combination of the foregoing, as applicable, in relation to any Specified Product Value which is not fixed or determined at the commencement of the Offer Period. If so specified in the Final Terms, references in these Conditions to such Specified Product Value shall be construed as the amount, level, percentage, price, rate or value (as applicable) determined based on market conditions by the Issuer on or around the end of the Offer Period, and is expected to be the indicative amount specified in the Final Terms (if so specified) but may be different from such indicative amount, and:

- (a) if a minimum amount is provided in the Final Terms, the Specified Product Value will not be less than such minimum amount (but may be equal to such minimum amount); or
- (b) if a maximum amount is provided in the Final Terms, the Specified Product Value will not be more than such maximum amount (but may be equal to such maximum amount); or
- (c) if both a minimum amount and a maximum amount is provided in the Final Terms, the Specified Product Value will not be less than such minimum amount and will not be more than such maximum amount (but may be equal to either such minimum amount or such maximum amount).

Notice of the relevant Specified Product Value will be published prior to the Issue Date when such Specified Product Value is fixed or determined by the Issuer on or around the end of the Offer Period and the relevant amount, level, percentage, price, rate or value specified in such notice will be deemed to be the Specified Product Value.

For these purposes, "Specified Product Value" means any amount, level, percentage, price, rate or value which is specified in the Conditions as the amount, level, percentage, price, rate or value (as applicable) to be provided in the Final Terms (or phrases of similar import).

9. Effect of Adjustments

All determinations made by the Calculation Agent pursuant to the Conditions shall be conclusive and binding on the Investors, the Paying Agent and the Issuer, except in the case of manifest error.

10. Events of Default

(a) Events of Default: Events of Default means any of the following (each, an "Event of Default"):

- (i) the Issuer does not pay any material amount in respect of the Products when such amount is due and payable and such failure continues for 30 calendar days; or
- (ii) the Issuer fails to deliver any Entitlement on the due date for delivery and such failure to deliver has not been remedied within 30 calendar days of notice of such failure having been given to the Issuer by any Investor, provided that an Event of Default shall not occur under this General Condition 10 if (i) any of the conditions to settlement to be satisfied by the Investor have not been so satisfied as at the due date for delivery or (ii) the Issuer has elected to pay the Settlement Disruption Amount; or
- (iii) an order is made or an effective resolution is passed for the winding-up of the Issuer (other than in connection with a merger or an amalgamation) or the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority ("FINMA") (i) initiates bankruptcy proceedings with respect to the Issuer, (ii) initiates re-organisation measures affecting rights of creditors generally with respect to the Issuer or (iii) takes protective measures with respect to the Issuer to the effect of prohibiting it to make or receive payments or settle securities transactions, terminating its business operations or granting a payment moratorium.

(b) Consequences of Event of Default: If an Event of Default with respect to any Product of a Series at the time outstanding occurs and is continuing, then in every such case, unless the principal of all of the Products of such Series shall have already become due and payable, the Investors of at least 25 per cent. in principal amount of the outstanding Products of that Series may declare the principal amount of all of Products of that Series to be due and payable immediately, by a notice in writing to the Issuer, and upon any such declaration, the Unscheduled Early Repayment Amount, together with the premium, if any, accrued and unpaid interest, if any, and any additional amount in respect of principal which may be payable under General Condition 5 (Payments and Deliveries), shall become immediately due and payable. For the purposes of calculating any Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount at any time following an Event of Default, the Calculation Agent will ignore the effect of such Event of Default upon the market value of the Products.

At any time after such a declaration of acceleration with respect to Products of any Series has been made and before a judgment or decree for payment of the money due has been obtained, Investors of at least a majority in principal amount of outstanding securities of that Series, by written notice to the Issuer and the relevant Paying Agent, may rescind and annul such declaration and its consequences if the Issuer, has paid or deposited with the relevant Paying Agent, a sum sufficient to pay in the Specified Currency in which the Products of such Series are payable:

- (i) all overdue interest, if any, on all Products of that Series;
- (ii) the principal of Products of that Series which have become due otherwise than by such declaration of acceleration and interest thereon at the Rate of Interest, as the case may be, applicable to that Series; and
- (iii) all Events of Default with respect to Products of that Series, other than the non-payment of the principal of Products of that Series, which have become due solely by such declaration of acceleration, have been cured or waived as provided below. No such rescission shall affect any subsequent default or impair any right consequent thereon.

The Investors of at least a majority in principal amount of the outstanding securities of any Series of Euroclear Sweden Securities may on behalf of the Investors of all the Euroclear Sweden Securities of such Series waive any past default hereunder with respect to such Series and its consequences, except a default in the payment of the principal of or interest, if any, on any Products of such Series, or in the payment of any sinking fund instalment or analogous obligation with respect to the Products of such Series. Upon any such waiver, such default shall cease to exist, and any Event of Default arising therefrom shall be deemed to have been cured, for every purpose of the Products of such Series, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other default or impair any right consequent thereon.

11. Agents

11.1 Appointment of Agents

Pursuant to the terms of the Agency Agreement, the Agents act solely as agents of the Issuer. The Agents do not assume any obligation or relationship of agency or trust for or with any Investor. The Issuer reserves the right to vary or terminate the appointment of the Agents and to appoint additional or other Agents, provided that (subject to the final paragraph of this General Condition 11.1 (Appointment of Agents)) the Issuer shall at all times maintain:

- (a) a Paying Agent;
- (b) one or more Calculation Agent(s) where these General Conditions so require; and
- (c) such other agents as may be required by any stock exchange on which the Products may be listed.

Notice of any termination or appointment and of any changes to the specified office of any Agent will be given to Investors.

The Issuer shall not issue any Euroclear Sweden Securities until such time as it has duly appointed all applicable Agents.

11.2 Determinations by the Calculation Agent

Unless otherwise specified, all determinations, considerations, decisions, elections and calculations in the Conditions shall be made by the Calculation Agent. In respect of each such determination, consideration, decision, election and calculation, this General Condition 11.2 shall apply.

In making such determinations, considerations, decisions, elections and calculations, the Calculation Agent may take into account the impact on the Issuer or Calculation Agent's hedging arrangements. In respect of all Products other than SIX SIS Securities, in all circumstances the Calculation Agent shall make such determinations and calculations in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, and (save in the case of manifest or proven error) such determinations and calculations shall be final and binding on the Issuer, the Paying Agent and the Investors. In respect of all SIX SIS Securities, in all circumstances the Calculation Agent shall make such determinations and calculations in accordance with the standard of duly exercised discretion, and (save in the case of manifest or proven error) such determinations and calculations shall be final and binding on the Issuer, the Paying Agent and the Investors.

11.3 Calculations and determinations are all binding

All calculations and determinations made by the Calculation Agent in respect of the Products shall be final and binding on the Issuer and Investors in the absence of manifest error.

11.4 Disclaimer of liability

No liability shall attach to the Calculation Agent for errors or omissions in respect of any calculation, determination or other exercise of discretion under the Conditions provided that, it has acted in accordance with General Condition 11.2 (Determinations by the Calculation Agent).

11.5 Delegation

The calculation functions and other discretionary actions (including, but not limited to duties to make determinations) required of the Calculation Agent may be delegated to any such person as the Calculation Agent, in its reasonable discretion, may decide.

11.6 Disclaimer of responsibility of Issuer, Lead Manager, Agents and respective affiliates upon force majeure event

None of the Issuer, the Lead Manager, any Agent or any of their respective affiliates shall be held responsible for any loss or damage resulting from any legal enactment (domestic or foreign), the intervention of a public authority (domestic or foreign), an act of war, strike, blockade, boycott or lockout, or if the performance of any obligations under the terms of the Products have become unlawful in whole or in part under any applicable law or any other similar event or circumstance. The reservation in respect of strikes, blockades, boycotts and lockouts shall also apply if any of such parties itself takes such measures or becomes the subject of such measures. Where the Issuer or the Paying Agent is prevented from effecting payment or delivery due to such event, payment or delivery may be postponed until the time the event or circumstance impeding payment has ceased, and shall have no obligation to pay or deliver any additional amounts in respect of such postponement.

12. Taxation

The Issuer is not liable for, or otherwise obliged to pay amounts in respect of, any Taxes borne by an Investor. An Investor must pay all Taxes arising from or payable in connection with all payments relating to the Products and all payments in respect of the Products shall be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for, any present or future Taxes of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or within the Issuer Jurisdiction (or any authority or political subdivision thereof or therein having power to tax) unless such withholding or deduction is required by law or in connection with FATCA.

In that event, the appropriate withholding or deduction shall be made and the Issuer shall pay such additional amounts as may be necessary in order that the net amounts receivable by the relevant Investor shall equal the respective amounts that would have been receivable by such Investor in the absence of such withholding or deduction. Notwithstanding the above, no additional amounts shall be payable with respect to any Product:

- (a) to, or to a third party on behalf of, an Investor who is liable for such Taxes in respect of such Products by reason of them having a connection with the Issuer Jurisdiction other than the mere holding of the relevant Product or Coupon;
- (b) to, or to a third party on behalf of, an Investor who could lawfully avoid (but has not so avoided) such deduction or withholding by complying or procuring that any third party complies with any statutory requirements or by making or procuring that any third party makes a declaration of non-residence or other similar claim for exemption to any tax authority in the place where the relevant Product or Coupon is presented for payment;
- (c) presented for payment more than 30 calendar days after the Relevant Date, except to the extent that the Investor would have been entitled to an additional amount on presenting such Product for such payment on the last day of such 30-day period;
- (d) where such withholding or deduction is required by the rules of the US Internal Revenue Code 1986 (the "Code"), including without limitation, in respect of dividends, dividend equivalent payments (including without limitation under section 871(m) of the Code), and direct and indirect interests in US real property within the meaning of section 897(c) of the Code;
- (e) where such withholding or deduction is made in connection with FATCA;
- (f) where such withholding or deduction is required to be made pursuant to the Dutch Withholding Tax Act 2021 (Wet bronbelasting 2021);

- (g) presented for payment by or on behalf of an Investor who would have been able to avoid such withholding or deduction by presenting the relevant Product or Coupon to another paying agent without such deduction or withholding; or
- (h) in relation to Definitive Euroclear/Clearstream Securities, unless it is proved, to the satisfaction of the Paying Agent that the Investor is unable to avoid such withholding or deduction by satisfying any applicable certification, identification or reporting requirements or by making a declaration of non-residence or other similar claim for exemptions to the relevant tax authorities.

13. Prescription

Claims for payment of principal shall become void unless made within ten years and claims for interest shall become void unless made within five years of the appropriate Relevant Date.

14. Early Redemption for Unlawfulness or Impracticability

If the Issuer determines in good faith and in a reasonable manner that the performance of any of its absolute or contingent obligations under the Products has become, or there is a substantial likelihood that it will become, unlawful or a physical impracticability, in whole or in part, as a result of (a) any change in financial, political or economic conditions or foreign exchange rates or (b) compliance in good faith by the Issuer or any relevant subsidiaries or Affiliates with any applicable present or future law, rule, regulation, judgment, order or directive of any governmental, administrative or judicial authority or power or in interpretation thereof, the Issuer may, at its option, redeem or terminate the Products by giving notice to Investors.

If the Issuer redeems the Products pursuant to this General Condition 14, then the Issuer will, if and to the extent permitted by applicable law, pay to each Investor, in respect of each Product held by it, an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount on the Unscheduled Early Redemption Date.

15. Notices

15.1 To Investors

- (a) Subject to General Condition 15.1(b) (Euroclear Sweden Securities), all notices to Investors will be deemed to have been duly given and valid (a) if published on the Notice Website or any successor webpage thereto and any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the day of publication on the website; (b) if given in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Relevant Stock Exchange (if applicable) or other relevant authority and any such notice will be deemed to have been given on the first date of transmission or publication; and/or (c) if given to the Relevant Clearing System (if applicable) and any such notice will be deemed given on the first date following the day of transmission to the applicable Relevant Clearing System.

Failure to give notice where required will not invalidate any determination, calculation or correction, as applicable.

Investors of the Products shall be deemed for all purposes to have notice of the contents of any notice given to holders of Products.

- (b) Euroclear Sweden Securities: In respect of Euroclear Sweden Securities, the Issuer may either publish information and notices in at least one Swedish daily newspaper with nationwide coverage in the Kingdom of Sweden or send such information and notices to the relevant Paying Agent who (at the expense of the Issuer) will, as soon as reasonably possible, publish the information and notices in at least one Swedish daily newspaper with nationwide coverage in the Kingdom of Sweden.

Notwithstanding any confidentiality obligations, the Issuer shall be entitled to obtain information (including information on Investors of Euroclear Sweden Securities) from the Euroclear Sweden Register, and Euroclear Sweden shall be entitled to provide such information to the Issuer and to the relevant Paying Agent, respectively.

15.2 To the Issuer and the Agents

In respect of any Series, all notices to the Issuer and/or the Agents must be sent to the address specified for such entity in this Base Prospectus or to such other person or place as shall be specified by the Issuer and/or the Paying Agent by notice given to Investors. Any notice determined not to be valid, effective, complete and in proper form shall be null and void unless the Issuer and the Relevant Clearing System agree otherwise. This provision shall not prejudice any right of the person delivering the notice to deliver a new or corrected notice. The Issuer or the Paying Agent shall use all reasonable endeavours promptly to notify any Investor submitting a notice if it is determined that such notice is not valid, effective, complete or in the proper form.

16. Substitution

The Issuer shall be entitled at any time, without the consent of the Investors, to substitute any other entity, the identity of which shall be determined by the Issuer, to act as issuer in respect of Products then outstanding pursuant to the Programme (the "New Issuer"), provided that:

- (a) no Event of Default as set out in General Condition 10 (Events of Default) shall occur as a result thereof.
- (b) the New Issuer irrevocably and unconditionally assumes, by means of a deed poll substantially in the form set out in the Agency Agreement, all obligations of the Issuer arising from or in connection with the Products;
- (c) the Issuer agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each Investor against any additional tax, duty, assessment or governmental charge imposed on such Investor due to a different tax or regulatory regime applicable to the New Issuer from that applicable to the Issuer and which arises solely due to the substitution of the Issuer by the New Issuer; and
- (d) all actions, conditions and steps which have to be initiated, fulfilled and performed (including obtaining any necessary consent) to ensure that the Products represent lawful, effective and binding obligations of the New Issuer have been initiated, fulfilled and performed and are, without limitation, legally valid and effective, in each case subject to any additional requirements as may be applicable pursuant to the rules of any Relevant Stock Exchange.

In the event of any such substitution, any reference in the Conditions to the Issuer shall be construed as a reference to the New Issuer. In connection with such right of substitution, the Issuer shall not be obliged to have regard to the consequences of the exercise of such right for individual Investors resulting from their being for any purpose domiciled or resident in, or otherwise connected with or subject to the jurisdiction of, any particular territory, and no Investor shall be entitled to claim from the Issuer or the New Issuer any indemnification or payment in respect of any tax consequence of any such substitution upon such Investor.

Any such substitution shall take effect upon giving notice to the Investors of each Series then outstanding and any Relevant Stock Exchange and the Paying Agent.

17. Modifications

17.1 Modifications without consent of Investors

- (i) Terms and Conditions: The Conditions of the Products of any Series may be amended by the Issuer in each case without the consent of the Investors if, in the reasonable opinion of the Issuer, the amendment (a) is of a formal, minor or technical nature, (b) is made to correct a manifest or proven error or omission, (c) is made to comply with mandatory provisions of the law of the Issuer Jurisdiction, and/or in order to comply with the amendments to any applicable laws and regulations, (d) is made to cure, correct or supplement any defective provision contained herein and/or (e) will not materially and adversely affect the interests of the Investors. Any such modification shall be binding on the Investors and any such modification shall take effect by notice to the Investors.

- (ii) Agency Agreement: The Agency Agreement may be amended by the parties thereto without the consent of the Investors if, in the opinion of the Issuer, the amendment will not materially and adversely affect the interests of the Investors.
- (iii) Meetings of Investors: The Agency Agreement contains provisions for convening meetings of Investors to consider matters relating to the Products, including the modification of any provision of the Conditions relating to a Series of Products with the consent of the Issuer. Only holders of outstanding Products of the applicable Series in respect of the Products will be eligible to participate in a meeting of Investors. Such a meeting shall be convened by the Issuer upon the request in writing of Investors holding not less than one-tenth of the outstanding Products of that Series. The quorum at any meeting convened to vote on a Resolution will be one or more Persons holding or representing one more than half of the outstanding Products of that Series or, at any adjourned meeting, one or more Persons being or representing not less than one quarter of the outstanding Products. Any Resolution duly passed at any such meeting shall be binding on all the Investors of the Products of the applicable Series, whether present or not.
- (iv) Extraordinary Resolution: A resolution in writing signed or electronically approved using the systems and procedures in place from time to time of a Relevant Clearing System by or on behalf of 75 per cent. or more of Investors of Products, by reference to their original aggregate principal amount (in the case of Notes) or the aggregate total number (in the case of Unit Certificates) or aggregate Notional Amount (in the case of Notional Certificates) of Products outstanding, who for the time being are entitled to receive notice of a meeting shall for all purposes be as valid and effective as an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a meeting of the Investors of the Products. Such resolution in writing may be contained in one document or in several documents in like form each signed by or on behalf of one or more of the relevant Investors of Products or may be in the form of SWIFT or other electronic instructions as permitted by the rules and procedures of the Relevant Clearing System, and in each case the date of such resolution shall be the date that such 75 per cent. majority is reached.

17.2 Further Issues

The Issuer shall be at liberty from time to time, without the consent of the Investors, to create and issue further Products so as to form a single Series with the Products of any particular Series (such further Products, "Fungible Products").

18. Purchases and Cancellations

The Issuer and any of its subsidiaries may at any time purchase Products (provided that all unmatuured Coupons relating thereto are attached thereto or surrendered therewith) in the open market or otherwise at any price.

TCM Secured Products may (in addition to any other events causing an early redemption in accordance with the Conditions) be redeemed early in accordance with General Condition 12.1 (Early termination following a Realization Event) or General Condition 12.2 (Early termination following a termination of the TCM Security Agreement).

12.1 Early termination following a Realization Event

If the Collateral Agent determines that a Realization Event has occurred in respect of a TCM Secured Product, the Collateral shall be liquidated (either by the Collateral Agent or a liquidator under the terms of the applicable legal regulations) and the TCM Secured Product shall be redeemed in accordance with this General Condition 12.1.

Upon the occurrence of a Realization Event, Investors' claims against the Issuer will be based on the Liquidation Value (as determined by the Collateral Agent) when the TCM Secured Products mature in accordance with the TCM Security Agreement.

Upon liquidation of the Collateral following a Realization Event each Investor shall be paid, in respect of each TCM Secured Product held by it, an amount equal to the pro-rata share of the Net Liquidation Proceeds per TCM Secured Product in the relevant Series. Such amount shall be paid to Investors via SIX SIS AG on a delivery versus payment basis.

The claim of Investors is non-interest-bearing. Payment to Investors following the occurrence of a Realization Event may only occur upon completion of the liquidation of the Collateral in accordance with the terms of the TCM Security Agreement. If the payment is delayed for any reason, the Collateral Agent and SIX SIS AG are not liable to pay either default interest or damages. Each TCM Secured Product will only be secured by the Collateral assigned on the Collateral Account to the respective TCM Secured Product. The Investors' claims against the Issuer in respect of the TCM Secured Product are reduced by the amount of the payment of the Net Liquidation Proceeds. No further Investors' claims exist against the Collateral Agent, SIX SIS AG or other persons which are involved in the collateralisation service for the TCM Secured Product under the terms of the TCM Security Agreement.

If the same event is deemed to constitute both a Realization Event and an Event of Default, the provisions of this General Condition 12.1 shall prevail.

12.2 Early termination following a termination of the TCM Security Agreement

(a) Termination of the TCM Security Agreement and payment of the TCM Secured Product Early Redemption Amount

If a TCM Security Agreement Termination Event has occurred, the Issuer may, at any time, redeem all (but not some) of the TCM Secured Products by giving not less than one month's irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15.1, in which case the Issuer shall redeem the TCM Secured Products on the date specified in the relevant notice (in respect of such products the "TCM Secured Product Early Redemption Date") and cause to be paid to each Investor, in respect of each TCM Secured Product held by it, an amount equal to the TCM Secured Product Early Redemption Amount. The "TCM Secured Product Early Redemption Amount" shall be an amount determined by the Issuer and/or the Calculation Agent in its/their reasonable discretion as the reasonable market price of the relevant TCM Secured Product at the time when bid and ask prices for such TCM Secured Product were most recently quoted immediately prior to the end of the collateralisation pursuant to the TCM Security Agreement.

(b) Taxes, fees or other duties

All taxes, fees and other duties incurred in connection with the payment of the TCM Secured Product Early Redemption Amount shall be borne and paid by the Investor. The Issuer and/or Paying Agent may withhold from the TCM Secured Product Early Redemption Amount any taxes, fees or duties that have to be paid by the Investor in accordance with this paragraph."

3. Amendment of General Condition 11 (Agents)

General Condition 11 (Agents) shall be amended by the insertion of the following after General Condition 11.1 (Appointment of Agents) and before General Condition 11.2 (Determinations by the Calculation Agent) as follows (and all subsequent paragraph numbering shall be amended accordingly):

"11.2 Collateral Agent

By purchasing a TCM Secured Product, Investors agree to exercise their rights under the TCM Security Agreement solely through the Collateral Agent. The acquisition of a TCM Secured Product by an investor is automatically accompanied by a declaration to the Collateral Agent, as its representative, that the Collateral Agent may exercise the Investor's rights under the TCM Security Agreement in the event of the Realization Events."

1.1 Single Share and Underlying Valuation Dates

Where the Products relate to a single Share (and if the Issue Terms specify that this provision shall apply to one or more particular Underlying Valuation Dates, then this condition shall apply to such Underlying Valuation Dates only), if the Calculation Agent determines that an Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day, then the Underlying Valuation Date shall be the next following Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day. In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day; and
- (b) the Calculation Agent shall determine its estimate of the relevant level of the Share on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in its reasonable discretion, taking into account the market circumstances prevailing on such day. The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall publish the determined level of the Share in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

PROVIDED THAT, if the Underlying Valuation Date is postponed in accordance with this paragraph 1.1 due to the occurrence of an Illiquidity Event, notwithstanding the Maximum Days of Disruption, the Underlying Valuation Date may be postponed until the earlier of (a) the first Scheduled Trading Day on which no Illiquidity Event is in existence or (b) the day that is 60 calendar days following the Scheduled Trading Day determined in accordance with paragraph 1.1(a) above (or if such day is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the first Scheduled Trading Day following such day).

- (a) (i) make the corresponding adjustment(s), if appropriate, to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for that diluting or concentrative effect; and
- (ii) determine the effective date(s) of the adjustment(s). In such case, such adjustments shall be deemed to be so made from such date(s). The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may (but need not) perform the appropriate adjustment(s) by reference to the

Underlying Specific Conditions
Share Linked Conditions

adjustment(s) in respect of such Potential Adjustment Event made by the Related Exchange(s); or

- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in (a) above (or in paragraph 2.3) would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. - (ii) in respect of a Nationalisation, Insolvency or Delisting, on or after the date of the occurrence of the Nationalisation, Insolvency and/or Delisting, as determined by the Calculation Agent, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may (A) make such adjustment to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Products of the relevant event, (including adjustments to account for changes in volatility, expected dividends, stock loan rate or liquidity relevant to the Share), which may, but need not, be determined by reference to the adjustment(s) made in respect of a Nationalisation, Insolvency or Delisting by the Related Exchange(s) to options on the Share traded thereon and (B) determine the effective date of that adjustment; or
- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in (a) above (or in paragraph 2.3 below) would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings, if in relation to a Basket Component an adjustment (as described in Share Linked Condition 2.1 or 2.2) is necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall (in addition to the adjustments pursuant to such Share Linked Conditions in relation to each such Basket Component (an "Affected Basket Component")) be entitled, but not obliged to, either:

- (a) remove the Affected Basket Component(s) from the basket of Underlyings without replacement (and in such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the removal of the Affected Basket Component(s) and the economic effect thereof on the Products); or
- (b) replace the Affected Basket Component(s) in whole or in part by a new Basket Component (which may be a cash amount in the Underlying Currency representing the value of the Affected

Underlying Specific Conditions
Share Linked Conditions

Basket Component at the time of such replacement, as calculated by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion) (the "Successor Basket Component"). In such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the replacement of the Affected Basket Component(s) with the Successor Basket Component. The Successor Basket Component(s) will be selected by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion and the relevant characteristics thereof shall be as similar to the Affected Basket Component being replaced as far as reasonably practicable. Upon such replacement, the Successor Basket Component will be deemed to be the Basket Component and any reference in the Conditions to the Affected Basket Component, to the extent permitted by the context, shall be deemed to refer to the Successor Basket Component.

2.4 Notice of Adjustments

Upon making any such adjustment pursuant to this Share Linked Condition 2, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall give notice to the Investors in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), stating the relevant adjustment and giving brief details of the relevant event in respect of which such adjustment was made, provided that any failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of the relevant event or any action taken.

- (a) make such adjustment(s) to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Products of such Additional Disruption Event (including adjustments to account for changes in volatility, expected dividends, stock loan rate or liquidity relevant to the Share). Upon making any such adjustment, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall give notice to the Investors in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), stating the relevant adjustment and giving brief details of the relevant event in respect of which such adjustment was made, provided that any failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of the relevant event or any action taken; or
- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in (a) above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

4. Correction of Prices

In the event that a Relevant Underlying Price is subsequently corrected and the correction (the "Corrected Price") is published by the Exchange on or before the Business Day prior to the next date on which any relevant payment or delivery may have to be made by the Issuer or in respect of which any relevant determination in respect of the Products may have to be made, which, in each case, would require the Relevant Underlying Price, then the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to determine the amount payable or Entitlement deliverable or make any such determination in connection with the Products after taking into account such Corrected Price, and, to the extent necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may adjust any relevant terms of the Products to account for such Corrected Price. The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall publish the determined level of the Participation Certificate in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

PROVIDED THAT, if the Underlying Valuation Date is postponed in accordance with this paragraph 1.1 due to the occurrence of an Illiquidity Event, notwithstanding the Maximum Days of Disruption, the Underlying Valuation Date may be postponed until the earlier of (a) the first Scheduled Trading Day on which no Illiquidity Event is in existence or (b) the day that is 60 calendar days following the Scheduled Trading Day determined in accordance with paragraph 1.1(a) above (or if such day is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the first Scheduled Trading Day following such day).

In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date for all Basket Components, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day for one or more Participation Certificates in the basket (each such Participation Certificate an "Affected Participation Certificate" in respect of such Underlying Valuation Date);

Participation Certificate ("Genussscheine") Linked Conditions

adjustment(s) in respect of such Potential Adjustment Event made by the Related Exchange(s); or

- (ii) in respect of a Nationalisation, Insolvency or Delisting, on or after the date of the occurrence of the Nationalisation, Insolvency and/or Delisting, as determined by the Calculation Agent, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may (A) make such adjustment to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Products of the relevant event, (including adjustments to account for changes in volatility, expected dividends, stock loan rate or liquidity relevant to the Participation Certificate), which may, but need not, be determined by reference to the adjustment(s) made in respect of a Nationalisation, Insolvency or Delisting by the Related Exchange(s) to options on the Participation Certificate traded thereon and (B) determine the effective date of that adjustment; or
- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in (a) above (or in paragraph 2.3 below) would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. In such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the replacement of the Affected Basket Component(s) with the Successor Basket Component. The Successor Basket Component(s) will be selected by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion and the relevant characteristics thereof shall be as similar to the Affected Basket Component being replaced as far as reasonably practicable. Upon such replacement, the Successor Basket Component will be deemed to be the Basket Component and any reference in the Conditions to the Affected Basket Component, to the extent permitted by the context, shall be deemed to refer to the Successor Basket Component.

The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

4. Correction of Prices

In the event that a Relevant Underlying Price is subsequently corrected and the correction (the "Corrected Price") is published by the Exchange on or before the Business Day prior to the next date on which any relevant payment or delivery may have to be made by the Issuer or in respect of which any relevant determination in respect of the Products may have to be made, which, in each case, would require the Relevant Underlying Price, then the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to determine the amount payable or Entitlement deliverable or make any such determination in connection with the Products after taking into account such Corrected Price, and, to the extent necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may adjust any relevant terms of the Products to account for such Corrected Price. The provisions of these Index Linked Conditions shall apply to Index Linked Products in respect of each Underlying which is an Index.

1. Consequences of Disrupted Days

1.1 Single Index and Underlying Valuation Dates

Where the Products relate to a single Index (and if the Issue Terms specify that this provision shall apply to one or more particular Underlying Valuation Dates, then this condition shall apply to such Underlying Valuation Dates only), if the Calculation Agent determines that an Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day, then the Underlying Valuation Date shall be the next following Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day. In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day; and
- (b) the Calculation Agent shall determine its estimate of the relevant level of the Index on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in its reasonable discretion, taking into account the market circumstances prevailing on such day. The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall publish the determined level of the Index in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

PROVIDED THAT, if the Underlying Valuation Date is postponed in accordance with this paragraph 1.1 due to the occurrence of an Illiquidity Event, notwithstanding the Maximum Days of Disruption, the Underlying Valuation Date may be postponed until the earlier of (a) the first Scheduled Trading Day on which no Illiquidity Event is in existence or (b) the day that is 60 calendar days following the Scheduled Trading Day determined in accordance with paragraph 1.1(a) above (or if such day is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the first Scheduled Trading Day following such day).

1.2 Basket of Underlyings and Underlying Valuation Dates – Individual Postponement of Underlying Valuation Dates

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings and where 'Underlying Valuation Dates – Adjustments for Disrupted Days' is specified as 'Individual Adjustment' in respect of the basket of Underlyings in the Issue Terms (and if the Issue Terms specify that this provision shall apply to one or more particular Underlying Valuation Dates, then this condition shall apply to such Underlying Valuation Dates only), if the Calculation Agent determines that an Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of a Basket Component, then the Underlying Valuation Date in respect of the relevant Basket Component shall be the next following Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day in respect of the relevant Basket Component, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of the relevant Basket Component. In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date for the relevant Basket Component, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day; and
- (b) the Calculation Agent shall determine its estimate of the relevant level of the relevant Basket Component on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in its reasonable discretion, taking into account the market circumstances prevailing on such day. The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall publish the determined level of the relevant Basket Component in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

accordance with paragraph 1.2(a) above (or if such day is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the first Scheduled Trading Day following such day).

1.3 Basket of Underlyings and Underlying Valuation Dates – Common Postponement of Underlying Valuation Dates

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings and where 'Underlying Valuation Dates – Adjustments for Disrupted Days' is specified as 'Common Adjustment' in respect of the basket of Underlyings in the Issue Terms (and if the Issue Terms specify that this provision shall apply to one or more particular Underlying Valuation Dates, then this condition shall apply to such Underlying Valuation Dates only), if the Calculation Agent determines that an Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of any Basket Component, then the Underlying Valuation Date in respect of all Basket Components shall be the next following Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day in respect of any Basket Component, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of any Basket Component. In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date for all Basket Components, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day for one or more Indices in the basket (each such Index an "Affected Index" in respect of such Underlying Valuation Date);
- (b) in respect of each Index in the basket that is not an Affected Index, the relevant Level shall be determined in accordance with the definition of Level on such last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day; and
- (c) in respect of each Affected Index, the Calculation Agent shall determine its estimate of the relevant level of such Basket Component(s) on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in its reasonable discretion, taking into account the market circumstances prevailing on such day. 2. Successor Index Sponsor, Successor Index and Index Adjustment Events

2.1 Successor Index Sponsor and Successor Index

- (a) If an Index is (i) not calculated and announced by the Index Sponsor but is calculated and announced by a successor to the Index Sponsor (a "Successor Index Sponsor") acceptable to the Calculation Agent; or (ii) replaced by a successor index using, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, the same or a substantially similar formula for, and method of, calculation as used in the calculation of such Index, then in each case that index (the "Successor Index") will be deemed to be the Index.
- (b) If either of the events described in (a) above have occurred, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may make such adjustment(s) that it determines to be appropriate, if any, to any variable, calculation methodology, valuation, settlement, payment terms or any other terms of the Products to account for such Successor Index. Upon making any such adjustment the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall give notice to the Investors, giving details of the adjustment, in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).
- (c) If the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in (b) above (or in paragraph 2.3 below) would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

Index Linked Conditions

2.2 Index Adjustment Events

- (a) If, in respect of an Index, the Calculation Agent determines that an Index Adjustment Event has occurred, the Calculation Agent shall determine if such event has a material effect on the Products and, if so, shall calculate the relevant amount using, in lieu of a published level for the Index, the level for the Index as at the relevant date as determined by the Calculation Agent in accordance with the formula for and method of calculating the Index last in effect prior to that change, failure or cancellation, but using only those securities that comprised the Index immediately prior to that event and shall notify the Investors thereof (in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices)). None of the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent or the Paying Agent shall have any responsibility in respect of any error or omission or subsequent correction made in the calculation or publication of an index, whether caused by negligence or otherwise.
- (b) If the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in (a) above (or in paragraph 2.3 below) would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

2.3 Additional Adjustments in respect of a Basket of Underlyings

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings, if in relation to a Basket Component an adjustment (as described in Index Linked Condition 2.1 or 2.2) is necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall (in addition to the adjustments pursuant to such Index Linked Conditions in relation to each such Basket Component (an "Affected Basket Component")) be entitled, but not obliged to either:

- (a) remove the Affected Basket Component(s) from the basket of Underlyings without replacement (and in such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the removal of the Affected Basket Component(s) and the economic effect thereof on the Products); or
- (b) replace the Affected Basket Component(s) in whole or in part by a new Basket Component (which may be a cash amount in the Underlying Currency representing the value of the Affected Basket Component at the time of such replacement as calculated by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion) (the "Successor Basket Component"). In such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the replacement of the Affected Basket Component(s) with the Successor Basket Component. The Successor Basket Component(s) will be selected by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion and the relevant characteristics thereof shall be as similar to the Affected Basket Component being replaced as far as reasonably practicable. Upon such replacement, the Successor Basket Component will be deemed to be the Basket Component and any reference in the Conditions to the Affected Basket Component, to the extent permitted by the context, shall be deemed to refer to the Successor Basket Component.

2.4 Notice of Adjustments

Upon making any such adjustment pursuant to this Index Linked Condition 2, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall give notice to the Investors in accordance with General Condition 15, stating the relevant adjustment and giving brief details of the relevant event in respect of which such adjustment was made, provided that any failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of the relevant event or any action taken.

3. Consequences of an Additional Disruption Event

If the Calculation Agent determines that an Additional Disruption Event has occurred, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may:

- (a) make such adjustment(s) to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Products of such Additional Disruption Event; or
- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in (a) above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

4. Correction of Levels

In the event that a Relevant Level is subsequently corrected and the correction (the "Corrected Level") is published by the Index Sponsor on or before the Business Day prior to the next date on which any relevant payment or delivery may have to be made by the Issuer or in respect of which any relevant determination in respect of the Products may have to be made, which, in each case, would require the Relevant Level, then the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to determine the amount payable or Entitlement deliverable or make any such determination in connection with the Products after taking into account such Corrected Level, and, to the extent necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may adjust any relevant terms of the Products to account for such Corrected Level. Any such determination or adjustment and the date of its first application shall be published in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

5. Proprietary Index Provisions

If the relevant Issue Terms specify that the relevant Index is a Proprietary Index, the following terms shall apply and Index Linked Condition 2.2 (Index Adjustment Events) shall not apply to such Index.

If, in respect of a Proprietary Index, the Calculation Agent determines that (a) the relevant Index Sponsor or Successor Index Sponsor, if applicable, permanently cancels such Proprietary Index and no Successor Index exists as at the date of such cancellation (an "Index Cancellation"), or (b) the Issuer has ceased to be the Index Sponsor of the Index and has generally exited or has ceased to engage in the business of being the index sponsor for proprietary strategies and indices similar to such Proprietary Index (an "Index Sponsor Exit Event") upon the Calculation Agent giving notice to Investors in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), the Issuer shall (or, in respect of an Index Sponsor Exit Event, may (but is not obliged to)) redeem the Index Linked Products in whole but not in part, each Index Linked Product being redeemed by payment of an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount of such Index Linked Product, as determined by the Calculation Agent. 1. Consequences of Disrupted Days

1.1 Single Depository Receipt and Underlying Valuation Dates

Where the Products relate to a single Depository Receipt (and if the Issue Terms specify that this provision shall apply to one or more particular Underlying Valuation Dates, then this condition shall apply to such Underlying Valuation Dates only), if the Calculation Agent determines that an Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day, then the Underlying Valuation Date shall be the next following Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day. In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day; and
- (b) the Calculation Agent shall determine its estimate of the relevant level of the Depository Receipt on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in its reasonable discretion, taking into account the market circumstances prevailing on such day. The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall publish the determined level of the Depository Receipt in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

PROVIDED THAT, if the Underlying Valuation Date is postponed in accordance with this paragraph 1.1 due to the occurrence of an Illiquidity Event, notwithstanding the Maximum Days of Disruption, the Underlying Valuation Date may be postponed until the earlier of (a) the first Scheduled Trading Day on which no Illiquidity Event is in existence or (b) the day that is 60 calendar days following the Scheduled Trading Day determined in accordance with paragraph (a) above (or if such day is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the first Scheduled Trading Day following such day).

1.2 Basket of Underlyings and Underlying Valuation Dates – Individual Postponement of Underlying Valuation Dates

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings and where 'Underlying Valuation Dates – Adjustments for Disrupted Days' is specified as 'Individual Adjustment' in respect of the basket of Underlyings in the Issue Terms (and if the Issue Terms specify that this provision shall apply to one or more particular Underlying Valuation Dates, then this condition shall apply to such Underlying Valuation Dates only), if the Calculation Agent determines that an Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of a Basket Component, then the Underlying Valuation Date in respect of the relevant Basket Component shall be the next following Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day in respect of the relevant Basket Component, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of the relevant Basket Component. In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date for the relevant Basket Component, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day; and
- (b) the Calculation Agent shall determine its estimate of the relevant level of the relevant Basket Component on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in its reasonable discretion, taking into account the market circumstances prevailing on such day. The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall publish the determined level of the relevant Basket Component in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

PROVIDED THAT, if the Underlying Valuation Date is postponed in accordance with this paragraph 1.2 due to the occurrence of an Illiquidity Event, notwithstanding the Maximum Days of Disruption, the Underlying Valuation Date for the relevant Basket Component may be postponed until the earlier of (a) the first Scheduled Trading Day on which no Illiquidity Event is in existence in respect of such Basket

1.3 Basket of Underlyings and Underlying Valuation Dates – Common Postponement of Underlying Valuation Dates

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings and where 'Underlying Valuation Dates – Adjustments for Disrupted Days' is specified as 'Common Adjustment' in respect of the basket of Underlyings in the Issue Terms (and if the Issue Terms specify that this provision shall apply to one or more particular Underlying Valuation Dates, then this condition shall apply to such Underlying Valuation Dates only), if the Calculation Agent determines that an Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of any Basket Component, then the Underlying Valuation Date in respect of all Basket Components shall be the next following Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day in respect of any Basket Component, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of any Basket Component. In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date for all Basket Components, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day for one or more Depository Receipts in the basket (each such Depository Receipt an "Affected Depository Receipt" in respect of such Underlying Valuation Date);
- (b) in respect of each Depository Receipt in the basket that is not an Affected Depository Receipt, the relevant Level shall be determined in accordance with the definition of Level on such last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day; and
- (c) in respect of each Affected Depository Receipt, the Calculation Agent shall determine its estimate of the relevant level of such Basket Component(s) on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in its reasonable discretion, taking into account the market circumstances prevailing on such day. The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall publish the determined level of such Affected Depository Receipt(s) in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

PROVIDED THAT, if the Underlying Valuation Date is postponed in accordance with this paragraph 1.3 due to the occurrence of an Illiquidity Event, notwithstanding the Maximum Days of Disruption, the Underlying Valuation Date for each Affected Depository Receipt may be postponed until the earlier of (a) the first Scheduled Trading Day on which no Illiquidity Event is in existence in respect of such Affected Depository Receipt or (b) the day that is 60 calendar days following the Scheduled Trading Day determined in accordance with paragraph (a) above (or if such day is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the first Scheduled Trading Day following such day).

2. Adjustments

2.1 Consequences of a Potential Adjustment Event

If the terms of the Deposit Agreement are amended or supplemented following a Potential Adjustment Event (as determined by the Calculation Agent) in relation to the relevant Depository Receipt, the Calculation Agent will determine whether such Potential Adjustment Event has a diluting or concentrative effect on the theoretical value of such Depository Receipt and, if so, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may (but is not obliged to):

- (a) (i) make the corresponding adjustment(s), if appropriate, to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for that diluting or concentrative effect; and
- (ii) determine the effective date(s) of the adjustment(s). In such case, such adjustments shall be deemed to be so made from such date(s). The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may (but need not) perform the appropriate adjustment(s) by reference to the

Depository Receipt Linked Conditions

adjustment(s) in respect of such Potential Adjustment Event made by the Related Exchange(s); or

- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in (a) above (or in paragraph 2.4) would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

2.2 Consequences of an Extraordinary Event

If the Calculation Agent determines that an Extraordinary Event has occurred in respect of a Depository Receipt, the following will apply:

- (a) (i) in respect of a Merger Event or Tender Offer, on or after the relevant Merger Date or Tender Offer Date (or such other date as the Calculation Agent deems relevant), the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may (A) make such adjustment to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Products of such Merger Event or Tender Offer (including adjustments to account for changes in volatility, expected dividends, stock loan rate or liquidity relevant to the Underlying Share or to the Depository Receipt), which may, but need not, be determined by reference to the adjustment(s) made in respect of such Merger Event or Tender Offer by the Related Exchange(s) to options on the relevant Underlying Share or on the Depository Receipt traded thereon and (B) determine the effective date of that adjustment; or
- (ii) in respect of a Nationalisation, Insolvency or Delisting, on or after the date of the occurrence of the Nationalisation, Insolvency and/or Delisting, as determined by the Calculation Agent, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may (A) make such adjustment to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Products of the relevant event, (including adjustments to account for changes in volatility, expected dividends, stock loan rate or liquidity relevant to the Underlying Share or the Depository Receipt), which may, but need not, be determined by reference to the adjustment(s) made in respect of a Nationalisation, Insolvency or Delisting by the Related Exchange(s) to options on the Underlying Share or on the Depository Receipt traded thereon and (B) determine the effective date of that adjustment; or
- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in (a) above (or in paragraph 2.4) would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

2.3 Consequences of a termination of the Deposit Agreement

If the Deposit Agreement is terminated, then on or after the date of such termination:

- (a) both:
- (i) references to the Depository Receipt shall be replaced by references to the Underlying Shares; and

The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

2.4 Additional Adjustments in respect of a basket of Underlyings

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings, if in relation to a Basket Component an adjustment (as described in Depository Receipt Linked Condition 2.1 to 2.3) is necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall (in addition to the adjustments pursuant to such Depository Receipt Linked Conditions in relation to each such Basket Component (an "Affected Depository Receipt")) be entitled, but not obliged to, either:

- (a) remove the Affected Basket Component(s) from the basket of Underlyings without replacement (and in such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the removal of the Affected Basket Component(s) and the economic effect thereof on the Products); or
- (b) replace the Affected Basket Component(s) in whole or in part by a new Basket Component (which may be a cash amount in the Underlying Currency representing the value of the Affected Basket Component at the time of such replacement as calculated by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion) (the "Successor Basket Component"). In such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the replacement of the Affected Basket Component(s) with the Successor Basket Component. The Successor Basket Component(s) will be selected by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion and the relevant characteristics thereof shall be as similar to the Affected Basket Component being replaced as far as reasonably practicable. Upon such replacement, the Successor Basket Component will be deemed to be the Basket Component and any reference in the Conditions to the Affected Basket Component, to the extent permitted by the context, shall be deemed to refer to the Successor Basket Component.

2.5 Notice of Adjustments

Upon making any such adjustment pursuant to this Depository Receipt Linked Condition 2, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall give notice to the Investors in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), stating the relevant adjustment and giving brief details of the relevant event in respect of which such adjustment was made, provided that any failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of the relevant event or any action taken.

3. Consequences of an Additional Disruption Event

- (a) make such adjustment(s) to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Products of such Additional Disruption Event (including adjustments to account for changes in volatility, expected dividends, stock loan rate or liquidity relevant to the Underlying Share or Depository Receipt); or
- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in (a) above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

4. Correction of Prices

In the event that a Relevant Underlying Price is subsequently corrected and the correction (the "Corrected Price") is published by the Exchange on or before the Business Day prior to the next date on which any relevant payment or delivery may have to be made by the Issuer or in respect of which any relevant determination in respect of the Products may have to be made, which, in each case, would require the Relevant Underlying Price, then the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to determine the amount payable or Entitlement deliverable or make any such determination in connection with the Products after taking into account such Corrected Price, and, to the extent necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may adjust any relevant terms of the Products to account for such Corrected Price. Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings and where 'Underlying Valuation Dates – Adjustments for Disrupted Days' is specified as 'Individual Adjustment' in respect of the basket of Underlyings in the Issue Terms (and if the Issue Terms specify that this provision shall apply to one or more particular Underlying Valuation Dates, then this condition shall apply to such Underlying Valuation Dates only), if the Calculation Agent determines that an Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of a Basket Component, then the Underlying Valuation Date in respect of the relevant Basket Component shall be the next following Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day in respect of the relevant Basket Component, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of the relevant Basket Component. In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date for the relevant Basket Component, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day; and
- (b) the Calculation Agent shall determine its estimate of the relevant level of the relevant Basket Component on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in its reasonable discretion, taking into account the market circumstances prevailing on such day. The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall publish the determined level of the relevant Basket Component in accordance with General Condition 15.

PROVIDED THAT, if the Underlying Valuation Date is postponed in accordance with this paragraph 1.2 due to the occurrence of an Illiquidity Event, notwithstanding the Maximum Days of Disruption, the Underlying Valuation Date for the relevant Basket Component may be postponed until the earlier of (a) the first Scheduled Trading Day on which no Illiquidity Event is in existence in respect of such Basket Component or (b) the day that is 60 calendar days following the Scheduled Trading Day determined in accordance with paragraph 1.2(a) above (or if such day is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the first Scheduled Trading Day following such day).

1.3 Basket of Underlyings and Underlying Valuation Dates – Common Postponement of Underlying Valuation Dates

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings and where 'Underlying Valuation Dates – Adjustments for Disrupted Days' is specified as 'Common Adjustment' in respect of the basket of Underlyings in the Issue Terms (and if the Issue Terms specify that this provision shall apply to one or more particular Underlying Valuation Dates, then this condition shall apply to such Underlying Valuation Dates only), if the Calculation Agent determines that an Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of any Basket Component, then the Underlying Valuation Date in respect of all Basket Components shall be the next following Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day in respect of any Basket Component, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of any Basket Component. In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date for all Basket Components, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day for one or more Commodities in the basket (each such Commodity an "Affected Commodity" in respect of such Underlying Valuation Date);
- (b) in respect of each Commodity in the basket that is not an Affected Commodity, the relevant Level shall be determined in accordance with the definition of Level on such last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day; and
- (c) in respect of each Affected Commodity, the Calculation Agent shall determine its estimate of the relevant level of such Basket Component(s) on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in its reasonable discretion, taking into account the market circumstances prevailing on such day. The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall publish the determined level of such Affected Commodity(ies) in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

PROVIDED THAT, if the Underlying Valuation Date is postponed in accordance with this paragraph 1.3 due to the occurrence of an Illiquidity Event, notwithstanding the Maximum Days of Disruption, the Underlying Valuation Date for each Affected Commodity may be postponed until the earlier of (a) the first Scheduled Trading Day on which no Illiquidity Event is in existence in respect of such Affected Commodity or (b) the day that is 60 calendar days following the Scheduled Trading Day determined in accordance with paragraph 1.3(a) above (or if such day is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the first Scheduled Trading Day following such day).

2. Adjustments

2.1 Substitution of Reference Market and/or Price Source

- (a) If the quotation of or trading in the Commodity on the Reference Market or the publication of the relevant price of the Commodity by the Price Source is permanently discontinued while concurrently the quotation or trading is maintained or is commenced on another reference market (the "Substitute Reference Market") or if the relevant price of the Commodity is published by another price source (the "Substitute Price Source"), the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to stipulate the Substitute Reference Market as the new Reference Market and/or the Substitute Price Source as the Price Source through publication in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

In the case of such a substitution, any reference in the Conditions to the Reference Market and/or Price Source thereafter shall be deemed to refer to the Substitute Reference Market and/or Substitute Price Source.

- (b) If the Calculation Agent determines that no substitution as described in (a) above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15, in

Commodity Linked Conditions

which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

2.2 Changes in the Commodity

- (a) If at any time the Commodity is terminated and/or replaced by another value or if the Commodity is traded in a different quality, in a different consistency (e.g., with a different degree of purity or a different point of origin) or in a different standard measuring unit, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent are entitled to make an adjustment to the Conditions, which in the assessment of the Calculation Agent is appropriate to reflect the amendments and/or to replace the Commodity with a successor commodity (the "Successor Commodity") which is economically equivalent to the original relevant concept of the Commodity.

The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent will multiply the relevant price of the Commodity by an adjustment factor in order to ensure the continuity of the development of the reference value(s) underlying the Products. The Successor Commodity and the date of its initial application shall be published in accordance General Condition 15 (Notices). Any reference in the Conditions to the Commodity shall, to the extent appropriate, be deemed to refer to the Successor Commodity.

- (b) If the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in (a) above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

2.3 Additional Adjustments in respect of a basket of Underlyings

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings, if in relation to a Basket Component an adjustment (as described in Commodity Linked Condition 2.1 and 2.2) is necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall (in addition to the adjustments pursuant to such Commodity Linked Conditions in relation to each such Basket Component (an "Affected Commodity")) be entitled, but not obliged to, either:

- (a) remove the Affected Basket Component(s) from the basket of Underlyings without replacement (and in such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the removal of the Affected Basket Component(s) and the economic effect thereof on the Products); or
- (b) replace the Affected Basket Component(s) in whole or in part by a new Basket Component (which may be a cash amount in the Underlying Currency representing the value of the Affected Basket Component at the time of such replacement as calculated by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion) (the "Successor Basket Component"). In such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the replacement of the Affected Basket Component(s) with the Successor Basket Component. The Successor Basket Component(s) will be selected by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion and the relevant characteristics thereof shall be as similar to the Affected Basket Component being replaced as far as reasonably practicable. Upon such replacement, the Successor Basket Component will be deemed to be the Basket Component and any reference in the Conditions to the Affected Basket Component, to the extent permitted by the context, shall be deemed to refer to the Successor Basket Component.

2.4 Notice of Adjustments

Upon making any such adjustment pursuant to this Commodity Linked Condition 2, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall give notice to the Investors in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), stating the relevant adjustment and giving brief details of the relevant event in respect of which such adjustment was made, provided that any failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of the relevant event or any action taken.

3. Consequences of an Additional Disruption Event

If the Calculation Agent determines that an Additional Disruption Event has occurred, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may:

- (a) make such adjustment(s) to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Products of such Additional Disruption Event; or
- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in (a) above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

4. Correction of Prices

In the event that a Relevant Underlying Price is subsequently corrected and the correction (the "Corrected Price") is displayed on the relevant Price Source and/or published by the Reference Market on or before the Business Day prior to the next date on which any relevant payment or delivery may have to be made by the Issuer or in respect of which any relevant determination in respect of the Products may have to be made, which, in each case, would require the Relevant Underlying Price, then the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to determine the amount payable or Entitlement deliverable or make any such determination in connection with the Products after taking into account such Corrected Price, and, to the extent necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may adjust any relevant terms of the Products to account for such Corrected Price. Any such determination or adjustment and the date of its first application shall be published in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

The provisions of these Currency Exchange Rate Linked Conditions shall apply to Currency Exchange Rate Linked Products in respect of each Underlying which is a Currency Exchange Rate.

1. Consequences of Disrupted Days

1.1 Single Currency Exchange Rate and Underlying Valuation Dates

Where the Products relate to a single Currency Exchange Rate (and if the Issue Terms specify that this provision shall apply to particular Underlying Valuation Dates, then this condition shall apply to such Underlying Valuation Dates only), if Calculation Agent determines that an Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day, then the Underlying Valuation Date shall be the next following Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day. In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day; and
- (b) the Calculation Agent shall determine its estimate of the relevant level of the Currency Exchange Rate on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in its reasonable discretion, taking into account the market circumstances prevailing on such day. The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall publish the determined level of the Currency Exchange Rate in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

PROVIDED THAT, if the Underlying Valuation Date is postponed in accordance with this paragraph 1.1 due to the occurrence of an Illiquidity Event, notwithstanding the Maximum Days of Disruption, the Underlying Valuation Date may be postponed until the earlier of (a) the first Scheduled Trading Day on which no Illiquidity Event is in existence or (b) the day that is 60 calendar days following the Scheduled Trading Day determined in accordance with paragraph 1.1(a) above (or if such day is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the first Scheduled Trading Day following such day).

1.2 Basket of Underlyings and Underlying Valuation Dates – Individual Postponement of Underlying Valuation Dates

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings and where 'Underlying Valuation Dates – Adjustments for Disrupted Days' is specified as 'Individual Adjustment' in respect of the basket of Underlyings in the Issue Terms (and if the Issue Terms specify that this provision shall apply to one or more particular Underlying Valuation Dates, then this condition shall apply to such Underlying Valuation Dates only), if the Calculation Agent determines that an Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of a Basket Component, then the Underlying Valuation Date in respect of the relevant Basket Component shall be the next following Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day in respect of the relevant Basket Component, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of the relevant Basket Component. In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date for the relevant Basket Component, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day; and
- (b) the Calculation Agent shall determine its estimate of the relevant level of the relevant Basket Component on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in its reasonable discretion, taking into account the market circumstances prevailing on such day. The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall publish the determined level of the relevant Basket Component in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date for all Basket Components, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day for one or more Currency Exchange Rates in the basket (each such Currency Exchange Rate an "Affected Currency Exchange Rate" in respect of such Underlying Valuation Date);

2. Adjustment Events

2.1 Adjustments for changes in the market conditions on the Reference Market

If the Calculation Agent determines that a material change in the market conditions has occurred on the Reference Market, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall be entitled to effect adjustments to the Conditions to account for these changed market conditions.

2.2 Adjustments for changes in the calculation of the Currency Exchange Rate

Any changes in the calculation (including corrections) of the Currency Exchange Rate or in the composition or weighting of the price or other reference parameters upon which the Currency Exchange Rate is based on (as compared to the Issue Date) shall not lead to an adjustment unless the Calculation Agent determines that, as a result of the changes (including corrections), the underlying concept and calculation of the Currency Exchange Rate are no longer comparable to the underlying concept or calculation of the Currency Exchange Rate applicable prior to such change. Adjustments may also be made as a result of the removal of the Currency Exchange Rate and/or its substitution by another underlying.

Underlying Specific Conditions
Currency Exchange Rate Linked Conditions

For the purpose of making any adjustments, the Calculation Agent shall determine an adjusted value per unit of the Currency Exchange Rate which shall be used for the determination of the relevant price of the Currency Exchange Rate for the Products and which in its economic result shall correspond to the provisions prior to this change. The Calculation Agent shall also determine the day on which the adjusted value per unit of the Currency Exchange Rate shall apply for the first time, taking into account the time the change occurred. The adjusted value per unit of the Currency Exchange Rate and the date of its first application shall be published pursuant to General Condition 15.

2.3 Adjustments for changes in the currency used in connection with the Currency Exchange Rate

If any Relevant Currency (the "Affected Currency") in its function as legal tender in the country(ies) or jurisdiction(s) maintaining the authority, institution or other body which issues such currency is replaced by another currency or merged with another currency to become a common currency (in each case, the "Successor Currency"), the Affected Currency shall be replaced, for the purposes of these Conditions, by the Successor Currency provided that, if applicable, the appropriate adjustments according to paragraph 2.2 above have been made. The Successor Currency and the date of its first application shall be published in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

In this case, any reference in these Conditions to the Affected Currency shall, to the extent appropriate, be deemed to refer to the Successor Currency.

2.4 Adjustments for replacement of the Reference Market

If the quotation of or trading in any Relevant Currency on the Reference Market is permanently discontinued while a quotation or trading is concurrently started up or maintained on another market (the "Substitute Reference Market"), the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to stipulate the Substitute Reference Market as the relevant Reference Market via publication in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), provided that the Issuer has not terminated the Products in accordance with these Currency Exchange Rate Linked Conditions.

In the case of such a substitution, any reference in these Conditions to the Reference Market thereafter shall be deemed to refer to the Substitute Reference Market.

The adjustment described above shall be published in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices) within the three-month period following the permanent discontinuation of the quotation of or trading in such Relevant Currency on the Reference Market.

2.5 Additional Adjustments in respect of a Basket of Underlyings

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings, if, in relation to a Basket Component, an adjustment (as described in this Currency Exchange Rate Linked Condition 2) is necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall (in addition to the adjustments pursuant to such Currency Exchange Rate Linked Condition in relation to each such Basket Component (an "Affected Basket Component")) be entitled, but not obliged to, either:

- (a) remove the Affected Basket Component(s) from the basket of Underlyings without replacement (and in such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the removal of the Affected Basket Component(s) and the economic effect thereof on the Products); or
- (b) replace the Affected Basket Component(s) in whole or in part by a new Basket Component (which may be a cash amount in the Underlying Currency representing the value of the Affected Basket Component at the time of such replacement as calculated by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion) (the "Successor Basket Component"). In such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the replacement of the Affected Basket Component(s) with the Successor Basket Component. The Successor Basket Component(s) will be selected by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion and the relevant characteristics thereof shall be as similar to the Affected Basket Component being replaced as far as reasonably practicable. Upon such replacement, the Successor Basket Component will be deemed to be the Basket Component and

Currency Exchange Rate Linked Conditions

any reference in the Conditions to the Affected Basket Component, to the extent permitted by the context, shall be deemed to refer to the Successor Basket Component.

2.6 Notice of Adjustments

Upon making any such adjustment pursuant to this Currency Exchange Rate Linked Condition 2, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall give notice to the Investors in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), stating the relevant adjustment and giving brief details of the relevant event in respect of which such adjustment was made, provided that any failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of the relevant event or any action taken.

2.7 Early Termination due to an Adjustment Event

If the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in paragraph 2.1 to 2.5 above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15, in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15.

3. Consequences of an Additional Disruption Event

If the Calculation Agent determines that an Additional Disruption Event has occurred, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may:

- (a) make such adjustment(s) to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Products of such Additional Disruption Event (including adjustments to account for changes in volatility relevant to the Currency Exchange Rate); or
- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in paragraph (a) above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

4. Correction of Rates

In the event that a Relevant Rate is subsequently corrected and the correction (the "Corrected Rate") is displayed on the relevant Price Source on or before the Business Day prior to the next date on which any relevant payment or delivery may have to be made by the Issuer or in respect of which any relevant determination in respect of the Products may have to be made, which, in each case, would require the Relevant Rate, then the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to determine the amount payable or Entitlement deliverable or make any such determination in connection with the Products after taking into account such Corrected Rate, and, to the extent necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may adjust any relevant terms of the Products to account for such Corrected Rate. Any such determination or adjustment and the date of its first application shall be published in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

The Successor Basket Component(s) will be selected by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion and the relevant characteristics thereof shall be as similar to the Affected Basket Component being replaced as far as reasonably practicable. Upon such replacement, the Successor Basket Component will be deemed to be the Basket Component and any reference in the Conditions to the Affected Basket Component, to the extent permitted by the context, shall be deemed to refer to the Successor Basket Component.

Component or (b) the day that is 60 calendar days following the Scheduled Trading Day determined in accordance with paragraph 1.2(a) above (or if such day is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the first Scheduled Trading Day following such day).

1.3 Basket of Underlyings and Underlying Valuation Dates – Common Postponement of the Underlying Valuation Dates

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings and where 'Underlying Valuation Dates – Adjustments for Disrupted Days' is specified as 'Common in respect of the basket of Underlyings' in the Issue Terms (and if the Issue Terms specify that this provision shall apply to one or more particular Underlying Valuation Dates, then this condition shall apply to such Underlying Valuation Dates only), if the Calculation Agent determines that an Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of any Basket Component, then the Underlying Valuation Date in respect of all Basket Components shall be the next following Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day in respect of any Basket Component, unless the Calculation Agent determines that each of the consecutive Scheduled Trading Days equal in number to the Maximum Days of Disruption immediately following the Scheduled Underlying Valuation Date is a Disrupted Day in respect of any Basket Component. In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date for all Basket Components, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day for one or more Instruments in the basket (each such Instrument an "Affected Instrument" in respect of such Underlying Valuation Date);
- (b) in respect of each Instrument in the basket that is not an Affected Instrument, the relevant Level shall be determined in accordance with the definition of Level on such last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day; and
- (c) in respect of each Affected Instrument, the Calculation Agent shall determine its estimate of the relevant level of such Basket Component(s) on that last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day in its reasonable discretion, taking into account the market circumstances prevailing on such day. The Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall publish the determined level of such Affected Instrument(s) in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

PROVIDED THAT, if the Underlying Valuation Date is postponed in accordance with this paragraph 1.3 due to the occurrence of an Illiquidity Event, notwithstanding the Maximum Days of Disruption, the Underlying Valuation Date for each Affected Instrument may be postponed until the earlier of (a) the first Scheduled Trading Day on which no Illiquidity Event is in existence in respect of such Affected Instrument or (b) the day that is 60 calendar days following the Scheduled Trading Day determined in accordance with paragraph 1.3(a) above (or if such day is not a Scheduled Trading Day, the first Scheduled Trading Day following such day).

2. Adjustment Events

2.1 Changes in the market conditions on the Reference Market

If, in the determination of the Calculation Agent, a material change in the market conditions has occurred on the Reference Market, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall be entitled to effect adjustments to the Conditions to account for these changed market conditions.

2.2 Changes in the calculation of the Instrument

Any changes in the calculation (including corrections) of an Instrument shall not lead to an adjustment unless the Calculation Agent determines that as a result of the changes (including corrections) the underlying concept and calculation of such Instrument is no longer comparable to the underlying concept or calculation applicable to such Instrument prior to such change. Adjustments may also be made as a result of the removal of such Instrument and/or its substitution by another underlying or the Delisting of such Instrument.

For the purposes of making any adjustments, the Calculation Agent shall determine the adjusted value of such Instrument which shall be used for the determination of the relevant price of such Instrument for the Products that, in its economic result, shall correspond to the provisions prior to this change, and shall determine the day on which the adjusted value of such Instrument shall apply for the first time taking into account the time the change occurred. The adjusted value of the Instrument and the date of its first application shall be published pursuant to General Condition 15 (Notices).

2.3 Termination, early redemption, replacement or adjustment to the terms and conditions of the Instrument

In the event that an Instrument is terminated and/or redeemed early or replaced by another Instrument, provided that such circumstance does not occur in connection with any insolvency or general settlement proceedings or other similar proceedings of the issuer of the Instrument(s), or in the event of changes to the terms and conditions of the Instrument(s), the Instrument(s) may be replaced for the purposes of these Conditions by another financial instrument (the "Successor Instrument"), if necessary, after the appropriate adjustments (if any) according to paragraph 2.2 have been made. The Successor Instrument and the date of its first application shall be published in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

In this case, any reference in these Conditions to the Instrument shall, to the extent permitted by the context, be deemed to refer to the Successor Instrument.

2.4 Replacement of the Reference Market

If the quotation of or trading in the Instrument(s) on the Reference Market is permanently discontinued while a quotation or trading is started up or maintained concurrently on another market (the "Substitute Reference Market"), the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to stipulate the Substitute Reference Market as the relevant Reference Market via publication in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

In the case of such a substitution, any reference in these Conditions to the Reference Market thereafter shall be deemed to refer to the Substitute Reference Market.

The adjustment described above shall be published in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices) within the three-month period following the permanent discontinuation of the quotation of or trading in the Instrument on the Reference Market.

2.5 Additional adjustments in respect of a Basket of Underlyings

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings, if, in relation to a Basket Component, an adjustment (as described in Fixed Rate Instrument or Derivative Instrument Linked Condition 2.1 to 2.4) is necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall (in addition to the adjustments pursuant to such Fixed Rate or Derivative Instrument Linked Condition in relation to each of such Basket Component (an "Affected Basket Component")) be entitled, but not obliged, to either:

- (a) remove the Affected Basket Component(s) from the basket of Underlyings without replacement (and in such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the removal of the Affected Basket Component(s) and the economic effect thereof on the Products); or
- (b) replace the Affected Basket Component(s) in whole or in part by a new Basket Component (which may be a cash amount in the Underlying Currency representing the value of the Affected Basket Component at the time of such replacement as calculated by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion) (the "Successor Basket Component"). In such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the replacement of the Affected Basket Component(s) with the Successor Basket Component. The Successor Basket Component(s) will be selected by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion and the relevant characteristics thereof shall be as similar to the Affected Basket Component being replaced as far as reasonably practicable. Upon such replacement, the Successor Basket Component will be deemed to be the Basket Component and any reference in the Conditions to the Affected Basket Component, to the extent permitted by the context, shall be deemed to refer to the Successor Basket Component.

2.6 Notice of Adjustments

Upon making any such adjustment pursuant to this Fixed Rate Instrument or Derivative Instrument Linked Condition 2, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall give notice to the Investors in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), stating the relevant adjustment and giving brief details of the

Fixed Rate Instrument and Derivative Instrument Linked Conditions

relevant event in respect of which such adjustment was made, provided that any failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of the relevant event or any action taken.

2.7 Early Termination due to an Adjustment Event

If the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in paragraph 2.1 to 2.5 above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

3. Correction of Prices

In the event that a Relevant Underlying Price is subsequently corrected and the correction (the "Corrected Price") is published by the Reference Market on or before the Business Day prior to the next date on which any relevant payment or delivery may have to be made by the Issuer or in respect of which any relevant determination in respect of the Products may have to be made, which, in each case, would require the Relevant Underlying Price, then the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to determine the amount payable or Entitlement deliverable or make any such determination in connection with the Products after taking into account such Corrected Price, and, to the extent necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may adjust any relevant terms of the Products to account for such Corrected Price. Any such determination or adjustment and the date of its first application shall be published in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

4. Consequences of an Additional Disruption Event

If the Calculation Agent determines that an Additional Disruption Event has occurred, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may:

- (a) make such adjustment(s) to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Products of such Additional Disruption Event; or
- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in paragraph (a) above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

(ii) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment that it could make pursuant to paragraph 2.2(a)(i) above leads to a commercially reasonable result, then the Calculation Agent may select:

(A) another fund that is in the same currency and has the same investment objective as the relevant Fund (the "Replacement Fund"); and

(B) the applicable day (the "Fund Replacement Date") for the replacement of the relevant Fund with the Replacement Fund (for the avoidance of doubt, the Calculation Agent may set the Fund Replacement Date as any date, including any date before the occurrence of the relevant Extraordinary Event or the Issue Date), in which case, (I) the Replacement Fund replaces the Relevant Fund on the Fund Replacement Date, (II) references herein to the Fund are deemed, from the Fund Replacement Date, to be references to the Replacement Fund and (III) the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion undertakes the appropriate adjustments to variables that it considers to be appropriate, as the case may be, regarding the calculation methods, the valuation, settlement or payment terms in respect of the Products to account for such substitution; or

(b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in (a) above (or in paragraph 2.3 below) would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. - (b) replace the Affected Basket Component(s) in whole or in part by a new Basket Component (which may be a cash amount in the Underlying Currency representing the value of the Affected Basket Component at the time of such replacement as calculated by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion) (the "Successor Basket Component"). In such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the replacement of the Affected Basket Component(s) with the Successor Basket Component. The Successor Basket Component(s) will be selected by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion and the relevant characteristics thereof shall be as similar to the Affected Basket Component being replaced as far as reasonably practicable. Upon such replacement, the Successor Basket Component will be deemed to be the Basket Component and any reference in the Conditions to the Affected Basket Component, to the extent permitted by the context, shall be deemed to refer to the Successor Basket Component.

If the Calculation Agent determines that an Additional Disruption Event has occurred, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may:

- (a) make such adjustment(s) to the Conditions as the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Products of such Additional Disruption Event (including adjustments to account for changes in volatility, expected dividends or liquidity relevant to the Fund); or
- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in paragraph (a) above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

Any adjustment made by the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent pursuant to this ETF Linked Condition 3 shall be notified to Investors, stating the relevant adjustment and the effective date of such adjustment, in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

In that case:

- (a) the last consecutive Scheduled Trading Day shall be deemed to be the relevant Underlying Valuation Date for all Basket Components, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day for one or more Fund Units in the basket (each such Fund Unit an "Affected Fund Unit" in respect of such Underlying Valuation Date);

- (a) If the Calculation Agent determines that a Potential Adjustment Event has occurred or is likely to occur, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may (but is not obliged to), if the Calculation Agent determines in its reasonable discretion, that such event is material and adversely affects the relevant Fund Unit or the calculation of the NAV of such Fund Unit:

 - (D) the Hedging Entity is able to fully hedge its position with respect to the Replacement Fund as at the date on which the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent elects to replace the Fund with the Replacement Fund; or
- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in paragraph (a) above (and paragraph 2.2 below) would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

If the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent elects to replace a Fund with a Replacement Fund, any reference to such Fund in these Fund Linked Conditions shall, to the extent appropriate, be deemed to refer to such Replacement Fund.

Any adjustment made by the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent pursuant to this Fund Linked Condition 2 shall be notified to Investors, stating the relevant adjustment and the effective date of such adjustment, in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

2.2 Additional Adjustments in respect of a Basket of Underlyings

Where the Products relate to a basket of Underlyings, if, in relation to a Basket Component, an adjustment (as described in Fund Linked Condition 2) is necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall (in addition to the adjustments pursuant to such Fund Linked Condition in relation to each such Basket Component (an "Affected Basket Component")) be entitled, but not obliged to either:

- (a) remove the Affected Basket Component(s) from the basket of Underlyings without replacement (and in such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the removal of the Affected Basket Component(s) and the economic effect thereof on the Products); or
- (b) replace the Affected Basket Component(s) in whole or in part by a new Basket Component (which may be a cash amount in the Underlying Currency representing the value of the Affected Basket Component at the time of such replacement as calculated by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion) (the "Successor Basket Component"). In such case, the Calculation Agent may make such amendments to the Conditions as it reasonably determines are appropriate to take into account the replacement of the Affected Basket Component(s) with the Successor Basket Component. The Successor Basket Component(s) will be selected by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion and the relevant characteristics thereof shall be as similar to the Affected Basket Component being replaced as far as reasonably practicable. Upon such replacement, the Successor Basket Component will be deemed to be the Basket Component and any reference in the Conditions to the Affected Basket Component, to the extent permitted by the context, shall be deemed to refer to the Successor Basket Component.

2.3 Notice of Adjustments

Upon making any such adjustment pursuant to this Fund Linked Condition 2, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent shall give notice to the Investors in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), stating the relevant adjustment and giving brief details of the relevant event in respect of which such adjustment was made, provided that any failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of the relevant event or any action taken.

The adjustment and the date of its first application shall be published in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

4. Consequences of an Additional Disruption Event

If the Calculation Agent determines that an Additional Disruption Event has occurred, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may:

- (a) make such adjustment(s) to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Products of such Additional Disruption Event; or
- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no adjustment as described in paragraph (a) above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. REFERENCE RATE LINKED CONDITIONS

The provisions of these Reference Rate Linked Conditions shall apply to Reference Rate Linked Products in respect of each Underlying and/or Products with a Coupon Underlying, which is a Reference Rate.

1. Determination of the Reference Rate

The relevant level of the Reference Rate in respect of any Underlying Valuation Date will be determined by the Calculation Agent in its reasonable discretion on the following basis:

- (a) the Calculation Agent will, in its reasonable discretion, determine the relevant level of the respective Reference Rate which appears on the relevant Screen Page as of the Relevant Time on the relevant Underlying Valuation Date;
- (b) if, in respect of an Underlying Valuation Date, the Calculation Agent determines that the relevant level of the Reference Rate does not appear on the relevant Screen Page or the relevant Screen Page is unavailable, the Calculation Agent will as Fallback Determination of Reference Rate:

- (i) in case the Issue Terms specify Reference Banks Quotation:

- (A) request the principal Relevant Financial Centre office of each of the Reference Banks to provide a quotation of such Reference Rate at approximately the Relevant Time on such Underlying Valuation Date to prime banks in the Relevant Financial Centre interbank market in an amount that is representative for a single transaction in that market at that time; and
- (B) determine the arithmetic mean of such quotations (rounded upward or downwards, if necessary, to the Quotation Rounding), provided that if fewer than two such quotations are provided as requested under paragraph 1(a) above, then the Calculation Agent shall determine its estimate of the relevant level of the Reference Rate in respect of such Underlying Valuation Date in its reasonable discretion, taking into account the market circumstances prevailing on such day (any such determination made pursuant to this Reference Rate Linked Condition 1 shall be notified to Investors in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices));

- (ii) in case the Issue Terms specify Previous Day Rate:

the Calculation Agent will select the last Reference Rate published at the Relevant Time for any of the previous five Business Days;

or

- (c) if the Calculation Agent has determined, in its reasonable discretion, that an Underlying Event has occurred, notwithstanding the provisions above in paragraphs 1(a) and (b) above, it is entitled:

- (i) if a successor reference rate has been determined for the respective Reference Rate by a public announcement issued by the administrator of the respective Reference Rate, the competent central bank or a regulatory and/or supervisory authority or a successor administrator (each a "Relevant Nominating Body"), to set such rate as the successor reference rate (the "Successor Reference Rate") and to use it instead of the respective Reference Rate on the relevant Underlying Valuation Date and on any subsequent Underlying Valuation Date for the Products; provided that, if two or more alternative Successor Reference Rates are selected by any Relevant Nominating Body, the

Reference Rate Linked Conditions

Calculation Agent shall determine which of those alternative Successor Reference Rates is most appropriate to preserve the economic features of the relevant Product.

- (ii) if a Successor Reference Rate has not been determined by such announcement, to set as the successor reference rate a rate which is comparable to the respective Reference Rate at its reasonable discretion and taking into account market practices (the "Successor Reference Rate") and to use such Successor Reference Rate on the relevant Underlying Valuation Date and any subsequent Underlying Valuation Date for the Products, where, if the Calculation Agent determines that an appropriate rate exists which is generally accepted in the financial sector as the Successor Reference Rate for the respective Underlying and/or Basket Component, it will set such rate as the Successor Reference Rate for the Products and will use that Successor Reference Rate for the Products on the relevant Underlying Valuation Date and any subsequent Underlying Valuation Date, provided that, in the event that a Successor Reference Rate is determined by the Calculation Agent pursuant to subparagraphs (i) or (ii) above, the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to determine in its reasonable discretion the method for periodically determining the amount of the Successor Reference Rate and, if necessary, to make adjustments to the provisions of the Conditions on which the Products are based with respect to the calculation of the Successor Reference Rate and the Coupon and the redemption of the Products in general, provided that only such adjustments are made that do not result in an economic disadvantage to the Investor. The determination of a Successor Reference Rate and any adjustments to the Conditions on which the Products are based pursuant to the preceding paragraphs as well as the respective effective dates thereof shall be announced by the Calculation Agent in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

- (d) if the Calculation Agent determines that (i) no determination as described in (a) above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result; or (b) in the case of an Underlying Event, it is not possible to determine a Successor Reference Rate, the Calculation Agent may determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

2. Consequences of an Additional Disruption Event

If the Calculation Agent determines that an Additional Disruption Event has occurred, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may:

- (a) make such adjustment(s) to the Conditions as the Calculation Agent determines appropriate to account for the economic effect on the Products of such Additional Disruption Event; or
- (b) if the Calculation Agent determines that no determination as described in (a) above would be possible or would achieve a commercially reasonable result, determine that the Issuer shall redeem the Products by giving not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) Business Days' irrevocable notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices), in which case the Issuer shall redeem the Products and cause to be paid to each Investor in respect of each Product held by it an amount equal to the Unscheduled Early Redemption Amount. The termination shall become valid on the day of the notice in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

3. Correction of Rates

In the event that a Relevant Rate is subsequently corrected and the correction (the "Corrected Rate") is displayed on the relevant Screen Page on or before the Business Day prior to the next date on which any relevant payment or delivery may have to be made by the Issuer or in respect of which any relevant determination in respect of the Products may have to be made, which, in each case, would require the Relevant Rate, then the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to determine the amount payable or Entitlement deliverable or make any such determination in connection with the Products after taking into account such Corrected Rate, and, to the extent necessary, the Issuer and/or Calculation Agent may adjust any relevant terms of the Products to account for such Corrected Rate. DESCRIPTION OF TCM ("TRIPARTY COLLATERAL MANAGEMENT") SECURED PRODUCTS

1. Introduction

Each TCM Secured Product is secured by collateral (the "Collateral") provided by Leonteq Securities AG (in such capacity, the "Collateral Provider") in accordance with the terms of the TCM Security Agreement (as defined below under the heading 'Documentation'). The Collateral Provider undertakes to secure the value of the TCM Secured Products at any given time.

Each Investor in a TCM Secured Product is a "Collateral Taker" in respect of such TCM Secured Product and are represented by SIX Repo AG as the "Collateral Agent" (as described in detail below under the heading 'Documentation'). Each Collateral Taker has a security interest in the sense of Art. 25 FISA regarding intermediated securities and a lien according to article 899 et seq. of the Swiss Civil Code regarding the cash, each as provided as Collateral to secure the TCM Secured Product. In respect of each TCM Secured Product, the Collateral is booked to an account of the Collateral Provider with SIX SIS AG (such account, the "Collateral Account"). SIX SIS AG, acting as an independent third party, manages both the Collateral Account and the collateral assignment for the relevant TCM Secured Product.

The Collateral Provider has no right to dispose of the Collateral in the Collateral Account or to close or transfer the Collateral Account. The Collateral is valued by SIX SIS AG several times on each day banks are open for business in Zurich (a "Business Day").

The Collateral required for the TCM Secured Products is determined by SIX SIS AG on the basis of the price information (a) provided by the Issuer and (b) published in the market information system of SIX Financial Information AG. The Collateral Provider shall be obliged to adjust the Collateral to account for any changes in value of the TCM Secured Product (for further detail please refer to the section below under the heading 'Collateralisation Method'). Permitted types of collateral shall be selected by SIX SIS AG on an ongoing basis. At the date of this Base Prospectus, the TCM Security Agreement provides that the following are permitted types of collateral: cash deposits in specified currencies (e.g. in CHF, EUR, USD, GBP, or JPY) and certain types of securities (e.g., securities that directly or indirectly aggregate to the value of the relevant TCM Secured Product). Securities may only be used as collateral if the price is not older than four Business Days. The Collateral Provider shall, upon request at any given time, inform Investors about the Collateral that is eligible. The costs for the collateralisation of the TCM Secured Products will be included in the issue price and will not be billed separately to investors.

2. Documentation

The collateralisation in favour of the Collateral Taker with regard to the TCM Secured Product issued by the Issuer is based on the security agreement between the Issuer (who is also the Collateral Provider), the Collateral Taker (represented by the Collateral Agent) and SIX SIS AG dated 3 March 2023 as amended or replaced from time to time (the "TCM Security Agreement"). The Issuer shall, upon request, provide a copy of the TCM Security Agreement to Investors free of charge. The TCM Security Agreement may be obtained from Issuer at Europaallee 39, CH-8004 Zurich, via telephone (+4158 800 1111), via fax (+4158 800 1010) or via e-mail (termsheet@leonteq.com).

Under the terms of the TCM Security Agreement, the Issuer is responsible for issuing and pricing the TCM Secured Product. The Issuer is, at the same time, the Collateral Provider and, to that extent, is responsible for selecting the Collateral available for a deposit from the permitted types of collateral. Furthermore, the Collateral Provider provides collateral to the SIX SIS AG as custodian (the "Custodian"), and grants a lien in favour of the Collateral Taker with regard to the Collateral.

The Collateral Taker is the Investor in the TCM Secured Product under the TCM Security Agreement. The Collateral Taker is the beneficiary for any proceeds from the sale of the Collateral provided as security for a TCM Secured Product if a Realization Event occurs. By purchasing a TCM Secured Product, the Collateral Taker agrees to exercise its rights under the TCM Security Agreement solely through the Collateral Agent. The acquisition of a TCM Secured Product by an Investor is automatically accompanied by a declaration to the Collateral Agent, as its representative, that the Collateral Agent may exercise the Investor's rights under the TCM Security Agreement in the event of a Realization Event. Investors are bound by the provisions of the TCM Security Agreement and particularly the choice of Swiss law and the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Canton of Zurich (Switzerland) vis-à-vis the Collateral Agent and SIX SIS AG.

The Collateral Agent acts in accordance with the TCM Security Agreement as the direct representative of the Collateral Taker and acts on behalf of and in the Collateral Taker's name. In the case of a Realization Event, the Collateral Agent will use the collateral in favour of the Collateral Taker (see below under the heading 'Liquidation of Collateral').

SIX SIS AG acts as Custodian under the TCM Security Agreement, and is responsible for the administration of the Collateral Account on which the Collateral is booked. SIX SIS AG acts, in this regard, as a neutral and independent service provider and is not subject to the directions of the Collateral Provider as the account holder. Furthermore, SIX SIS AG shall act as an administrator under the TCM Security Agreement (the "Administrator") and will monitor and manage the Collateral assigned to the individual TCM Secured Product. The Administrator calculates the collateral requirements for a TCM Secured Product several times throughout each Business Day, and automatically assigns additional assets held by the Collateral Provider with the Custodian in a pool account ("Pool Account") to the Collateral Account, if necessary. If the assets held on the Pool Account are not sufficient, the Administrator informs the Issuer that additional Collateral must be provided. Furthermore, the Collateral Provider will inform the Collateral Agent if Realization Event has occurred.

3. Collateralisation Method

The collateral that must be furnished by the Collateral Provider is determined by the value of the TCM Secured Product at any given time (the "Current Value"). The Current Value of the TCM Secured Product is calculated exclusively by, and with full responsibility of, the Collateral Provider in accordance with acknowledged accounting principles. Neither the Collateral Agent, nor SIX SIS AG nor SIX Financial Information AG recalculates or otherwise reviews the calculation of the Current Value. The Current Value is communicated by the Collateral Provider to SIX Financial Information AG who will then publish the Current Value. SIX SIS AG calculates whether the coverage requirements for the Collateral on the basis of the Current Value as published by SIX Financial Information AG are met. Neither the Collateral Agent, nor SIX SIS AG nor SIX Financial Information AG shall be liable for any losses or damages suffered by any Collateral Taker as a consequence of an inaccurate calculation of the Current Value or of an inaccurate communication of such value to SIX Financial Information AG. The calculation method shall be determined for each TCM Secured Product upon its issuance and shall remain unchanged for its entire term. The Collateral provided for a Product will not secure any other TCM Secured Product.

4. Liquidation of Collateral

A "Realization Event" will be deemed to have occurred if (i) the Collateral Provider fails to furnish the required collateral or fails to do so in due time, unless this is remedied within five (5) Business Days; (ii) the Issuer fails to pay the principal amount under the TCM Secured Product (but not any amount of interest, coupon or other intermediate payment) according to the Conditions when due, unless this is remedied within five (5) Business Days; or (iii) FINMA orders protective measures with regard to the Issuer or the Collateral Provider under article 26 paragraph 1 letter (f) or (h) of the Banking Act, or restructuring proceedings under article 28 et seq. of Banking Act or liquidation (winding-up proceedings) under article 33 et seq. of the Banking Act (each such event a "Realization Event"). The TCM Security Agreement provides for the exact time at which each Realization Event occurs. The remedy of a Realization Event is not possible.

5. Determination of a Realization Event

The Collateral Agent is not required to undertake investigations with regard to the occurrence of a Realization Event. In determining the occurrence of a Realization Event, it bases its decision on reliable sources of information only. The Collateral Agent determines with binding effect for the Investors whether an incident qualifies as a Realization Event and at what point in time the Realization Event occurred.

6. Procedure in case of a Realization Event

If a Realization Event occurs, the Collateral Agent is at its discretion entitled: (i) to make public the occurrence of a Realization Event immediately or at a later stage in suitable form; as well as (ii) to liquidate immediately or at a later stage – without regard to the amount of unsatisfied claims – all existing Collateral on a private basis, provided the applicable legal regulations or regulatory orders do not prohibit such private liquidation (and, if a private liquidation is not possible, hand the collateral over to the competent person for liquidation).

7. Maturity of the TCM Secured Product as well as investor claims against the Issuer

The Collateral Taker shall have a security interest in accordance with article 25 of the Swiss Federal Intermediated Securities Act ("FISA") over the intermediated securities and a lien according to article 899 et seq. of the Swiss Civil Code over the cash, each as provided as Collateral to secure the TCM Secured Product. The Realization Event with regard to a TCM Secured Product will only trigger the consequences of a Realization Event for this particular TCM Secured Product (and not other TCM Secured Products of the Issuer). If a Realization Event with regard to a TCM Secured Product has occurred, the Collateral Agent will determine as the "Liquidation Value" of such TCM Secured Product the latest Current Value available prior to the occurrence of the Realization Event. This Liquidation Value shall be binding on the Collateral Provider and the Investors. Investors' claims against the Issuer will be based on this Liquidation Value when the TCM Secured Products mature in accordance with the TCM Security Agreement.

8. Costs of liquidation and payout for the benefit of the investors

Any costs of the Collateral Agent, including in connection with the liquidation of the Collateral (including fees, taxes and duties that arise in conjunction with liquidation) shall, in advance, be covered out of the proceeds of the liquidation of the Collateral (the "Liquidation Proceeds"). In addition, the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to satisfy, in advance and out of the Liquidation Proceeds, any outstanding claims it holds against the Collateral Provider under the terms of the TCM Security Agreement. The remaining Liquidation Proceeds are available for payout to the Investors in the relevant TCM Secured Product. Each Investor's pro-rata share of the net Liquidation Proceeds will be paid to Investors via SIX SIS AG on a delivery versus payment basis. Once this payment has been made the Collateral Agent is released from all further obligations. The claim of the Investors is non-interest-bearing. Payment to Investors following the occurrence of a Realization Event may be only occur upon completion of the liquidation of the Collateral in accordance with the terms of the TCM Security Agreement. If the payment is delayed for any reason, the Collateral Agent and SIX SIS AG are not liable to pay either default interest or damages. Each TCM Secured Product will only be secured by the Collateral assigned on the Collateral Account to the respective TCM Secured Product. The Investors' claims against the Issuer in respect of the TCM Secured Product are reduced by the amount of the payment of the Net Liquidation Proceeds. No further Investors' claims exist against the Collateral Agent, SIX SIS AG or other persons which are involved in the collateralisation service for the TCM Secured Product under the terms of the TCM Security Agreement.

DESCRIPTION OF EXCHANGE TRADED PRODUCTS ("ETPS")

This section describes the material structural and trading aspects and conditions for Products issued as ETPs.

1. Summary of ETPs

1.1 General

The ETPs are products in the sense of the Conditions for Exchange Traded Funds & Exchange Traded Products Segment of Deutsche Börse AG (the "DBAG Conditions"). The Underlyings of ETPs are limited to underlyings eligible under the DBAG Conditions and ETPs are collateralised as TCM Products in order to meet the collateralisation requirements pursuant to the DBAG Conditions.

1.2 Summary of issuance and redemption process of ETPs

The issue and redemption process is intended to ensure that ETPs have sufficient liquidity and that the price at which they trade on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange or other relevant trading venues track the relevant Underlyings. The Authorised Participant may apply for or redeem the ETPs in its sole discretion. All other persons are required to buy and sell ETPs through trading on the regulated market, any other relevant trading venue on which the ETPs are admitted to trading or off-exchange from the Issuer. They can also request a direct redemption from the Issuer in accordance with the Conditions.

1.3 Function of Authorised Participants

Only Leonteq Securities AG and/or any other Authorised Participant(s) as specified in the Issue Terms or otherwise mandated by the Issuer from time to time in such role ("Authorised Participant") may initiate the creation or redemption of ETPs directly from the Issuer, other than in the limited circumstances otherwise described herein. Authorised Participants will transfer funds to the Issuer or directly to the Custodian. These trades will then internally settle on a delivery of underlying basis or cash basis.

A person or entity can only be considered an Authorised Participant if it is a securities house or other market professional approved by the Issuer (in its absolute discretion). An Authorised Participant must also have entered into an authorised participant agreement with the Issuer dealing with, amongst other things, the rights and obligations of the Authorised Participant in relation to applying for and redeeming the ETPs. Leonteq Securities AG and/or its affiliates may act as an Authorised Participant.

The Issuer will use reasonable efforts to ensure that at all times for the duration of the Product there is at least one Authorised Participant. In the event that at any time there are no Authorised Participants, Investors will be permitted to redeem the securities respectively held by them directly from the Issuer.

It is intended that Authorised Participants will sell ETPs in the secondary market to Investors who have either directly approached the Authorised Participant(s) or to Investors on a securities exchange or trading venue on which the ETPs are listed (as applicable) for a purchase price agreed between the Authorised Participant and such Investor(s) in respect of the ETPs. Investors may sell the ETPs from time-to-time in the secondary market to third parties or to Authorised Participants.

The relevant Authorised Participant(s) in relation to an ETP is specified in the Final Terms. The Issuer may appoint additional Authorised Participants from time to time in its sole discretion. Any additional Authorised Participant will be notified to any existing Investors of an ETP, if any, in accordance with General Condition 15 (Notices).

2. Collateralisation

ETPs are issued as TCM Products and are collateralised in accordance with the Terms for TCM Products pursuant to section 'Description of TCM ("Triparty Collateral Management") Secured Products', subject to compliance with the DBAG Conditions.

3. Issuance and Redemption of ETPs

3.1 Issuance of ETPs

ETPs may be issued on the initiative of the Issuer or upon request of a potential Investor to, and subscribed by one or more Authorised Participant(s). The ETPs, which have been created in the form as specified in the Issue Terms, are delivered to the Authorised Participant immediately upon notice from the Authorised Participant. There is no minimum number of ETPs that must be applied for in order to ensure creation. The Authorised Participant will decline applications for ETPs if it has been notified that the Issuer cannot for any reason ensure their collateralisation as TCM Products.

3.2 Redemption of ETPs

(a) Issuer Redemption

The Issuer may terminate and redeem the ETPs in accordance with the Conditions.

(b) Investor Redemption Rights

The redemption rights of the Investors are defined in the Conditions.

TAXATION

Investors should be aware that the tax legislation of the country in which the Investor is resident and of the Issuer's country of incorporation may have an impact on the income received from the Products.

The level and basis of taxation on the Products and on the Investor depend on the Investors individual circumstances and could change at any time and may have an adverse impact on the return received by the investor under the Product.

1. General taxation information

Transactions involving Products (including purchases, transfers and/or redemptions), the accrual or receipt of any interest or premium payable on the Products, the delivery of any entitlement and the death of a holder of any Product may have tax consequences for Investors which may depend, amongst other things, upon the tax residence and/or status of the Investor, the terms and conditions of the particular Product and the relevant law and practice of taxation authorities in relevant jurisdictions. Investors are therefore advised to consult their own tax advisers as to the tax consequences of transactions involving Products and the effect of any tax laws in any jurisdiction in which they may be tax resident or otherwise liable to tax. In particular, no representation is made as to the manner in which payments under the Products would be characterised by any relevant taxing authority.

Purchasers and/or sellers of Products may be required to pay stamp taxes and other charges in addition to the issue price or purchase price (if different) of the Products and in connection with the transfer or delivery of any Underlying.

Investors are referred to General Condition 5.6 (Taxes, Settlement Expenses and conditions to settlement) and General Condition 6 (Redemption and Settlement).

Terms defined in the sections below are defined for the purpose of the relevant section only.

2. United States Taxation

The following is an overview of certain of the material US federal income tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of Products by a non-US holder that has no connection to the United States other than holding the Products. For purposes of this section, a "non-US holder" is a beneficial owner of Products that is: (i) a non-resident alien individual for US federal income tax purposes; (ii) a foreign corporation for US federal income tax purposes; or (iii) an estate or trust whose income is not subject to US federal income tax on a net income basis. If a partnership (including any entity treated as a partnership for US federal income tax purposes) holds Products, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend on the status of the partner and upon the activities of the partnership. Investors that are not non-US holders or investors that are partnerships, should consult their tax advisers with regard to the US federal income tax considerations of an investment in the Products.

This summary is based on interpretations of the US Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code"), Treasury regulations issued thereunder, and rulings and decisions currently in effect (or in some cases proposed), all of which are subject to change. Any of those changes may be applied retroactively and may adversely affect the US federal income tax consequences described herein. Prospective investors should consult their own tax advisers concerning the application of US federal income tax laws to their particular situations as well as any consequences of the purchase, beneficial ownership and disposition of Products arising under the laws of any other taxing jurisdiction.

INVESTORS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISERS AS TO THE US FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, AND OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE PURCHASE, OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF PRODUCTS.

Withholding Under Section 871(m)

Under section 871(m) of the Code and regulations thereunder, a payment on a financial instrument that directly or indirectly references a US company may be treated as a "dividend equivalent" payment from sources within the United States. Such payments generally will be subject to US withholding tax at a rate of 30 per cent. The regulations provide that a payment includes a dividend equivalent payment whether there is an explicit or implicit reference to a dividend with respect to the underlying security. An underlying security is any interest in an entity if a payment with respect to that interest could give rise to a US source dividend. Certain exceptions may apply to an issue of Products that references an index that is treated as a "qualified index".

Final regulations and administrative guidance provide that with respect to a financial instrument issued on or after 1 January 2017 and before 1 January 2025, an instrument that has a delta of one with respect to an underlying security will be subject to withholding. With respect to a financial instrument issued on or after 1 January 2025, (a) a "simple" financial instrument that has a delta of 0.8 or greater with respect to an underlying security and (b) a "complex" financial instrument that meets the "substantial equivalence test" with respect to an underlying security will be subject to withholding under section 871(m). The delta of a simple instrument is determined, and the substantial equivalence test for a complex instrument is performed, on the earlier of the date that the financial instrument is priced and the date when the financial instrument is issued; however, the issue date must be used if the financial instrument is priced more than 14 calendar days before it is issued. In addition, the delta or substantial equivalence of Products that are sold or acquired after their initial issuance may, in certain cases, be required to be retested at the time of sale. If such Products are determined to be section 871(m) transactions, it is possible that all holders of Products, including holders of Products sold at their initial issuance, may be adversely affected if the Issuer or a withholding agent does not, or is unable to, identify and distinguish Products sold at initial issuance and thereafter.

Certain events may cause previously issued Products to be deemed to be new issuances for purposes of the effective dates provided in the regulations. For example, it is possible that the IRS could assert that a reconstitution or rebalancing of an underlying basket or index is a significant modification of a Product due to an exercise of discretion with respect to such reconstitution or rebalancing and a deemed reissuance upon the occurrence of such event. It is also possible that US withholding tax could apply to the Products under these rules if a holder enters, or has entered, into certain other transactions in respect of the underlying equity or the Products. A holder that enters, or has entered, into other transactions in respect of the underlying or the Products should consult its own tax advisor regarding the application of section 871(m) to its Products in the context of its other transactions.

Withholding on payments will be based on actual dividends or, if otherwise notified by the Issuer in accordance with applicable regulations, on estimated dividends used in pricing the Product. If a Product provides for any payments in addition to estimated dividends to reflect dividends on the underlying security, withholding will be based on total payments. If the Products are subject to withholding under section 871(m), information regarding the amount of each dividend equivalent and any other information necessary to apply the regulations in respect of such Products will be provided, communicated, or made available to holders of the Products in a manner permitted by the applicable regulations. Withholding tax may apply even where holders do not receive a concurrent payment on the Products in respect of dividends on a reference asset. US tax will be withheld on any portion of a payment or deemed payment on the Products treated as a dividend equivalent.

If payments on the Products are subject to withholding under section 871(m), the Issuer expects to withhold at 30 per cent. even if a holder is otherwise eligible for a reduction under an applicable treaty. Non-US holders that are entitled to a lower rate of withholding under a tax treaty may be able to claim a refund for any excess amounts withheld by filing a US tax return. However, holders may not receive the necessary information to properly claim a refund for any withholding in excess of the applicable treaty-based amount. In addition, the IRS may not credit a holder for withholding taxes remitted in respect of a Product for purposes of claiming a refund. Finally, a holder's resident tax jurisdiction may not permit the holder to take a credit for US withholding taxes related to dividend equivalent amounts. The Issuer will not pay any additional amounts with respect to amounts withheld.

The relevant Issue Terms may indicate if the Issuer has determined that a Product is subject to withholding under section 871(m). Although the Issuer's determination generally is binding on holders, it is not binding on the IRS. The IRS may successfully argue that a Product is subject to withholding under section 871(m), notwithstanding the Issuer's determination to the contrary. The section 871(m) regulations are extremely complex. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the US federal income tax consequences to them of section 871(m) and regulations thereunder, and whether payments or deemed payments on the Products constitute dividend equivalent payments.

Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax

Under Section 897 of the Code, commonly referred to as the US Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act ("FIRPTA"), a Non-US Holder may be subject to US federal income tax on a disposition of a United States real property interest (a "USRPI"). Very generally, a USRPI may be an interest in US real property or an interest in a United States real property holding corporation (a "USRPHC") within the meaning of Section 897 of the Code. However, an interest in a USRPHC that does not exceed generally 5 per cent. (10 per cent. in the case of a real estate investment trust) of the corporation's regularly traded stock is not a USRPI, after taking into account shares or interests of the underlying issuer that are directly, indirectly or constructively owned by such Non-US Holder. In addition, holding Products may also impact the taxation of such other shares or interests.

The Issuer will not attempt to ascertain whether an issuer of reference shares, or an issuer of shares that are components of an index or basket, is a USRPHC. If a Product is a USRPI, any gain from the disposition thereof generally would be subject to US federal income tax and required to be reported by the Non-US Holder on a US federal income tax return, and the amount realised on such disposition would in certain cases be subject to withholding at a rate of 15 per cent. Even if the Issuer does not withhold, there can be no assurance that a withholding agent will not withhold in respect of a Product. A Non-US Holder may have US income tax liability that exceeds amounts withheld, if any. Neither the Issuer nor a withholding agent will pay any additional amounts in respect of amounts withheld or any tax liability arising under section 897 of the Code. Non-US Holders should consult with their tax advisors regarding the application of section 897 to an investment in the Products.

US Federal Estate Tax

Products may be subject to US federal estate tax if an individual holds the Products at the time of his or her death. The gross estate of a holder domiciled outside the United States includes only property situated in the United States. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the US federal estate tax consequences of holding the Products at death.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

A holder may be subject to backup withholding with respect to certain amounts paid to such holder unless it provides a correct taxpayer identification number, complies with certain certification procedures establishing that it is not a US person or establishes proof of another applicable exemption, and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. A holder can claim a credit against its US federal income tax liability for amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules, and amounts in excess of its liability are refundable if such holder provides the required information to the IRS in a timely fashion. A holder may also be subject to information reporting to the IRS with respect to certain amounts paid to such holder unless it (1) provides a properly executed IRS Form W-8 (or other qualifying documentation) or (2) otherwise establishes a basis for exemption. If such withholding applies, the Issuer will not be required to pay any additional amounts with respect to amounts withheld.

FATCA

Under sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any final current or future regulations or official interpretations thereof, any agreement entered into pursuant to section 1471(b) of the Code, or any US or non-US fiscal or regulatory legislation, rules or practices adopted pursuant to any intergovernmental agreement entered into in connection with the implementation of such sections of the Code or any other non-US tax information reporting regimes ("FATCA"), a 30 per cent. withholding tax may be imposed on "withholdable payments" and certain "passthru payments" made to (i) a "foreign financial institution" unless the financial institution complies with, among other things, certain information reporting and withholding obligations with respect to its accounts in accordance with applicable rules, and (ii) any other holder or beneficial owner that does not comply with the Issuer's or an intermediary financial institution's request for ownership certifications and identifying information. The failure to provide such information, or the failure of certain non-US financial institutions to comply with FATCA, may compel the Issuer or an intermediary to withhold 30 per cent. on payments on the Products to such holders. Neither the Issuer nor any other person will pay any additional amounts with respect to such withholding.

Withholding under FATCA applies currently to "withholdable payments" and with respect to "foreign passthru payments," will apply no earlier than the date that is two years after the date on which final US Treasury regulations defining "foreign passthru payments" are published. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the withholding provisions of FATCA discussed above generally will not apply to any obligation (other than an obligation that is treated as equity for US tax purposes or that lacks a stated expiration or term) that is outstanding on 30 June 2014 (a "grandfathered obligation"), unless the obligation is materially modified after such date.

The discussion above reflects recently proposed US Treasury regulations. The US Treasury have indicated that taxpayers may rely on the proposed regulations until final regulations are issued, and the discussion above assumes that the proposed regulations will be finalised in their current form.

No assurance can be given that payments on the Products will not be subject to withholding under FATCA. Each potential investor in Products should consult its own tax advisor to determine how FATCA may affect an investment in the Products in such investor's particular circumstance.

- (a) the relevant Final Terms specify that a not Exempt offer may be made to the public in the Republic of Italy and that each offeror may offer, sell or deliver Products or distribute copies of any prospectus relating to the Products, provided that such prospectus has been (i) approved in another Member State and notified to CONSOB, and (ii) completed by final terms (if applicable) expressly contemplating such non-exempt offer, in the twelve months period of validity of this Base Prospectus commencing on the date of its approval, in accordance with the EU Prospectus Regulation, under the Italian Legislative Decree No. 58 of 24th February, 1998 as amended from time to time ("Italian Financial Services Act") and CONSOB Regulation No. 11971 of 14th May, 1999, as amended from time to time ("CONSOB Regulation No. 11971");

- (b) if any of the Products which have been initially offered and placed with Qualified Investors in the Republic of Italy or abroad are then regularly ("sistematicamente") resold on the secondary market in the Republic of Italy to non-qualified investors in the 12 months following the placement, such resale would qualify as an offer of securities to the public if no exemption under (c) above applies. Where this occurs, if a prospectus compliant with the EU Prospectus Regulation, the Italian Financial Services Act and CONSOB Regulation No. 11971, has not been published, the purchasers of such Products (who are acting outside of the course of their business or profession) may be entitled to obtain that the resale is declared null and void and the authorised entities ("soggetti abilitati" as defined in the Italian Financial Services Act) transferring the Products may be held liable for any damages suffered by the non-qualified investors; and
- (c) any intermediary subsequently reselling the Products is entitled to rely upon the prospectus published by the issuer or the person responsible for drawing up a prospectus as long as this is valid, duly supplemented in accordance with the Italian Financial Services Act and CONSOB Regulation No. 11971 and provided that the issuer or the person responsible for drawing up a prospectus gives its written consent to its use.

Aspects relating to specific customer goals and needs, such as an environmental, social or sustainable investment

With respect to Products issued with environmental, social or sustainable objectives, such as an environmental sustainable or sustainable investment or considerations of principal adverse impacts on sustainability factors, no guarantee or representation can be made that these objectives are appropriate for an investor's objectives, needs or investment criteria and its preferences. The target market defined by the Issuer as the manufacturer of the product may provide for certain Products to meet specific client needs, characteristics and objectives, such as "sustainable", "ecological", "ESG" (Environmental, Social and Governance) related objectives which, in the case of an "environmental" or "green" or "sustainable" investment, may also be capable of making a significant contribution to a particular environmental objective for a particular economic activity ("ESG Contribution"). Prospective investors should take into account the information contained in the relevant target market about the specific objectives of a Product, and should determine themselves the relevance of such information for the purposes of investing in such Products, as well as undertake any other investigation that the investor deems necessary. In particular, the Issuer gives no assurance that the identification of client needs, characteristics and objectives will fully or partially satisfy an investors' current or future preference or requirements for investment criteria or policies that the investor or its investments must comply with, whether as a result of current or future laws or regulations or its own statutes or other regulations or mandates, particularly in relation to direct or indirect environmental, sustainability or social impacts of projects or uses that are the subject of or form part of an ESG Contribution.

Furthermore, it should be noted that there is currently no clearly defined term (legal, regulatory or otherwise) of, nor market consensus as to what constitutes, a "green", "sustainable", "social" or an equivalently-labelled objective or as to what precise attributes are required for a particular objective to be defined as "green", "sustainable", "social" or such other equivalent label. The area of sustainable finance is and continues to be, the subject of many and wide-ranging voluntary and regulatory initiatives to develop rules, guidelines, standards, taxonomies and objectives, for example in respect of environmental sustainable investments the EU Taxonomy Regulation (EU) 2020/852 (as amended, the "Taxonomy Regulation") and the planned European regulation on European Green Bonds based on the respective European Commission's proposal of July 2021 (COM(2021) 391). Even if any voluntary standard or a regulatory framework standardises the terms "green", "social" or "sustainable", these standards do not necessarily apply to the Products and the Issuer does not necessarily plan to seek compliance for any of the Products with all or some of such rules, guidelines, standards, taxonomies or objectives. Accordingly, there can be no assurance to investors that objectives or uses that are the subject of, or related to, an ESG Contribution will meet investors' preferences of such "green", "sustainable", "environmental", "ESG" or other similarly labelled objectives, or that there will be no negative environmental, social and/or other impacts during the life of a particular Product, the conduct of an economic activity or the use of the subject of an ESG Contribution, or in connection therewith.

No guarantee or representation is given in connection with the suitability or admissibility for any purpose of any classification or certification by a third party (whether or not requested by the Issuer) that may be provided in connection with the issue of Products and in particular with an ESG Contribution to the fulfilment of environmental, sustainability, social and/or other criteria. For the avoidance of doubt, such classification or certification shall not be included in and/or form part of the Base Prospectus. Such classification or certification does not constitute, and should not be construed as a recommendation by the Issuer or any other person to buy, sell or hold such Products. Any such classification or certification is only valid at the time of the first issuance of the opinion. Prospective investors must determine for themselves whether such classification or certification and/or the information contained therein and/or the provider of such classification or certification is relevant for the purposes of investing in such Products. Currently, providers of such classifications and certifications are not subject to any specific regulatory or other system or supervision. Potential investors may access the latest version of the framework relating to the issuance of green or sustainable Products on the Issuer's website at <https://www.leonteq.com/>.
